Satin and Serge Combinations Favored-Also Figured and Plain Materials.

New York, April 26.—Perhaps the most noticeable thing about the summer styles is their decided youthfulnees; this is both in line and colorng. The straight lined frocks and suits of serge, gabardie, taceta and faille, lend grace and youth to all types of figure. For instance, a yeked, pleated frock of dark blue serge trimmed with black toffets may be worn by the large woman or the small one with equally good results. One particularly good model worn by a large woman, at an exhibition recently, was made with deep shoulder yoke of black taffets, the serge aid in deep, flat pleats, hanging straight from the yoke.
