Arts Council To Meet

An important meeting of the Madison County Arts Council is to be held this Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Walnut School.

The agenda is to include a straight vote by active members of the proposed bylaws changes; an update and discussion of plans for the PAROTT Project; the Song Festival to be held at the end of September; fund-raising projects; the Bascom Lamar Lunsford Festival; and programs for Madison children. All members and interested people ae urged to come.

PAROTT Picnic In Hot Springs

This coming Saturday the PAROTT Project takes a big step closer to being ready to open doors. A workday has been scheduled by the Madison County Arts Council to start at 10 a.m. to begin construction on the new stage in the old Times Theater in Hot Springs. Volunteers are urgently needed to join the crew (many hands make light work). During rest periods you'll be able to enjoy music on Main Street by the Happy Valley Boys and local bands, sponsored by the Trail Cafe, MC'd by Goose Gosnell. And then stay around for Labor Day fun, food and fireworks presented by the Hot Springs Lions Club.

So come for a big day in Hot Springs, bring a hammer, saw and good right arm for the stage, your instruments for jamming, ears to listen, toes to tap and eyes to enjoy.

Foot Races In Collowhee

Foot races were traditional pastimes at early American holiday celebrations, and Mountain Heritage Day, to be held at Western Carolina University Sept. 29, will honor that tradition.

The annual Kiwanis Mountain Heritage Day Country Run, a five-mile run of average difficulty and no tough hills, will begin at Reid Gymnasium at 9 a.m. Registration for the race will start at 8 a.m.

While the event itself may be traditional, some of the rules arre modern. For example, there will be four men's and two women's age divisions and separate men's and women's "mountaineer" categories. Entrants in the 'mountaineer" divisions must wear bib overalls, and the men's overalls must have long legs. Women may wear bib overall cutoffs or bib shorts.

Other divisions include men under 15 years old, 15-29, 30-44, 45 and over, and women under 30 and 30 and over
