Mars Hill College Drive Raises $44,500

According to the Mars Hill College Office of Development, the college recently raised $44,500 during its 1986 National Phonathon. Held during the last three weeks, the phonathon was conducted by over 100 students representing 14 campus organizations.

According to Marsha Walker, assistant director of development, the students received 1,597 pledges. This represented a 15 percent increase in the number of pledges from previous phonathons, and resulted in a 33 percent increase in dollars.

The funds raised will go to meet the college's challenge grant from the Mellon Foundation of New York. This grant, awarded in November, 1984, is a $350,000 grant that must be matched two-for-one by the college. The $1,050,000 will then be used to establish a permanently endowed fund for faculty and curriculum renewal in the arts, sciences, and humanities.

"This is an excellent job by our students," commented Mars Hill College president, Dr. Fred Bentley. "The dedication of these young people is indicative of the effort everyone who loves Mars Hill will have to put forth to ensure that we succeed. They are to be highly commended."

Honors for top money raiser went to both the Omega Kappa Alpha sorority and Iota Alpha Omega fraternity, who each raised $7,397. Other top money raisers included Sigma Alpha Chi, Delta Kappa Theta, and Lambda Chi Omega.

Salvation Army

The Salvation Army opened its first office in Hot Springs last month at 125 Jackson St. Although the Salvation Army has been in Hot Springs for almost 20 years, this is its first office. Previously its business had been held out of its local director's home.

Lt. Thomas Friddle, who was appointed the Salvation Army Officer for Madison County last month, says he hopes the separate office will give the organization better exposure in the community.

"In the past, people may not have been aware of our presence in the community, operating out of someone's home as we have," said Lt. Friddle.

A new sign is expected to be placed over their new offices sometime in April. In the meantime, Lt. Friddle is seeking donations of clothing, furniture and food goods, to be passed on to the needy in the area.

Currently the Salvation Army office is in dire need of financial assistance of its own. It must rely on local contributions for its rent and utilities and, according to Lt. Friddle, the funds are not there at present.

"Without some local support, we might be forced to shut down after only a few months of operation," said Lt. Friddle. "And that would be a shame for those in need of our assistance."

The Hot Springs office is open Mondays through Wednesdays from 9 a.m. to noon. Lt. Friddle asks that people call for an appointment. The office telephone number is 622-3359. Mail should be sent to the Salvation Army, P.O. Box 295, Hot Springs, N.C. 28743.

Opens

Lt. Friddle may also be found on Fridays at the two Salvation Army churches at Sleepy Valley and Bonnie Hill. Church services are held at the two locations on Sundays, in Bonnie Hill at 9:30 a.m. and Sleepy Valley at 10 a.m.

On Saturday, April 5, there will be a rummage sale at the Sleepy Valley church from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. There will also be revival services at Sleepy Valley each night, April 9-13, starting at 7 p.m. Former S.A. Officer for Hot Springs, Brig. James Henry, will be conducting the services.

For more information regarding the Salvation Army and its assistance programs to the community, contact Lt. Thomas Friddle at 622-3359.

WCU Seeks Church Choirs

A 300-voice mass chorus will perform as part of the dedication ceremony. Interested choir directors should contact Dr. Maxie Beaver at 227-7242 for more information.

"Hosanna"! Whatever the morrow may hold of the suffering, today we declare to the world... "Christ has come." Because we are in His company, we know that God ultimately will be sovereign over all the world. We are confident that goodness is stronger than evil. We are sure love will triumph over hate. Whatever a Friday of crucifixion may bring of temporary defeat, we know life will triumph over death, and the Christian way will resolve itself supremely in the final destiny. Then Palm Sunday is a day to celebrate and we set up our banner of hope. "For right is right as God is and right the day must win."
