

Deborah Greene, David Lee Clark Exchange Vows

Deborah Ramsey Greene and David Lee Clark of Weaverville were united in marriage Saturday evening in a ceremony held in the Pleasant Hill Baptist Church. The Rev. Harry Culbertson officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Clyde Ramsey of Weaverville. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carmel Clark of Weaverville.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Perry Ramsey of Leicester. The bride wore a formal gown trimmed in lace featuring a chapel-length train. The gown had a lace-beaded bodice with a Queen Anne neckline. She carried a bouquet of daisies, roses and baby's breath.

The bride's sister, Carolyn Dover of Asheville, was the matron of honor. The bridegroom's sister, Rosemary Clark of Weaverville, and the bride's sister-in-law, Joy Ramsey of Weaverville, served as bridesmaids.

The matron of honor wore a rose colored chiffon dress. The bridesmaids wore chiffon gowns of light orchid.

The bridegroom's brother, John Clark of Weaverville, served as the best man. The bride's son, Danny Greene of Weaverville, served as an usher along with the bride's nephews, Jeff Shipman of Asheville and Stacy Ramsey of Weaverville.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church fellowship hall. Glada Jenkins, Debbie Rice, Brenda Clark, Sharon Noel, Judy Whitlock, Heather Whitlock, Amy Rice and Kelly Whitlock assisted at the reception.

The bride's mother wore a turquoise dress with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a pink dress with matching accessories.

The bride received her high school equivalency diploma from Asheville-Buncombe Technical College. She is employed by Daniels Graphics.

The bridegroom attended North Buncombe H.S. and received his GED from Mayland Technical College. He is employed by the French Broad Electric Membership Corp.

Following a wedding trip to Myrtle Beach, the couple will make their home on Flat Creek Church Rd. in Weaverville.
