MRS. BOBBY LEE WILSON
...the former Rebekah Lynn Jarvis

Rebekah Lynn Jarvis of Mars Hill and Bobby Lee Wilson of Burnsville were joined in marriage Saturday evening in a ceremony conducted in the California Creek Baptist Church. The Rev. Joe Honeycutt, pastor of the Little Ivy Baptist Church, presided over the service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Jarvis of Mars Hill. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Dessie W. Baird and the late Hubert Wilson.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white satin gown with a chapel length train, full skirt and long sleeves with a high neckline. The gown's bodice was accented with seed pearls and sequins, as was her fingertip veil.

She carried a bouquet of orchids and pink roses.

Jannifer Maney of Mars Hill was the maid of honor. She wore a wine colored gown with a headpiece of baby's breath and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Rhonda English, Melissa Radford and Marlene Murray, all of Mars Hill, served as bridesmaids. They also wore wine colored satin dresses and carried bouquets similar to that carried by the maid of honor.

Randy Grindstaff of Mars Hill was the best man.

Joe Merrill, Roy Young and Dean Ogle of Mars Hill served as ushers.

Becky Reece of Mars Hill was the flower girl and Scotty Wilson of Burnsville served as the ringbearer.

The bride is a 1984 graduate of Madison High School. She is currently enrolled in the nursing program at Asheville-Buncombe Technical College.

The bridegroom is a 1983 graduate of Mars Hill College. He is employed by OMC of Burnsville.
