

DUNN WANTS 10,000

Men, Ladies, Boys, Girls and Babies to come help celebrate the biggest 4th of July we have ever had

TUESDAY, July 4th is the DAY

Following its custom established four years ago, the town and its business men are completing arrangements for the Biggest Independence Day Celebration ever held in Eastern Carolina. Tuesday, July 4, is the Day. And every person in the surrounding Country is cordially invited to join us in this Big Gala Event. A day of real joyous pleasure is assured every visitors, and every citizen of Dunn will do his part towards giving you a hearty welcome.

BIG PARADE AT 10 O'CLOCK. MUSIC BY BAND

RACING; JUMPING. BIG BASE BALL GAME, FREE LEMONADE ALL DAY; SINGING; DANCING; GREASY POLE CLIMBING

Following is a List of The Prizes:

Best pair of mules in the parade, one Syracuse two-horse plow worth $10.00 by Barnes-Holiday Company.

To the person climbing the greasy pole, $5.00 watch by Mr. J. W. Jordan.

Best singing class $15.00 in gold by the Chamber of Commerce.

Second best singing class, $10.00 in gold by Wilson & Lee, and the Goldstein Company.

Fourth best singing class $2.50 in gold by Mr. A. E. Norris.

Best contestant in the shoe race one $5.00 Panama hat by E. Fleischman & Bros.

Best banjo picker $1.00 by Central Hardware Company.

For largest family unloaded in front of store between the hours of 9 and 12 the Goldstein Company will give $5.00 in gold.

For the best mounted marshal $5.00 in gold by the State Bank & Trust Company.

For the second best mounted marshal from the country one pair of $5.00 W. L. Douglas or Walker shoes by J. L. Hatcher.

The oldest lady calling at the Racket Store between the hours of 9 and 12 they will give a dress pattern.

The largest man calling at the store of G. S. Lee between the hours of 9 and 12 he will give $1.00.

To the man bringing the largest ear of corn to the Dunn Cafe, P. A. Parker & Bro. will give $2.00.

To the best Violin player Butler Brothers will give $25.00 Mandolin and Guitar combined harp.

Third best singing class $5.00 in gold by The M. L. Wade Co.

To the fattest baby calling at the Racket Store they will give a handsome baby cap.

To the farmer having the largest stalk of corn the Bank of Cape Fear will give $2.50 in gold.

To the farmer having the largest stalk of cotton with the most bolls, $2.50 in gold, by Bank of Cape Fear.

Finest milk cow in parade McNeill Pittman will give 5 lb of good coffee

For best bull in parade, $2.50 in gold.

100 yard dash, first, second and third prizes, $2.50, $1.50 and $1.00, by the First National Bank.

Best decorated automobile in parade, $5.00 in gold.

Best decorated float in the parade $5.00 in gold.

Second best decorated float in the parade, $2.50 in gold.

For the neatest and best decorated Ford automobile in the parade, $5.00 by John Thornton.

Second best pair of mules in the parade, $2.50 by John Monds.

Fastest mule in the parade, $2.00 by P. G. A. Tart.

Best looking horse in the parade, $2.00 by R. S. Jernigan.

Best looking float drawn by goats, in the parade $2.00.

Second best looking pair of mules in the parade, one-half sack of flour by Walter Jones.

For the best looking pair of horses in the parade, Johnson Brothers will give a $5.00 pair of shoes.

For the best single horse in harness in the parade, J. W. Draughon will give $5.00 pair of shoes.

Best runner in 220 yard dash, $5.00 prize.

To the prettiest girl calling at McKay Pharmacy between the hours of 10 and 2 they will give a box of Norris' candy.

E. L. Parker & Sons will give to the best clog dancer, one pair of Red Seal $4.00 Shoes.

Lee P. Surles will give $2.00 to the oldest man calling at his store between 10 and 2 o'clock.

Massengill Garage will give for the best lady driver of any automobile in parade, one Safety First radiator cap ornament.

To the second best runner in the 220 yard dash, Eubanks and Rowland will give $2.00.

Better than a circus, bigger than a country fair, this celebration affords Dunn's friends a bigger opportunity for real pleasure than anything offered by any other Carolina town. It costs you nothing--the music and the games and other Athletic events, the parade, the lemonade--all free. You don't have to ask for any of them, just wade in and enjoy them all. They are all here for your especial benefit.

Hundreds of Dollars Worth of Prizes

The committee on arrangements will leave no stone unturned to make this the banner fourth of July. We want you to come laugh and be happy. They have been liberal with prizes, come meet your friends--they will all be here.

Come and Be One of the Ten Thousand
WE WANT YOU AND YOU WANT TO BE WITH US