Hansel King

Hansel Harold King, 80, of Alexander Road, Leicester, died Friday in a Buncombe County hospital. A lifelong resident of Buncombe County, he was the son of the late Abe and Cora Clark King and the husband of Lottie Ward King, who died in 1953. He retired from American Enka Corp.

Surviving are four sons, James Weaver King of Candler, Robert Reeves and Carroll King of Leicester and Paul Ray King of Baltimore, Md.; two daughters, Katie Hooper of Mocksville and Frances McElreath of Hendersonville; a sister, Ruby Worley of Leicester; 20 grandchildren; and, 18 great-grandchildren.

Services were Sunday in Payne's Chapel Methodist Church. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Ruth B. Franklin

Ruth Bailey Franklin, 73, of Route 2, Walker Branch Road, Mars Hill, died Sunday in a Madison County nursing home.

She was a native of Yancey County and had lived in Madison County for 41 years. She was a daughter of the late John Wes and Burgie Angel Bailey and the wife of Floyd Franklin, who died in November 1986. She was a member of Terry's Fork Baptist Church.

Surviving are a daughter, Josephine Smith of Weaverville; two sons, William and Gary Franklin of Mars Hill; a sister, Hazel Bailey of Burnsville; two brothers, Levi Bailey of Burnsville and Paul Bailey of Johnson City, Tenn.; 16 grandchildren; and, 12 great-grandchildren.

Services were held Tuesday in the chapel of Capps Funeral Home. The Revs. Frances Radford and Cline Honeycutt officiated. Burial was in Chambers Cemetery.

Student Joins Staff

Victim's Friends Donate $3,387

Relatives and friends of Frankie Junker Long, the 52-year-old Cary woman killed in a June white-water rafting accident on the French Broad River, have donated $3,387 to five Madison County emergency agencies.

The funds will be split between the Madison County Emergency Management Service, the Madison County Sheriff's Department, the Mars Hill Fire Department, the Marshall Fire Department and the Ebbs Chapel Fire Department.

The money is in appreciation of the various department's roles in efforts to locate and retrieve Long's body after she drowned when the raft in which she was a passenger hit a boulder and overturned.

Authorities Confiscate Marijuana

The Madison County Sheriff's Department has charged a 35-year-old Big Pine man with manufacturing a controlled substance.

The department arrested James L. Medders last week and charged him with manufacturing 26 marijuana plants, Sheriff Dedrick Brown said.

The arrest came during a week of drug raids throughout Madison County that netted more than 200 marijuana plants.

The plants were found in the Big Pine, Little Pine, Grapevine, Sandy Mush and Mars Hill areas.

Brown estimated the value of the confiscated marijuana at $320,000.

Correction

A $75,000 state appropriation requested by House Speaker Liston B. Ramsey for Hot Springs Health Care would be used for continuation of supportive service programs for the developmentally disabled, not for operational expenses for health care clinics, as reported in last week's News Record.
