Mr. Perry Godwin spent Monday in Durham on business.

Mrs. E. P. Davis, of Duke, spent part of the week here with her mother.

Capt. J. E. Cole, of Rowan, spent Sunday in the city with his family.

Miss Mildred Sanders, of Smithfield is visiting in the city the guest of relatives.

Miss Mildred Vick, of Godwin, is spending several days in the city visiting relatives.

Mrs. Allie Parker returned Tuesday after spending several days in Godwin with relatives.

You will notice from an ad in this issue that the First National Bank, of Dunn, has money to lend on good security.

Miss Mary Freeman has returned from Fayetteville where she underwent a minor operation at one of the hospitals there.

After spending several days here with her sister, Mrs. Ellis Goldstein, Miss Freida Isaacs returned Tuesday to her home at Goldsboro.

Miss Elizabeth Shell, a member of the Central Graded School faculty, of Fayetteville, spent Saturday and Sunday here with relatives.

Mr. Jere Pearsall, of Hamlet, arrived Monday to spend several days here with his daughters, Mrs. J. L. Latcher and Mrs. Paul Hood.

Mr. I. T. Warren, of Washington, N. C. was here this week visiting his brother, Mr. Blake Warren, who lives two miles south of Dunn.

Mr. Lewis Jernigan has accepted a position with the Goldstein Company as salesman, and will be glad to have his friends call to see him.

Rev. J. M. Waters, pastor of the Christian church, returned the latter part of the week from Wilson's Mills, where he conducted a revival meeting.

Misses Pieta Dowd and Gladys Jernigan spent Thursday in Lillington, where they went to stand the examination to qualify as teachers in the county.

Mrs. B. M. Brewer and daughter, Louise, returned last Friday morning from Maryland, where they have been visiting relatives for the past two months.

Messrs. Henry Shell, Worth Pope and Henry Lee returned Saturday from Goldsboro, where they played in the Musical band of that city for the Wayne county Fair.

In an article elsewhere in this issue of The Dispatch Capt. J. L. Hines of Company M, Second Infantry, talk interestingly of "A trip to the Sierras." It will no doubt be interesting reading to a number of our subscribers who like to hear from the boys down on the border.

$25,000.00 stock of clothing, dry goods, millinery, shoes, underwear, ladies Cloaks and Coat Suits bought before the big advance and going for less than wholesale cost today is the reason why you should see and price R. G. Taylor Company's goods. That is if you want finer goods and newer styles for less money.

Mr. Chas. Rom, of Lillington, Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of Harnett county, was a visitor in the city Wednesday. He is very optimistic over the prospects of a sweeping Democratic victory in the county and says the Democratic party will win by a safe margin. He has been all over the county, and has met with a great deal of encouragement. While he does not expect Harnett to win the banner, offered to the county making the greatest gains, still he expects a heavy majority to win with votes to spare.

Mr. Marlon Hatcher, of Salisbury, spent Sunday and Monday here with his mother, who is spending several weeks here with relatives. Mr. Hatcher was a citizen of Dunn fifteen years ago, at that time being a member of the law firm of Harold and Hatcher, and later being associated with the law firm of Smith, Hatcher and Smith. Quite a number of our citizens remember him and are always glad to have him with them. He expressed surprise at the rapid growth of Dunn, and, although he did not admit it, seemed to regret that he left Dunn to seek fortune and happiness elsewhere.

Mr. Lewis Strickland spent the day in Raleigh with friends.

Miss Alda Tow and Verna Leggett spent Monday in Durham shopping.

Mrs. Edward Purdie is spending several days this week with relatives at Greenville, N. C.

Miss Beatrice Wade has accepted a position in the office of the Power Electric Company.

The registration books close Saturday, October 28th. Better see now that your name is on the book. Several of the most desirable residential lots in the town of Dunn for sale. Easy terms. See L. B. POPE.

Mrs. J. M. Butler, C. L. Wilson, E. J. Nobles and J. W. Thornton spent Monday in Fayetteville shopping.

Messrs. L. H. and Jesse B. Lee and John Monds were business visitors in Richmond, Virginia, this week.

Mr. Alfred Wilson, who holds a position with the Richardson Drug Company, Selma, was a visitor in the city Sunday.

Mr. G. M. Tilghman has moved into his new residence in the southern part of the city. His bungalow is one of the most unique buildings in the city.

The Goldstein Company in this issue of The Dispatch is advertising a great reduction in prices on goods for the next few days. Read their ad and see what they have to offer.

Read the ad in this issue of The Dispatch Department store of Fayetteville. They are inviting the people of Dunn to visit their store next week while attending the Cape Fear Fair.

The Cape Fear Fair takes place at Fayetteville next week. Read their ad in this issue of The Dispatch. They are expecting the largest crowd next week in the history of the Fair.

Mrs. John Hodges left Wednesday for Greensboro to join Mr. Hodges, who has accepted a permanent position with the Brown-Bell Company as salesman. They will make Greensboro their future home.

Mr. T. L. Gerald announces in this issue the arrival of the second shipment of fine mules and horses. If you want to buy either you can find what you want at his stable on Wilson street.

Ex-Governor W. W. Kitchin will speak at Coats next Saturday morning at 11 o'clock. A brass band will furnish music and a big barbecue will be served after the speaking. Coats is prepared to entertain you on that day.

Mr. Willard Jackson, who has been in Richmond, Va., for the past month being treated in a hospital there for a nervous breakdown, has returned to Dunn much improved in health. His numerous friends are glad to see him back and were pleased to learn that his recovery seems complete.
