

Miss Spicy Cooper, of Clinton, after spending several days here with Mrs. S. E. Pope left Wednesday for Clinton where she will visit friends before returning to her home at Clinton. She was accompanied by Miss Miss Louise Pope.

Remember folks you get our draw for the $15.00 in Gold given away Free by R. C. Taylor Co. for each dollar you trade during their Big Sale which closes Saturday, January 27, 1917.

R. C. TAYLOR CO.
Rev. Walter N. Johnson State Secretary of Missions of the Baptist denomination, preached at the First Baptist Church Sunday morning. His sermon was of a high order and pleased the large congregation that was present. At the close of the service four additional deacons were ordained. These being Messrs. J. E. H. J. W. Drayton, C. D. Butler and James R. Butler.

Miss Mary Pittman, of Dunn, has only a few votes being in the lead in the contest which is being conducted by the Cape Fear News. Fayetteville, according to the latest report of the contest in that paper, there are many here who are interested in the paper and would like to subscribe or renew their subscription. Miss Pittman would appreciate their giving her the business that the many secure additional votes and possibly win the automobiles being offered.
