

Obituaries

and Sherrill Mooneyham of Moneta, Va.; two brothers, Elmer Kent of Asheville and Charles Kent of Hot Springs; four sisters, Isabelle Gregory of Mars Hill, Pauline Balding of Waynesville, Ruby Fleming of Hildebran and Robbie Parker of Hot Springs; 16 grandchildren; and, six great-grandchildren.

Services were held Friday in Zion Baptist Church, Bluff, of which he was a member. Lt. Tom Friddle and the Rev. Iluff Suggs officiated. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Blanche Sherrill

Blanche Harrison Sherrill, 74, of 1383 E. Colonial Drive, Salisbury, died June 8 at her residence.

A native of Spencer, she attended Salisbury Business College and Catawba College. She retired from Sherrill & Smith Co. and was a member of Salisbury First Presbyterian Church, Rowan Memorial Hospital Auxiliary and past regent of Elizabeth Maxwell Steele DAR.

Surviving are her husband, William A. Sherrill; three daughters, Judy Sears of Mars Hill, Lynne Wilbourne of Eden and Libby Richardson of Gainesville, Fla.; six sisters, Dollie Click of Fairfax, Va., Rosie Gobbel of Spencer, Helen Gardner of Greensboro, Ruby Burton of Raleigh, Rachel Harrison of Charleston, S.C., and Ruth Uzzell of Salisbury; and, eight grandchildren.

Services were held last Thursday in Salisbury under the direction of Summersett Funeral Home.

Helen D. Davis

Helen D. Davis, 80, of Brush Creek Road, Fairview, died Saturday in an Asheville hospital.

She was a Madison County native and had lived in Buncombe County for 70 years. She was a member of Tweed's Chapel United Methodist Church. Her parents were the late George and Sue Hooker Dula.

Surviving are her husband, Coy A. Davis; two sons, Richard Davis of Asheville and Glen Davis of Washington, D.C.; four daughters, Barbara McGuinn and Betty Nesbitt, both of Asheville, Jean Moore of Waynesville and Pat Reynolds of Lenoir; a brother, Tom Dula of Weaverville; four sisters, Alma Hunt and Izola Taylor, both of Weaverville, and Mildred West and Clara Ladez, both of Florida; 15 grandchildren; and, a great-grandchild.

Services were held Monday in Williams Funeral Chapel. The Rev. Harold Houck officiated. Burial was in Ashelawn Gardens of Memorv.

More And More People In North Carolina
Are Coming To Wachovia Bank For 15-Year
Mortgages. For Good Reason.

All They Have To Do Is To Stop By Any Wachovia Office And Talk To Any Personal Banker.

They Can Close Fast, Within 2-3 Weeks.

They Can Choose From Fixed Or
Adjustable Rate Mortgages With Amortization
Up To 15 Years.

With A 15-Year Mortgage, They Can Save
Thousands Of Dollars In Interest Compared To Longer Term Mortgages.

And They're Finding That Their Payments
Are Surprisingly Affordable.

If You're In The Market For A First Or Second Mortgage, Join The Crowd On The Way
To The Bank.

Wachovia

The Bank For Mortgage Money