Revival At Oak Hill Church

Oak Hill Missionary Baptist Church will hold a revival beginning May 6 at 7 p.m. Guest speaker will be Rev. H. L. Wilson. The Rev. Roger Slagle, pastor, invites everyone to attend.

Revival At Memorial Church

The Memorial Church of God is now holding a revival which began April 29. Services will start at 7:30 p.m. Guest speaker is Rev. David Watson of Lenoir City, Tenn. The Rev. Carroll Shelton, pastor, invites everyone to attend the services.

Unaka Center Members To Meet

The Unaka Center, Inc. will hold its annual membership meeting on May 9 at 7 p.m. at the Unaka Center in Hot Springs to elect three members to the board of directors for three-year terms. All Hot Springs area adults are invited to attend. Refreshments will be served. Call 622-7116 for more information.

Rainey To Speak On Peace, Politics

Gene Rainey, chairman of the Political Science department at the University of North Carolina at Asheville, will speak at the Mars Hill Community Library on Sunday at 3 p.m. 'Politics, Religion and International Affairs' will be the topic of discussion.

The talk is the first in a series on patriotism and peacemaking made possible by a grant from the North Carolina Humanities Committee. The audience will have an opportunity to express their opinions on the issues raised.

May Day Festival Set

The fifth annual May Day Festival will be held at Madison High School on Saturday from 10 a.m. until 11 p.m. The annual fair, sponsored by the Madison County Association for Retarded Citizens, will be held on the football practice field adjacent to U.S. 25-70 from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m.

During the evening, a dance and clogging exhibition will be held in the Madison H.S. gym. Music will be provided by Terry Hunter and the Bounty Hunters Band. Pam Crowhurst, Steve Rice, Lou Zeller and others will present a clogging exhibition during the dance.

During the day, activities will include field competitions in volleyball, tug-of-war and horseshoes and non-competitive games. There will also be a crafts fair and flea market in the parking lot and soft drinks and hot dogs will be available. In addition to the games and food, there will be game booths featuring ring toss and dart throws, pony rides, clowns with balloon, face painting and storytelling by Raggedy Ann.

There will also be a raffle offering more than 75 prizes, with the grand prize, a beef on the hoof.

Proceeds from the May Day fair benefit the projects of the Madison County Association for Retarded Citizens. The fair is open to the public and no admission will be charged.

Prizes and support for the May Day Festival have been donated by the following businesses and individuals: Allen Farm Supply, Bowman Hardware, Balsam Beauty Salon, Coal Feed and Lumber, Dodson's Supermarket, First Union Bank, French Broad Chevrolet, Houston Brothers AMC, Pioneer Ford, Roberts Pharmacy, Penland and Sons Department Store, Ponder's Auto Supply, Plaza Burger Parlor, Home Electric, Mary's Restaurant, The News Record, Joe's Donuts, Northwestern Bank, Brenda's Beauty Salon, Sprinkle-Shelton, Magic Mirror Styling Salon, O.A. ## SEEDS FROM THE SOWER

By Michael A. Guido, Metter, Georgia

Someone has said, "The Japanese kill themselves by harakiri, and the Americans by hurry-worry." But it is written in Psalm 37:7, "Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for Him."

The expression "rest in the Lord" means "be silent toward the Lord." The idea is that of waiting in silence for that which the Lord is about to do for you.

Moses led the Israelites out of Egypt. But the Egyptians pursued them and overtook them at the Red Sea, and they were frightened. While they were criticising and contriving, Moses said, "Fear not! Stand still and see the salvation of the Lord, which He will work for you today."

Hold your peace and remain at rest."

Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea and the Lord turned it into dry land. And the Israelites marched through the sea on dry ground.

Red Sea experiences come into all our lives. Some try to suggest to the Lord, while others are silent toward Him. Some try to work things out in their own bungling way, while others wait for Him to work it out in His blessed way.

Be still and rest in the Lord. Wait for Him. The Lord is worth waiting for. His clock is never slow. He will come to you just when you need Him most.

The Way We Were...

Sixty-five years ago this week, The News Record reported that Caney Ramsey was a candidate for the Republican Party nomination for Madison County Sheriff. Ramsey was opposed by the incumbent and eventual winner, Jesse James Bailey. Commencement exercises were held by the Hot Springs Graded School in the Dorland Memorial Presbyterian Church. Accounts of the event did not list the students' names, but credited teachers Maude Gentry, Ruth Fulcher and Mrs. Albert Brown for their good work.

General Leonard Wood declared his candidacy for the presidency by entering the North Carolina primary. The Bank of French Broad was advertising for depositors with the promise of four percent interest.

Roy M. Cook of Marshall enlisted in the U.S. Army Field Artillery Corps and was sent to Camp Bragg.

Jarrett, Ogle Vows

Brenda Kay Jarrett of Weaverville and Bruce Dean Ogle of Mars Hill were united in marriage Saturday evening in a ceremony held in the Alexander Baptist Church. The Revs. Claude Surret and Joe Rice conducted the service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Jarrett of Weaverville. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ogle of Mars Hill.

Joyce Willett and Tammy Willett provided music during the ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal gown with a neckline trimmed in pearls and sequins and a train which featured seven tiers of Chantilly lace. She wore a fingertip veil, also trimmed in lace, and a headpiece decorated in sequins and pearls.

She carried a bouquet of silver roses, white mums and baby's breath.

Janet Gray of Jamestown served as the matron of honor. She wore a lavender gown with a white lace jacket and carried a bouquet of pink sweetheart roses and daisies with baby's breath.

Joyce Slagle and Linda Payne of Mars Hill and Renee Aiken of Alexander and Wendy Justice of Weaverville served as bridesmaids. They wore gowns similar to that worn by the matron of honor.

Joe B. Ogle served as his son's best man.

Carroll Burrell, Eugene Young and Joe Merrill of Mars Hill and the bride's brother, Tim Jarrett of Weaverville, served as ushers.

Jamie Slagle and Terri Ray served as flower girls. Jason Payne was the ringbearer.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church fellowship hall. Shelly Robinson, Mary Lynn Wild, Mary Jarrett and Louise Kehoe assisted at the reception.

The mother of the bride wore a light blue floor-length gown.

The mother of the bridegroom chose a mauve colored gown with a lace top and pleated skirt.

The bride is a graduate of Mars Hill College. She is employed by Microswitch of Mars Hill as a data entry clerk.

The bridegroom is also a graduate of Mars Hill College. He is employed as a sales representative with Cornett Air Cooled Engines of Asheville.

The couple will make their home in Mars Hill.

LILAC TIME

They're young, they're in love, they face each other across the table munching hamburgers and sipping cokes. They've got stars in their eyes and they're in a cloud that "comes on" like a country lane in lilac time. Just now they don't need anything or anybody else.

It's beautiful while it lasts, but it doesn't last, at least not this way. In some ways, things get better. In other ways, the repetition of everyday living (with the bills and the dishes and colds in winter and poison ivy in summer) catches up. And so people need a focal point where they can weigh one thing against another and really consider what it's all about.

There happens to be a good place to ponder and to judge. . . one that's been around for quite a few centuries. The Church, in case you haven't guessed.
