Roberts Appointed To Courts Commission

Gov. Jim Martin reappointed Warren H. Owen of Charlotte and appointed Dan Simpson of Morganton and Clyde Roberts of Marshall to the North Carolina Courts Commission.

The North Carolina Courts Commission is a permanent legislative committee set up to make studies of the structure and organizations of the Judicial Department and make recommendations to the General Assembly for changes in the department.

Simpson, 60, received a law degree from Wake Forest University. He is currently serving his second term as a North Carolina state senator from the 27th district. He previously served three terms in the House of Representatives.

Roberts is currently retired after 20 years in private law practice. He graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He taught school in Madison County for five years before serving as clerk of the Superior Court for Madison County. He served as the district attorney of Madison County for 16 years and is the former mayor of Marshall.

Roberts was a House representative for Madison County in 1949 and state senator for the 30th district in 1961.

UNCA Offers Art Course For High School Juniors

A month-long summer art experience for rising high school juniors and seniors begins Wednesday at the University of North Carolina at Asheville.

The course is titled "Artsperience" and carries three hours of college-level credit. The enrichment course emphasizes a broad approach to visual creativity through color and design experiences in painting and drawing.

The course meets from 1 to 4 p.m. Monday through Wednesday in Owen Hall studio 233. Course instructor is Richard Weis, a UNCA visiting artist who holds a master of fine arts degree from Indiana University.

The cost of the course is $90 for tuition and fees and approximately $75 for materials.

For more information call UNCA's office of special academic programs at 251-6557.
