me feel," said she, "that he is not only willing to aid the fight against tuberculosis but that he is sympathetic at heart and generous in spirit."
"The letters that come in stamped with Red Cross seals bring other messages than the ones pertaining to business. To me they say, 'We are not only living and doing well but are willing to help others live and do well. We feel the Christmas spirit and are big enough to want others to feel it, and in the meantime we want to see the plague of tuberculosis driven out of our land.'"
"In other words," said the speaker "the use of Red Cross seals on a man's letters, to me, takes all the stinginess out of that man's heart. On the other hand, the use of other kind of seals, those meaningless stickers, exclusive of the Red Cross seals, only marks the user as either selfish or ignorant of the Red Cross seals and the great sentiment they carry out into the world to others."

President and Bride to Hot Springs, Va.
President Wilson and Mrs. Edith Bolling Galt were married at 8:30 o'clock tonight and left afterward to spend their honeymoon at Hot Springs, Va. The President and his bride traveled in a private car attached to a special train leaving here at 11:30 o'clock which is due to arrive in Hot Springs tomorrow at 8:15 a. m.
At Hot Springs, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will live at the Hempstead Hotel until after New Year's Day unless some development should necessitate the President's earlier return to the Capital. Two White House automobiles have been sent on ahead and the couple expect to spend their honeymoon motoring, golfing and walking over the mountain trails. Beside the secret service guard, the party was accompanied by a stenographer. The President will keep in touch with the White House over special wires.—Washington Dispatch, 18th.
Too Short Acquaintances.
"It's no use," pouted little Freddy, who had just completed his first week at school, says the Chicago Herald. "I shall never go to school again!"
"But why," asked his mother.
"What's the use of going? I shall never learn to spell!"
"What do you mean?"
"Well, how can I learn to spell when the teacher changes the words of the State's Departments. 'It makes every day!'"
