A. C. L. PASSENGER TRAIN SCHEDULES: Southbound, Northbound

DURHAM AND SOUTHERN Passenger Train Schedule: Lv. Dunn, Ar. Dunn

Miss Sallie Purdie was in Fayetteville Wednesday shopping. Mr. N. A. Townsend spent Wednesday in Fayetteville on business.

Mr. E. L. Hall, of Fayetteville, was here Tuesday on business. Mr. James Best of Trinity College spent last Sunday in town with friends.

Miss Bertha Johnson, of Benson, was here Wednesday the guest of friends. Mrs. Harvey McKay left Wednesday for Rocky Mount where she will spend some time with relatives.

The High School Ball club will play Smithfield on the latter's grounds next Tuesday. Local rooters are invited to follow the team. Mr. Jere Pearsall, of Hamlet, was here this week visiting his daughters, Mrs. J. L. Hatcher and Mrs. Paul C. Hood.

The Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian Church will hold its regular meeting in the church Monday night. Miss Ethel Sloan, of Nebra, left Monday night for her home after spending a short while in the city with Miss Sue Smith.

Drs. Bain and Butler were visitors in Smithfield Monday night where they were the guests of Dr. N. T. Holland. Mrs. G. F. Pope, Miss Maggie Pope, and Mrs. Fairbanks spent a few hours Wednesday in Fayetteville shopping.

Mr. Worth M. Pope has moved his office from The Dispatch building into the building occupied by the Globe Pressing Company. He will be glad to have his friends call on him there. Mr. C. L. Wilson was in Fayetteville Tuesday having gone down to see Mrs. Wilson, who is in a hospital there, having been operated on for tonsillitis.

The Wake Forest Glee Club rendered an excellent performance at the Opera House Friday night to a large crowd. A good orchestra accompanied the boys. Mr. Robert Young who has held a position in Durham for the past several months, has returned to Dunn and will assist his father, Mr. E. F. Young in his law office.

Miss Lillie Johnson is in Raleigh this week with her sister, Mrs. Byron Ford, who has been ill. Mrs. Carrie Lane was also with her for a few days but has returned to Dunn. Rev. J. A. Hornaday, pastor of the Methodist church, leaves Monday for Snow Hill, where he will assist the pastor of the Methodist church in a protracted meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Davis, who have been in Kentucky for the past several months, where Mr. Davis was a student in a Seminary, have returned to Dunn and will be here for some time. Capt. J. L. Hines, of Company M, Second Infantry, which company is now stationed at Goldsboro was in Dunn Tuesday visiting his family. Capt. Hines is looking fine and says his health was splendid while on the border in Texas.

One of the best pictures of the season was presented last Monday night at the White Way Theatre. The picture carried a moral full of interest and excitement. Its teachings were far reaching; its interest deep and absorbing.

Mr. Earl Henson spent Thursday evening in Goldsboro with friends. Mr. Joe Wilson of this city was a business visitor to Lillington this morning. At a meeting of the directors of the First National Bank held last Friday, Dr. C. H. Sexton was elected a member of the Board.

Mr. Ernest Jeffreys has purchased one of the latest models of Dodge Cars this week which was recently received with a car load by the local agent, Mr. Edward Smith. Mr. A. E. Robinson and Mr. Lee, of Falcon, were here Tuesday assisting Mr. Green, of New York, in erecting the new linotype machine which was installed in The Dispatch office this week.

Your attention is called to the ad of the First National Bank in this issue. They have $50,000.00 to loan to farmers in small amounts and are anxious to help farmers' unions and clubs finance their crops if they are in need of money. Saturday afternoon the White Way Theatre will give away a box of candy to the one holding the lucky number. On Wednesday evening of next week the manager will give away $2.50 in gold. Ask for coupons now. They are valuable. One given with each admission.

There is a great deal of stealing going on around Dunn at this time. Meat houses are being broken into and other things to eat are being stolen from our citizens frequently. In such cases it is hard to get evidence sufficient to convict and the rogues are seldom caught. Mr. Alvin Thornton, son of Mr. Guthrey Thornton, and Miss Phirby Thornton were married last Saturday night at 8 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by Rev. A. K. McQueen at the home of the groom in South Dunn. The friends of the young couple wish for them happiness and success.

Mr. M. R. Wilkes of Rowland, has been elected assistant cashier of the First National Bank of Dunn. Mr. Wilkes is a young man who has had considerable experience in the banking business and comes to the First National well recommended. He succeeds Mr. Herbert Taylor who goes to the Bank of Cape Fear Monday.

THE ELEVENTH PART OF THE SCOUT LAW.

A Scout is Clean. He keeps clean in body and thought; he stands for clean speech, clean sport, clean habits; and he travels with a clean crowd. Cleanliness makes a real Scout and that real Scout admires his make-up. Scouts care whom they associate with and they endeavor to make those associates boys of their nature of cleanliness in body and soul. Coarse jokes are avoided by Boy Scouts, and are covered up by good clean jokes that can be admired by estimable people. The Scout keeps himself neat and clean except in work; but above all makes his soul and thoughts CLEAN.—Scout Reporter.

Federation of Woman's Clubs Meet.

The Twelfth District of the North Carolina Federation of Woman's Clubs held its annual Reciprocity Day meeting in the court house auditorium at Whiteville, March 22nd. Mrs. A. Elmo, chairman of the District, presided. After prayer and the singing of the Federation song, Mrs. Powell made the address of welcome to which Mrs. W. B. Page, of Lumberton, responded. Reports from the clubs already federated were then made and the new clubs introduced—the Woman's Club and the Thursday Afternoon Book Club of Dunn, being among the new clubs, and represented by Mrs. J. L. Wade and Mrs. P. S. Cooper.—Mrs. Wade giving the history of the Woman's Club, and Mrs. Cooper the Thursday Afternoon Book Club.

Then came the midday luncheon, and the bountiful supply, dainty manner of serving, and the social good time was enjoyed to the fullest. At the afternoon session Mrs. W. M. Creasy, of Wilmington gave a talk on the "Value of District Meetings" and long ere she had finished, every one realized the value of them. To Mrs. J. A. Brown of Chadbourne, was assigned the "Endowment Fund" and "The Sallie Southall Cotton Loan Fund, Mrs. Brown is the wife of a banker, and needless to say that she did not lack for any information on this subject.

Mrs. N. A. Sinclair, of Fayetteville led the Round Table discussion "How Can We Interest Unfederated Clubs in the State Organization?" and Mrs. E. W. Hicks, of Wilmington made quite an interesting talk on "Club Fellowship."

The President Mrs. Lingle, and Mrs. Gordon Finger, being unable to meet with us on account of sickness it was feared our meeting would not be profitable and although their absence was regretted by every one present, the meeting did not lack interest at any time and every one who was fortunate enough to attend felt benefited.

The next Reciprocity Day will be held in Dunn, and that our town should have been selected as the meeting place is always an incentive to us, and should be a source of gratification to our people, and we should deem it an honor to have so cultured a body of women meet here. These meetings are always an incentive to a better, a bigger work and our women should begin to make plans for this meeting; for it will not only mean much to the whole club women, but to the whole town.

SOCIETY COLUMN Edited by MARY McKAY

Thursday Afternoon Book Club.

Mrs. J. C. Clifford was hostess at a regular meeting of the Book Club last Thursday evening. Rugs and rug making being the subject for the afternoon. The response to the roll call was by current events and after the minutes the following interesting and unique program was given:

Rugs and rug making, Mrs. G. M. Tilghman; Persian rugs of the XVI century—Mrs. N. A. Townsend, Polish and Turkish rugs; Mrs. C. J. Smith. Guests of the club were Mesdames Kansom Pearsall, Rufus Smith, E. M. Jeffreys and J. J. Wade. Refreshments in two courses were served.

Bridge Club.

Mrs. Ellis Goldstein entertaining with the spirit of hospitality and in her usual sweet and charming dignity, was hostess to the Bridge Club yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Will Well of New York. The perfectly appointed home was beautiful in its decorations of Easter flowers, jonquils and white hyacinths being used and the color scheme of yellow and white predominating throughout.

COLLARLESS FROCKS A NEW WHIM.

Whereas Some Designers Dispense With Collars Others Bring Out New Styles. New York, March 29.—To dispense entirely with collars on separate blouses and dresses is one of the latest fancies of fashion designers. Perhaps this will be a trying style for the majority of women, as most faces require the softening influence of a collar around the neck; but for those to whom it is becoming, the collarless neck, as a novelty, is sure to make an appeal. There is nothing that women like more than something a little different, for to tire of a certain style, however becoming, is only human.

Many and varied are the new outlines and finishes for these collarless dresses. Square, round, oval and V shapes are all among the different outlines in vogue. The oval outline going across the neck from shoulder to shoulder at a rather shallow depth is very interesting and is shown in the accompanying sketch. In this model the neck is finished with a cross-stitch embroidery design, one of the newest forms of embroidery, or rather, one of the oldest forms of embroidery recently revived. The cross-stitch of generations back has returned, now that embroidery of every description is making its way surely but slowly into the fashionable world. Crocheted and decorative fancy buttons make these back closings rather attractive. Some novelty buttons are made of colored beads bunched together in ball shape. These are generally used on waists that button in front.

New Fancy Collars.

While collarless styles are fashionable, dainty collars have by no means been discarded; on the contrary, this is an accessory made very much of. Some of the new shapes fall in rather long points over the shoulders, others are pointed in front and square at the back, and the familiar sailor collar is ever present. Fine voile, marquisette and handkerchief linen in white and colors are used for the new collars. Some are hemstitched by hand, others by machine and on almost every one there is some touch of hand embroidery. Double collars are usually made with the upper one of some color and a white one, a little larger, under it.
