

Pleasant Valley Church Members Build Parsonage

Friends and church members of the Pleasant Valley Baptist Church donated their time and labor to build a new parsonage and fellowship hall. Some members worked on Saturdays, others in the evenings after work. Whenever anyone had time, the building was being worked on.

The men did most of the heavy work, and the ladies helped to paint, put up wallpaper and decorate the rooms.

Pleasant Valley is also honored to welcome their new pastor, Carl Robinson and his wife Vistula.

The Robinsons live in Weaverville.

Upper Laurel Community Wing Honor

The Upper Laurel Community Development participated in the Western North Carolina Beautiful Contest on Aug. 10 and was selected by the judges to participate in the area contest.

The Mobile Home Contest winners were Zack and Jane Bailey of Mars Hill, members of the Upper Laurel Community.

The community would like to recognize other members who helped clean up the roadsides, worked at the center, planted flowers and made efforts to help improve the community.

about 5 p.m. Thursday on Short Coxe Ave.

Morris apparently agreed to give three of the four persons a ride to their home. He was hurt when the four allegedly beat him inside the home.

Lambert said the four allegedly took personal belongings and kept Morris' car after dropping him off on Short Coxe Road.

Morris' family staked out the area where the car was discovered Friday and called police when four strangers returned to the car.

Lambert received several broken ribs in the incident, Lambert said, but was not injured seriously.

"He was trying to be nice guy and just got caught in the middle of something," Lambert said of Morris.

Lambert said four people were arrested and charged with common law robbery, kidnapping and assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill or inflict serious injury.

All four are being held in lieu of $45,000 bond.

In other developments: Mars Hill Police Chief R.J. Cutshall arrested a 17-year-old Mars Hill man Aug. 19 and charged him with possession of a concealed weapon, possession of a sawed-off and possession of marijuana.

Frank Cantrell, of Rt. 3, Mars Hill was allegedly discovered carrying a .22 pistol and the shotgun.

ty from 600 to 1,200 gallons a minute.

"This is a very exciting mountain," he said, "with a tremendous variety of slopes."

Gmunder's ambitious plans could have quite an economic impact on Madison County.

Jerry Plemmons, vice president of the Madison County Chamber of Commerce who works closely with economic development in the county, says he sees a lot of potential at Wolf Laurel.

"I think it's obvious this will be very good for the area," Plemmons said. "It will enhance tourism and travel in the area."

The Madison Chamber is a big booster of tourism, one of the county's biggest businesses, and has recently completed a new travel and tourism brochure with a special TVA grant.

"I think the possibilities are very, very exciting."

MIGRAINE

Also called sick headaches, a typical migraine attack begins with a dull throbbing ache in one area of the head and progresses to a piercing pain. These torturous attacks may be preceded by a change in the field of vision — a flickering before the eyes, flashes of light or a partial blocking of the vision. They are sometimes accompanied by nausea or vomiting. They are seldom relieved by aspirin. Their duration is from 2 to 48 hours.

HIDDEN TREASURE

Children are intrigued with the idea of a treasure hunt. The prospect of riches in some hidden place creates great excitement. As we grow older we cease to believe that we might find unexpected treasure. We're more accustomed to the idea that we must work hard for any riches that we might acquire.

Yes, there is a great source of riches that remains untapped for many. This source is called the Bible. Between its pages are words of great wisdom and beauty. Go on a treasure hunt today. Open your Bible and find the riches it offers to you.
