HON. H. L. GODWIN

WHO has successfully represented the Sixth District in Congress for the past ten years and stood squarely with President Woodrow Wilson in every great crisis and in that big leader's endeavor to bring the government nearer the people.

President Wilson is the choice of the Democratic party for re-nomination and will be re-elected by the American people. He needs those who not only stand with him, but who, by association and experience, understand his policies best; and will work shoulder-to-shoulder with him.

Mr. Godwin again seeks the support of the Democratic voters of the Sixth District, pledging himself to the best interest of all the people all the time and standing on his record backed by his extensive experience. He is close to his people. He is never too tired to work for them at all times, never turns a deaf ear to any man's cry and his heart is with the farmer and the city man in the humble home, as well as with the big business man. He has demonstrated his interest in them on many occasions. None appeal to him with out a hearing.

"It is an unwise performance for any district to change representatives at short intervals. I am now serving my twenty-second year. Go through the whole list and you will find, with few exceptions, that the man of long service have the high places. The old Charlotte District in Virginia knew this and kept John Randolph in the House until he became a National figure."—Champ Clark, Democratic Speaker of the House of Representatives.—Wilmington Dispatch, May 14, 1916.

Congressional Candidates in Robeson.

All of the five candidates for Congress are paying a great deal of attention to Robeson.

Robeson used to stand by Mr. Godwin on every occasion, but his record in Congress doesn't suit the people as well as it once did. One thing that will cause him to lose hundreds of votes in this county is his stand regarding an Indian school at Pembroke. He has been working for a $50,000 appropriation for this purpose, which has caused many of his staunchest friends among the white race to forsake him in this campaign, and now many of his Indian friends are going back on him because he failed to get the appropriation.

Next to Mr. Godwin, Mr. Joseph A. Brown, of Chadbourn, is the best known in this county of any of the candidates. He has met the people face to face in many campaigns, and everybody likes him. He is a man who has made a great success in life and the great strawberry industry in the Chadbourn section, the greatest strawberry market in the world since, as a monument to his pluck and energy.

Another candidate who has made rapid headway in securing votes in Robeson is Mr. Joseph W. Little, of Wilmington. He was perhaps the first to begin the fight on this battlefield. He has canvassed all sections of friends and staunch supporters who did not know him before the Campaign started. Mr. Little is another who has won success, not only in his law practice, but in many other business enterprises. He is the youngest of the five.

Perhaps the candidate who has made the most thorough canvass of Robeson is Mr. Q. K. Nimocks, of Fayetteville. Mr. Nimocks is visiting the people from house to house and they all like him. He has a splendid record as a State Legislator and is a splendid lawyer. He has spent a good part of the past two months in Robeson and expects big things from this county when the voting is over June 3rd.

Ernest F. Young, of Harnett, is the fifth to enter the race for Congress, and those who know him best say that there is not a more able man in the race. He has served with ability in the State Legislature and is popular with his home people. Mr. Young says that there is not a doubt in his mind but what he will carry Harnett and get many votes in every county in the district.—Lumberton Tribune.

The Robesonian is not opposing the cause of any candidate for congress in the sixth district, but it feels free to comment upon any phase of the campaign that may arise, so it rises to remark that it fails to see what good purpose would have been served had Representative Godwin seen fit to accept the invitation of Maj. Little for a joint debate in Wilmington. They could not discuss any issues, especially, for there are no issues, as between Democrats, except that each claims that it is to the best interest of the district to send him to Congress. Joint debates between men each of whom professes to be rooted and grounded in the same faith and to be the very man whom the voters should send to Congress would be an unprofitable performance, to say the least. So far as the Robesonian knows, either of the men who are offering for Congress in this district would represent the district creditably, hence it fails to see any reason for getting excited over the contest or for any joint debates.—Lumberton Robesonian.

MRS. JAMES M. JOHNSON

Mrs. James M. Johnson died at her home in Lower Johnston county, Monday afternoon, May 1st, 1916, at 6:30 o'clock. She was in her sixty-eighth year and had been a patient sufferer for a number of months, suffering from various diseases for several years. Her death was a great loss to the community in which she had spent the major part of her life.

Deceased had been a consistent member of the Missionary Baptist church for 30 years and always took much pride in her church work. She was active in the service of her Lord and lived a noble, upright, Christian life.

The funeral service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. A. Campbell, Tuesday afternoon, from the home, immediately after which her body was interred at the family burying ground, where many had gathered to pay the last tribute of respect to this noble woman.

She was married twice in her life, the first time to Joel M. Lee, to which union two children were born, Charoah and Allen Lee, both of whom survive. The second time she was married to James M. Johnson, and unto them two children were born, Mr. W. O. Johnson of Dunn, and Mrs. C. F. Wagstaff, both of whom survive, together with the husband.

To those of the immediate family and to relatives and friends the sympathy of the community is extended

"Keep on Keeping On."

"If the day looks kinder gloomy
And your chances kinder slim,
If the situation's puzlin'
And the prospect's awful grim,
And perplexities keep pressin'
Till all hope is nearly gone,
Just bridle up and grit your teeth,
And keep on keepin' on."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, it takes internally and acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Cure fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75c.
