Miss Rachel Clifford returned Sunday from a visit to friends at Rocky Mount.

Mr. G. W. Stallings, of Petersburg, Va., was here Monday on business.

Mr. Will Turinton, of Fayetteville, was a business visitor in Dunn yesterday.

Mr. R. I. Austin, of Benson, was in town Sunday and Monday, visiting relatives.

Mrs. J. L. Hatcher and children returned Sunday from a visit to relatives at Clinton.

Mr. Byron Ford, associate editor of the Weekly Review, Benson, spent Sunday here with his family.

Mr. D. L. Herring, of Garland, spent several days here the first of the week with his daughter, Mrs. G. M. Floyd.

Mr. P. S. Cooper, president of the First National Bank, returned Monday from a visit to his brother at Waycross, Ga.

Mr. Ernest Hale, manager of the Bijou Theatre, returned Monday from a visit to Wilmington, where he spent Sunday.

Mrs. M. A. Lee returned Sunday night from Hendersonville, where she has been visiting her parents for several weeks.

Mrs. W. F. Seasons and little daughter, Virginia Stevens, spent several days here last week visiting Mr. J. E. Cole and family.

Mr. J. H. Beasley was a business visitor in Dunn last week. He recently moved his family from Cardenas to the Harnett county town.

Thanksgiving services will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. Baylus Cade, at the First Baptist church next Thursday evening. The public is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Anderson of Benson, drove to Dunn Sunday morning in their Ford and stopped with Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Strickland where they spent the day.

"Within the Law" was presented at the opera house here last Saturday night. A good sized audience greeted the performance which was good and enjoyable.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hood and Mrs. Wallace Coltrane were in Smithfield last Friday where they went to attend the funeral of Mr. Hood's mother, Mrs. Martha Hood.

Mr. Herman Smith, who has been with the Guide for the past several weeks, left Saturday for Smithfield, where he has accepted a position in the mechanical department of the Smithfield Herald.

We are requested to announce that there will be a roll call of members at the Christian church Sunday evening, November 21st immediately after church services. All members are requested to be present.

We are requested to announce that Thanksgiving services will be held at the Methodist church Thursday morning 25th, at 11 o'clock, and will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Shore. The public is invited.

Mr. J. C. Byrd, of Bunnville, was a business visitor in Dunn yesterday. Mr. Byrd was much pleased over the results of the election held in Stewart's Creek township Tuesday, the $15,000 bond issue for good roads having been carried by a two to one vote.

Stewart's Creek township carried the bond issue election Tuesday by a two to one majority. This assures good roads for this township which is one of the best in the county. It will also give the people of this section of the county a good road all the way to Lillington.

The reduction in all goods the Goldstein Company is offering during the month of November continues to attract large crowds. His store is crowded every day and it seems that all his customers are taking advantage of the prices which are way down on all goods.

Effective next Sunday night, north bound train No. 82 will make Dunn a regular stop for through passengers. This train is due here at 11:02 p. m. This gives Dunn as good schedule as any town on the line and the people appreciate the consideration they have been given by the officials of the road.

Mr. F. A. Dawson, of Coats, manager of the Everlasting Window Shade Company, was in town Monday, en route home from a visit to his parents in Sampson county. For the last several weeks Mr. Dawson has been suffering from white swelling in one of his legs and has been forced to use his crutches to get about. He is some better, however, and has many friends and business associates who hope that he will soon regain his normal strength.

Misses Willie Cooper, Carrie Felton and Mamie Stephens were in Fayetteville yesterday.

Harnett Superior court is in session at Lillington this week, with Judge W. A. Devin presiding.

Mr. Fussell, vice-president of the Bank of Cape Fear, is spending the day at his old home in Tabor, Columbus county.

Mr. G. T. Smith, of Lillington, was a business visitor in Dunn yesterday. Mr. Smith is one of Lillington's progressive men who is doing his share in making the county seat town bigger and better.

The Golden Harvest Sale continues to attract large crowds of buyers to H. G. Taylor's Yellow Front store. Mr. Taylor is receiving new goods daily which he bought recently and they are the kind that please the public.

There will be a meeting of the ladies of the town at the graded school auditorium Friday afternoon to perfect an organization of a woman's club and map out a line of work for the future. It is earnestly requested that all women who are interested in the moral welfare of the town be present.

We have been requested to announce that all the stores in Dunn will observe Thanksgiving day by suspending business for that day. This day is generally observed throughout the country in this manner and it is only fitting that the merchants and business men of Dunn do likewise.

Sheriff J. McKay Byrd will be at the Bank of Cape Fear next Saturday for the purpose of collecting taxes. The fall of the year is the best season to pay taxes, as money is more plentiful, and it would be a wise policy to see the sheriff on that day and settle with him. Books will be open from 10 to 3 o'clock.

Volume one, Number one, of the Harnett Post, published at Lillington, the county seat of Harnett, has reached our exchange desk. It is edited and published by J. A. McLeod, County Recorder, and is a Republican in politics. It is an eight-page sheet, is ably edited, and is neat in appearance. The first issue carried a great deal of local news and every page contained interesting matter.

A large crowd of representative citizens of Harnett county were present at Lillington last Friday in response to a call by Superintendent Gentry to make it Educational Day for the county. Most of the school teachers and committeemen were present and took a great deal of interest in the proceedings. An interesting program had been arranged by Mr. Gentry which was carried out in a splendid manner.

The Racket Store Company opens a big sale Friday and for some time will offer their customers many bargains. Manager J. C. Bell has just returned from the northern markets where he purchased a large line of Fall and winter goods and has marked them down to suit the public. The Racket Store Company's stock of goods is among the best to be found as they always carry a clean and up-to-date stock.

Mission Study Class to Meet Sunday

The Mission Study Class of the Bright Jewel Society of the Methodist church will meet next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the church. All members requested to be present.

LUCILE CREELE, Supt. Mission Study and Publicity

The Women Organize.

Meadows W. N. Hutt, of Raleigh, and W. R. Hollowell, of Goldsboro, addressed the ladies of Dunn Friday at the graded school auditorium. The meeting was well attended, and resulted in the organization of a club that will work for the betterment of all that is good in our community and school life.

Every true and earnest woman who has at heart the moral and civic uplift of Dunn and neighboring community, will co-operate with this movement. A meeting will be held next Friday afternoon, November 19, at the graded school to perfect the organization and plan for future work. All the ladies of the town are invited.

$4.00 RICHMOND, NORFOLK $4.00 FOOTBALL GAMES

For the Annual Foot Ball Games, Thursday, November 25—U. N. C. vs. U. V. at Richmond and A. & G. vs. U. & L. at Norfolk—the Atlantic Coast Line will sell excursion tickets from Dunn to Richmond and Norfolk at $4.00 for the round trip. Tickets will be sold for all trains on November 24th and 25th, except trains scheduled to arrive Richmond after 2:10 p. m. and Norfolk after 1:35 p. m. on November 25th, limited returning to midnight of November 26th, 1915. Proportionately low fares will be made from all intermediate stations. For schedules and farther information, call on J. W. WHITEHEAD, Ticket Agent, Dunn, N. C. ATLANTIC COAST LINE The Standard Railroad of the South.

An Appeal for the Orphan.

Whereas our kind Father above has blessed us with peace and plenty and in recognition of this, the President of the United States and the Governor of North Carolina have set apart Thursday, November 25th, 1915, as a National Thanksgiving Day; I, Zadok Harris, President of the North Carolina Orphan's Association, do respectfully ask every citizen of North Carolina, irrespective of color, politics or religion, to set apart one day's earnings to be sent on Thanksgiving Day to the Orphanage of his choice, or some needy Orphan in his community.

Z. PARIS, President Lincolnton, N. C.

Funeral of Mrs. Hood.

The funeral of Mrs. Martha A. Hood, whose death was noted in our issue, was held Friday morning at 11 o'clock at the Primitive Baptist church and conducted by Elders J. A. T. Jones and W. M. Alonzo. Prayer was offered by Elder Hancock, while other ministers made short talks calling attention to the exalted Christian character of the deceased. One striking sentence from Elder Monness was this: "She was one in whom we could find no fault." Such a heritage as this is one of the richest that any person could leave to his or her family and friends.

Following the services at the church the body was borne to its last resting place in the Smithfield Cemetery. The grave was covered with beautiful flowers, silent tokens of love and sympathy from many kind friends. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. J. H. Parker, D. T. Stephenson, J. T. Gurley, Israel Stephenson, F. C. Hamilton and L. P. B. Lee.

Among the out-of-town folks here to attend the funeral, we note the following: Messrs. Bluyson and Joe Britt, Mr. Y. E. Young and wife, of Wake county; Mrs. Della Young, of Cary; Elder W. A. Simpkins, Dr. and Mrs. R. S. Stevens, and Mr. Thornton Hood, of Raleigh, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hood and son, and Mrs. Wallace Coltrane, of Dunn; Mrs. Nan Smith and Mr. D. C. Smith, of Paeock's Cross Roads and other Smithfield Herald.
