REPORTER. STRAIGHT LINES IN THE NEW BOX COAT. Variety in Sleeves With Indications of Exaggerated Size.

New York, November 2.—The wealth of artistic and smart ideas in afternoon and street frocks this season, while fascinating, is somewhat bewildering, too.

Mrs. B. Sykes, Mr. J. Fine of Dunn; Mrs. Clara Benjamin, of Philadelphia; Miss Lanta Herr; Mr. J. La cob; Mr. and Mrs. J. Goldstein; Mr. L. Morris; Miss Fannie Bloom, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Kra; Fayetteville observers.

since then there has been a decided change toward the looser, belted models, unbelted coats with a half suggestion of waistline, or strapless still, no waist at all, a return to short to the box coat.

The effect of these unfitted coats is a bit more youthful than the staid lines, which demand beauty and grace of figure.

The Necessary Touch of Fur. One is talking of fashions must speak again and again of fur—it is so absolutely necessary to gown and suit that every imaginable animal that has a furry coat, is being utilized.

Messrs. A. W. McAllister, R. C. Vaughn and A. M. Seales, of companies in which the late R. C. Hood was interested, have offered $11,000 toward a fund to erect a Y. W. C. A. building for Greensboro as a memorial to Mr. Hood.
