

Brigman, Henderson Wed

Kimberly Delayna Brigman and Stephen Lawrence Henderson were united in holy matrimony on May 21 at the Marshall Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Jimmy Buckner officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lane Ogle of Marshall and Mr. John Knox Brigman of Birmingham, Ala.

Given in marriage by her brother, Wayne Brigman, the bride wore a gown of white bridal satin and organza. The wedding band collar was decorated with seed pearls and sequins. The front was open to reveal a decolletage neckline. The puff sleeves were accented with appliques, seed pearls and sequins. The bodice was adorned with seed pearls and sequins. The basque waistline gave way to a full organza ruffled skirt. The back was open with strands of pearls draped across the back of the gown. The satin bow was the finishing touch to a semi-cathedral ruffled train. She wore a matching head piece of pearls and sequins with a finger-tip veil.

Matron of honor was Tammy Brown Brigman of Mars Hill. Maid of honor was Dora Ann Rice of Walnut.

Bridesmaids were Lorie Mahy of Durham, Julie Allison Robinson of Mars Hill, Katrina Connor Oden of Thomaston, Ga., Geri Branam Ray of Weaverville and Angie Bullman of Weaverville.

The bridegroom is the son of Mary Ramsey Henderson of Walnut and the late Edgar "Skeeter" Henderson.

Best man was Harold Henderson. Ushers were John Brigman of Marshall, Daniel Brigman of Orlando, Fla., Eddie Henderson of Fletcher, Mike Henderson of Asheville, Gene Meadows of Arden, Arnold King of Leicester, Gary Hensley of Marshall and Clayton Hensley of Walnut.

Junior attendants were Nicholas Meadows as ringbearer and Tara Brown as flowergirl.

After a wedding trip to Alaska, the couple will reside in Mars Hill.

The bride attended Madison High School and will attend Mars Hill College this fall majoring in elementary education.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Asheville Buncombe Technical College and is employed with Micro Switch.
