A. C. L. PASSENGER TRAIN SCHEDULES: Southbound, Northbound

DURHAM AND SOUTHERN Passenger Train Schedule: Lv. Dunn, Ar. Dunn

Mr. Henry Herring, of Roseboro, spent Sunday here with friends. Mr. J. W. Jordan was a business visitor in Dillon, S. C., this week.

Miss Pearl Grantham is in Red Springs, visiting her uncle, Mr. Hiram Grantham. Mr. Earl Hinson left Monday for Jacksonville, Fla., where he has accepted a position.

Miss Adelaide Jefferys left Tuesday night for Rocky Mount where she will visit friends. Mrs. J. W. W. Thompson, of Wilson, was here last week visiting her sister, Mrs. J. J. Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Bauman, of Wade, were here last week the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Cromartie. Miss Mamie Stephens returned this week from Hertford, where she spent several days with friends.

Messrs. D. B. and John L. Sullivan of Bule's Creek Academy, spent the week end in town with relatives. Mrs. L. C. Self, after spending several days here with her mother has returned to her home in Florence, S. C.

Mrs. A. B. Harrell, of Petersburg, Va., arrived Wednesday afternoon to visit her parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pope. Little Miss Blanche Baggett left last week for Florida to make her home with her uncle, Mr. E. D. Baggett.

Mrs. J. L. Wade and Mrs. W. E. C. H. H. left Thursday for Richmond, Va., where they will spend several days. Congresswoman H. L. Godwin spent Sunday and Monday here with his family. He returned to Washington Monday night.

Mrs. Geo. E. Prince returned Monday from Rocky Mount, where she also visited her sister, Mrs. Craven, who continues seriously ill. Mr. Ralph Shaw, of Lumberton, was here the latter part of the week with friends. Ralph has a number of friends here who are always glad to see him.

Mr. Guy Hooks has accepted a position with the Bank of Cape Fear, succeeding Mr. W. T. Overman, who resigned to accept a position as cashier of the Bank of Wendell.

Mr. J. T. Sutton, who has held a position at Farmville for the past year, has returned to Dunn and accepted work with the Weekly Guide. His friends here are glad to welcome him back to the city.

Miss Ina Gough, of Lumberton, was here this week the guest of Miss Iva Pearson. She was en route to Raleigh where she will spend several days with her father, who is representing Robeson county in the State Senate.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Hodges, who have made their home in Greensboro for the past six months, have returned to Dunn. Mr. Hodges has accepted a position with Johnson Bros., succeeding Mr. Marion Baggett, who is now with the Barnes and Holiday Company.

Miss Bessie Purdie left Thursday for Fayetteville to visit relatives. The latest addition to the machinery of the street paving force is a large dirt remover which is engaged in filling up the big ditch near the Presbyterian church at the present. It works interestingly and is attracting the attention of many of the citizens.

Among those who attended the Padrowski concert at Raleigh Tuesday night from Dunn were: Miss Kathleen Jefferys, Mrs. J. L. Wade, Mrs. N. A. Townsend, Mrs. J. W. Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Fussell, Mr. and Mrs. Z. V. Snipes, Mrs. J. C. Hodges, Mr. J. C. Clifford, Mr. W. H. Larrish and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Pope.

An auction sale of choice lots and improved property, belonging to P. F. Pope and W. H. Parrish at Coats will take place on the premises Tuesday, 30th at 10 o'clock, a. m., rain or shine. This is valuable property and the terms will be easy. Read the ads in this issue announcing the sale.

The many friends of Rev. J. H. Shore, presiding elder of the Wilmington district of the North Carolina Methodist Conference, will be glad to learn that he has completely recovered from an operation which he underwent several weeks ago at the Rex hospital in Raleigh and that he returned home on Wednesday. -Wilmington Star.

MAMIE LEE DEAD. Little Mamie Lee, daughter of the late Frank Lee, formerly a citizen of Dunn, died in the Falcon Orphanage at Falcon, last Wednesday morning at 2:00 o'clock after suffering for five days from a severe attack of pneumonia. She was nine years of age and was a bright little girl, loved and admired by all her playmates and others who have been associated with her during her brief life.

She was buried Thursday afternoon at Hodges Chapel, six miles north of Dunn, the funeral service being conducted at the grave by Rev. Charles Johnson, of Benson.

AUCTION SALE! OF CHOICE LOTS And IMPROVED PROPERTY Belonging to P. F. Pope and W. H. Parrish at Coats, North Carolina. This is the very highest improved and unimproved property in the town and includes fine residence of P. F. Pope, which has water, electric lights and large barn. Also his large brick warehouse and his office and vacant lot on Main street near the depot. Also all the property belonging to W. H. Parrish, including his garage building and store on Main St. This property is located near the school and near churches and not far from business and has city water and electric lights. Coats is a live, progressive, substantial town with many advantages, having a large number of manufacturing enterprises, where real estate will always increase in value. Located as these lots are close to school and churches and in a good locality makes them very desirable for homes or for investment. Nothing is safer than real estate and nothing surer to give you large profits than the purchase of these lots. We sell at auction and sell to the highest bidder. TUESDAY, JANUARY 30, 10 A.M. Rain or Shine Terms Easy Announced at Time of Sale. 6 Per Cent interest on Deferred Payments. BRASS BAND Concert Remember The Date, TUES., JAN. 30, And The Time is 10:00 A.M. Southern Realty & Auction Co. E. M. ANDREWS, Manager. GREENSBORO, N. C.

January 22nd, 1917 TO THE PUBLIC: We take this opportunity to say with regard to the Property we are going to sell at Coats, on Tuesday, Jan. 30th, 1917, that we are offering some of the best property in the Town for sale and only because we own more property there than we can possibly develop, and wish to sell off some to good people who will improve and develop it, as no town can do its best with a lot of un-developed property. Coats is still our home and we like to see it grow and prosper. Mr. Pope will continue to operate his machinery and office there, and will add to it. We have each made what little money we ever made there and while we have found it to our interest to start business at other places yet we consider Coats our home and one of the best little Towns in the State for business and a fine opening for a fore-seeing man to buy property and make some money. We do not expect to sell all we own and we expect to develop the part we keep. (Signed) P. F. POPE, W. H. PARRISH.
