

MRS. JAMES ANDREW PORTER II
...the former Anita Jane Keller

Anita Keller Weds James Porter

Anita Jane Keller of Marshall and James Andrew Porter II of Robbinsville were united in marriage in a candlelight ceremony at the Enon Baptist Church on May 21. The Revs. Bruce E. Buckner and Jerry L. Wilson performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Joe Keller of Marshall. The groom is the son of Mrs. Billie J. Porter of Robbinsville and the late Robert L. Porter.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attired in a formal gown of white silk organza which featured a sweetheart neckline and an empire waist. Appliques of embroidered lace and seed pearls accented the bodice and the bishop sleeves. The full skirt of silk organza flowed into a chapel-length train featuring a ruffled flounce of embroidered lace. Her chapel length veil and blusher of silk illusion edged in Chantilly lace was attached to a Camelot cap of Chantilly lace and pearls.

She carried a cascade bouquet of silk pink and white roses, white orchids and stephanosis, and blue starflowers.

Brenda Gail Keller of Marshall, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a formal gown of pink crepe with a lace bodice and peplum overlay. She carried a colonial silk bouquet of pink, blue, and white daisies with baby's breath.

Sandra Keller and Teresa Keller of Marshall, sisters of the bride, and Ginger Millsaps of Mars Hill and Connie Wiggins of Robbinsville served as bridesmaids. They wore formal lace gowns accented with a bustle and flounce in pink and blue. They carried colonial bouquets identical to the maid of honor's.

William Dale Laughter, Jr. of Robbinsville, friend of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Craig Millsaps and David Haney, both of Robbinsville, Chris Millsaps of Mars Hill, and John Cook of Statesville.

The flower girls were Daphne Lisenbee of Marshall and Adrienne Barlow of Hickory. They wore full length ivory gowns with a pink and blue floral print. Brett Lisenbee of Weaverville was the ring bearer. All three are cousins of the bride.

Music for the wedding was provided by Cindy Stanton, pianist, Gerald Ball, organist, Linda Selman, flutist, and Alan Wilson, trumpeter. Soloists were Susie Thompson and Jerry Herron. A congregational hymn was led by Danny Anglin.

Nancy Hickey attended the guest register and gave out the wedding programs. La Teague directed the wedding. A reception followed the ceremony in Blackwell Hall at Mars Hill College. It featured a three-tiered wedding cake which sat on top of a lighted pink fountain. Frances Snelson directed the reception. Serving as hostesses were Donna Rice, Maxine Snelson, and Nancy Allen.

The bride's mother chose a mauve chiffon dress accented with an embroidered layered bodice and a silk double white carnation. The groom's mother wore an off-white dress with silver and rhinestone accents with a silk pink carnation.

The bride is a 1983 magna cum laude graduate of Mars Hill College with a degree in Early Childhood Education. She is a member of the Alpha Chi Honor Society and is listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

The groom is also a 1983 graduate of Mars Hill College with a degree in Business Administration and Business Education. He is a member of the Business Honor Club and Student National Education Association. He is presently employed by Mars Hill College in the Wren College Union.

After a wedding trip to Gatlinburg, the couple will reside in Mars Hill.

MHC Offers Two Summer Sessions

Mars Hill College will hold two sessions of summer school which will offer a variety of classes both on and off campus at half-tuition rates. Over 100 classes in academic disciplines ranging from aesthetics to social and behavioral sciences will be offered during the two five-week sessions.

The first term will meet May 30 through July 1, with registration held from 3 to 6 p.m. on campus in Chambers Gymnasium and at off-campus sites including Asheville High School's Vocational Building from 6 to 7 p.m.; in Burnsville at East Yancey Middle School from 6 to 7 p.m.; in Marion's First Baptist Church from 6 to 7 p.m.; in Waynesville at Tuscola High School's Building A from 7 to 8 p.m.; and in Webster at Southwestern Community College's Technical Building from 7 to 8 p.m.

The second term of the summer session will begin with registration on Monday, July 4. Registration on campus will again be held in Chambers Gym from 3 to 6 p.m. Registration at off-campus sites will be held in Asheville at Asheville High's Vocational Building from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m.; in Marion's First Baptist Church from 7 to 8 p.m.; and on Tuesday, July 5, at Brevard's Elementary School from 6 to 7 p.m. The second term will end Aug. 5.

Students may take a maximum of 14 semester hours credit during the two terms, and in addition to the reduced rates, other financial aid is available. Further information concerning class schedules, financial aid, and application is available from Dr. John M. Hough, Dean for Continuing Education and Director of the Summer School at Mars Hill College or by calling 689-1166.
