Mr. J. P. Pittman ngain spoke to the school last Wednesday. He was asked to come up and speak to the school again, since his other talk a eek ago was enjoyed to such a great extent. As it was nearing the birthday of that preriess gentlemen and founder of United States Hheris Mr. Pittman chose this appropriate subject to talk on. The speech he rendered was both profitable and instructive, enjoyed by all.

The ball team has gone out for regular practice. Although it is rather early the High school decid. ed that it liked base ball, the best of sports, and has been resorting to gular practice when the weather permitted. Those reporting on the squad are: Girard Wilson, Eugene Cole, Voight Sutton. William Jacksen, Edward Lee, Jake Wade, Oliver Warren, Lewis Adley, Norwood Pope and Paul Ezzell. Others are expected to go out for the team and Manager Jackson and Captain Wilson are considering all prospects.

Yesterday was Washington's Birthday and the young folks who held the auditorium for the morning readered some interesting pieces concerning this great man. However, the surprise of the day was when Professor Lockhart announced to the school that they would have half morning for Clienn ater spending holliday. It came wholly unexpected and no pupil knew it till time to go and take it.
