

HOOVER OUTLINES PLANS FOR FOOD SAVING CAMPAIGN

Period of Registration For Women From July 1 to 15

PERIOD OF SACRIFICE

Food Will Decide the War; Women Can Do Big Part

Washington, June 18.—Reduction of the high prices of foodstuffs to the American people through conservation and elimination of waste, in which housewives are asked to cooperate will be the aim of the new food administration, according to plans announced by Herbert C. Hoover. His plan contemplates the enrollment between July 1 and 15 of American housewives in the movement.

Mr. Hoover makes it plain that in all the arrangements to be made to furnish food to America's allies, first consideration will be given to the people of this country to see that their wants are supplied.

He attributes the high food prices to be, in part, due to the world shortage in supplies, but expresses confidence that reductions can be effected through conservation and shortage of waste.

Mr. Hoover's plans, which he is working out by direction of President Wilson without waiting for Congress to enact food legislation, also contemplates the enlistment later of the men in the voluntary movement.

"As requested by the President," says his statement, "we ask every woman in the United States engaged in the personal control of food to register for actual membership in the food administration, thus entering directly into the National service."

"We must enter a period of sacrifice for our country and for democracy. Many must go into battle, but many can only remain at home. Those who remain at home can also help and can fight by helping the fighter fight and can 'serve by saving.'"

"Since food will decide the war each American woman can do a real national service by protecting the food supply of the nation. Ninety per cent of American food consumption passes through the hands of our women."

"In no other field do small things, when multiplied by our hundred million people, count for so much. A single pound of bread saved weekly for each person will increase our export surplus of wheat 100,000,000 bushels, and an average saving of two cents on each meal every day for each person, will save the nation for war purposes $2,000,000,000 per annum."

"The proper assurance of the food to our allies will not only encourage them, but it will maintain them in war. Without a larger margin from our abundant food supply, only to be secured by individual effort and volunteer sacrifice the war will be prolonged and thousands of lives, not only of men, but also of women and children, heedlessly lost. The guiding hand of women in the home can alone control in this matter."

"Furthermore the high prices which are bearing so hard on the poor and the more moderate wage-earners in this country, are partially due to the shortage of supplies in the world's market and the saving in consumption and waste—which can be made will lessen the prices to those of our own people which must be our first solicitude. In all of the arrangements which we plan to make during the forthcoming year of the supply of our allies, we will bear the first regard to our own people, that they shall have plenty, provided that they eat wisely and without waste."

"Inasmuch as before legislation is completed the food administration has no representatives throughout the country, the national council of defense is kindly requesting all the state councils of defense, with the assistance of the women's committee of the national council of defense to undertake the registration. This registration will begin July 1, and will continue intensively for 15 days and will consist simply in asking every woman in the country to volunteer in this important service by signature of my household, insofar as my legislator, conservation division, Washington the following pledge:

"I am glad to join you in the service of food conservation for our nation and I hereby accept membership in the United States food administration pledging myself to carry out the directions and advice of the food administration in the conduct, and we want to know the circumstances permit."

"We not only want the names and addresses, but we want the number of persons in the household, we want to know whether the household employs a cook, whether it has a garden, and we want to know the occupation of the breadwinner. There are no fees or dues to be paid. The food administration wishes now to

REVIVAL AT DUKE

Dr. J. J. Hill, Assisting Pastor Hall.—Brevin and Groom Return. Other Items.

Duke, June 14.—Dr. J. J. Hill of Red Springs is assisting Rev. J. K. Hall in revival services at the Presbyterian. The services have been in progress since Monday night. Considerable interest is being manifested. Wednesday night the church was over-run and extra seats were brought in from the park.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lynch have returned from their honeymoon trip and as soon as their bungalow on H. street is completed will move in and begin keeping house. Mrs. Lynch was Miss Mary Lucy Dupree of Greenville and the wedding took place last week at her home. Mr. Lynch is a member of the firm Hassell-Johnson Company.

The Duke ball team has arranged a series of games with the Durham Hosiery Mills team and the first game will be played on the East Durham Ball Park Saturday afternoon. Prof. B. F. Dalton manager of the Duke team is now in Philadelphia where he was called on account of the illness of his brother, but will return in time to take his team to Durham.

A considerable mix-up has sprung up in the past few days over scrap iron from the Cape Fear Bridge which was washed a way several years ago. A junk dealer from Fayetteville recently bought the old iron from the county but before he could load it claim and delivery papers were issued for the materials. This was settled and the dealer again began loading his junk and a dealer from Raleigh arrived on the scene and claims the old iron on a purchase made several years ago. The junk dealers are searching every nook for old iron.

A considerable mix-up has sprung up in the past few days over scrap iron from the Cape Fear Bridge which was washed a way several years ago. A junk dealer from Fayetteville recently bought the old iron from the county but before he could load it claim and delivery papers were issued for the materials. This was settled and the dealer again began loading his junk and a dealer from Raleigh arrived on the scene and claims the old iron on a purchase made several years ago. The junk dealers are searching every nook for old iron.

A considerable mix-up has sprung up in the past few days over scrap iron from the Cape Fear Bridge which was washed a way several years ago. A junk dealer from Fayetteville recently bought the old iron from the county but before he could load it claim and delivery papers were issued for the materials. This was settled and the dealer again began loading his junk and a dealer from Raleigh arrived on the scene and claims the old iron on a purchase made several years ago. The junk dealers are searching every nook for old iron.

A considerable mix-up has sprung up in the past few days over scrap iron from the Cape Fear Bridge which was washed a way several years ago. A junk dealer from Fayetteville recently bought the old iron from the county but before he could load it claim and delivery papers were issued for the materials. This was settled and the dealer again began loading his junk and a dealer from Raleigh arrived on the scene and claims the old iron on a purchase made several years ago. The junk dealers are searching every nook for old iron.

A considerable mix-up has sprung up in the past few days over scrap iron from the Cape Fear Bridge which was washed a way several years ago. A junk dealer from Fayetteville recently bought the old iron from the county but before he could load it claim and delivery papers were issued for the materials. This was settled and the dealer again began loading his junk and a dealer from Raleigh arrived on the scene and claims the old iron on a purchase made several years ago. The junk dealers are searching every nook for old iron.

A considerable mix-up has sprung up in the past few days over scrap iron from the Cape Fear Bridge which was washed a way several years ago. A junk dealer from Fayetteville recently bought the old iron from the county but before he could load it claim and delivery papers were issued for the materials. This was settled and the dealer again began loading his junk and a dealer from Raleigh arrived on the scene and claims the old iron on a purchase made several years ago. The junk dealers are searching every nook for old iron.

A considerable mix-up has sprung up in the past few days over scrap iron from the Cape Fear Bridge which was washed a way several years ago. A junk dealer from Fayetteville recently bought the old iron from the county but before he could load it claim and delivery papers were issued for the materials. This was settled and the dealer again began loading his junk and a dealer from Raleigh arrived on the scene and claims the old iron on a purchase made several years ago. The junk dealers are searching every nook for old iron.

A considerable mix-up has sprung up in the past few days over scrap iron from the Cape Fear Bridge which was washed a way several years ago. A junk dealer from Fayetteville recently bought the old iron from the county but before he could load it claim and delivery papers were issued for the materials. This was settled and the dealer again began loading his junk and a dealer from Raleigh arrived on the scene and claims the old iron on a purchase made several years ago. The junk dealers are searching every nook for old iron.

A considerable mix-up has sprung up in the past few days over scrap iron from the Cape Fear Bridge which was washed a way several years ago. A junk dealer from Fayetteville recently bought the old iron from the county but before he could load it claim and delivery papers were issued for the materials. This was settled and the dealer again began loading his junk and a dealer from Raleigh arrived on the scene and claims the old iron on a purchase made several years ago. The junk dealers are searching every nook for old iron.

A considerable mix-up has sprung up in the past few days over scrap iron from the Cape Fear Bridge which was washed a way several years ago. A junk dealer from Fayetteville recently bought the old iron from the county but before he could load it claim and delivery papers were issued for the materials. This was settled and the dealer again began loading his junk and a dealer from Raleigh arrived on the scene and claims the old iron on a purchase made several years ago. The junk dealers are searching every nook for old iron.

A considerable mix-up has sprung up in the past few days over scrap iron from the Cape Fear Bridge which was washed a way several years ago. A junk dealer from Fayetteville recently bought the old iron from the county but before he could load it claim and delivery papers were issued for the materials. This was settled and the dealer again began loading his junk and a dealer from Raleigh arrived on the scene and claims the old iron on a purchase made several years ago. The junk dealers are searching every nook for old iron.

A considerable mix-up has sprung up in the past few days over scrap iron from the Cape Fear Bridge which was washed a way several years ago. A junk dealer from Fayetteville recently bought the old iron from the county but before he could load it claim and delivery papers were issued for the materials. This was settled and the dealer again began loading his junk and a dealer from Raleigh arrived on the scene and claims the old iron on a purchase made several years ago. The junk dealers are searching every nook for old iron.

A considerable mix-up has sprung up in the past few days over scrap iron from the Cape Fear Bridge which was washed a way several years ago. A junk dealer from Fayetteville recently bought the old iron from the county but before he could load it claim and delivery papers were issued for the materials. This was settled and the dealer again began loading his junk and a dealer from Raleigh arrived on the scene and claims the old iron on a purchase made several years ago. The junk dealers are searching every nook for old iron.

A considerable mix-up has sprung up in the past few days over scrap iron from the Cape Fear Bridge which was washed a way several years ago. A junk dealer from Fayetteville recently bought the old iron from the county but before he could load it claim and delivery papers were issued for the materials. This was settled and the dealer again began loading his junk and a dealer from Raleigh arrived on the scene and claims the old iron on a purchase made several years ago. The junk dealers are searching every nook for old iron.

A considerable mix-up has sprung up in the past few days over scrap iron from the Cape Fear Bridge which was washed a way several years ago. A junk dealer from Fayetteville recently bought the old iron from the county but before he could load it claim and delivery papers were issued for the materials. This was settled and the dealer again began loading his junk and a dealer from Raleigh arrived on the scene and claims the old iron on a purchase made several years ago. The junk dealers are searching every nook for old iron.

A considerable mix-up has sprung up in the past few days over scrap iron from the Cape Fear Bridge which was washed a way several years ago. A junk dealer from Fayetteville recently bought the old iron from the county but before he could load it claim and delivery papers were issued for the materials. This was settled and the dealer again began loading his junk and a dealer from Raleigh arrived on the scene and claims the old iron on a purchase made several years ago. The junk dealers are searching every nook for old iron.

A considerable mix-up has sprung up in the past few days over scrap iron from the Cape Fear Bridge which was washed a way several years ago. A junk dealer from Fayetteville recently bought the old iron from the county but before he could load it claim and delivery papers were issued for the materials. This was settled and the dealer again began loading his junk and a dealer from Raleigh arrived on the scene and claims the old iron on a purchase made several years ago. The junk dealers are searching every nook for old iron.

A considerable mix-up has sprung up in the past few days over scrap iron from the Cape Fear Bridge which was washed a way several years ago. A junk dealer from Fayetteville recently bought the old iron from the county but before he could load it claim and delivery papers were issued for the materials. This was settled and the dealer again began loading his junk and a dealer from Raleigh arrived on the scene and claims the old iron on a purchase made several years ago. The junk dealers are searching every nook for old iron.

A considerable mix-up has sprung up in the past few days over scrap iron from the Cape Fear Bridge which was washed a way several years ago. A junk dealer from Fayetteville recently bought the old iron from the county but before he could load it claim and delivery papers were issued for the materials. This was settled and the dealer again began loading his junk and a dealer from Raleigh arrived on the scene and claims the old iron on a purchase made several years ago. The junk dealers are searching every nook for old iron.

PRESIDENT TELLS HOOVER TO BEGIN

Food Expert Will Enlist Every Housewife as Voluntary Member of Food Administration

Washington, June 18.—Congress' delay in passing the administration's food bills drew from President Wilson today an order directing Herbert C. Hoover to proceed immediately with organization of the new food administration insofar as it contemplates food conservation and elimination of waste through the cooperation of volunteer forces.

"While it would in many ways be desirable to await complete legislation establishing the food administration," the President wrote, "it appears to me that so far as volunteer effort can be assembled we should wait no longer."

Plans for enlisting every housewife in the country as a volunteer member of the food administration have been announced by Mr. Hoover, who plans to reach the women thru State Defense Councils and thru various women's organizations. Every woman will be taught to save food in the kitchen and how to purchase for her family.

President Wilson's insistence that the food bills be speeded up caused the Senate today to put the food control bill next on the calendar and the measure will be taken up Monday, when the House also begins debate on the bill. The measure was reported to the Senate today without recommendations.

In his letter to Mr. Hoover, the President said: "It seems to me that the inauguration of that portion of the plan for food administration which contemplates a national mobilization of the voluntary forces of the country which are ready to work towards saving food and eliminating waste admits of no further delay."

"The approaching harvesting, the immediate necessity for wise use and saving, not only in food, but in all other expenditures, the many undirected and overlapping efforts being made towards this end, all press for national direction and inspiration."

"The women of the nation are already earnestly seeking to do their part in this, our greatest struggle for the maintenance of our national ideals and in no direction can they so greatly assist as by calling in the service of the food administration and cheerfully accepting its direction and advice. By so doing, they will increase the surplus of food available for our own army and for the export to the allies."

"I trust, therefore, that the women of the country will not only respond to your appeal and accept the pledge to the food administration which you are proposing, but that all men also who are engaged in the personal distribution of foods will cooperate with the same earnestness and the same spirit. I give you full authority to undertake any steps necessary for the proper organization and stimulation of their efforts."

"I trust, therefore, that the women of the country will not only respond to your appeal and accept the pledge to the food administration which you are proposing, but that all men also who are engaged in the personal distribution of foods will cooperate with the same earnestness and the same spirit. I give you full authority to undertake any steps necessary for the proper organization and stimulation of their efforts."

"I trust, therefore, that the women of the country will not only respond to your appeal and accept the pledge to the food administration which you are proposing, but that all men also who are engaged in the personal distribution of foods will cooperate with the same earnestness and the same spirit. I give you full authority to undertake any steps necessary for the proper organization and stimulation of their efforts."

"I trust, therefore, that the women of the country will not only respond to your appeal and accept the pledge to the food administration which you are proposing, but that all men also who are engaged in the personal distribution of foods will cooperate with the same earnestness and the same spirit. I give you full authority to undertake any steps necessary for the proper organization and stimulation of their efforts."

"I trust, therefore, that the women of the country will not only respond to your appeal and accept the pledge to the food administration which you are proposing, but that all men also who are engaged in the personal distribution of foods will cooperate with the same earnestness and the same spirit. I give you full authority to undertake any steps necessary for the proper organization and stimulation of their efforts."

"I trust, therefore, that the women of the country will not only respond to your appeal and accept the pledge to the food administration which you are proposing, but that all men also who are engaged in the personal distribution of foods will cooperate with the same earnestness and the same spirit. I give you full authority to undertake any steps necessary for the proper organization and stimulation of their efforts."

"I trust, therefore, that the women of the country will not only respond to your appeal and accept the pledge to the food administration which you are proposing, but that all men also who are engaged in the personal distribution of foods will cooperate with the same earnestness and the same spirit. I give you full authority to undertake any steps necessary for the proper organization and stimulation of their efforts."

"I trust, therefore, that the women of the country will not only respond to your appeal and accept the pledge to the food administration which you are proposing, but that all men also who are engaged in the personal distribution of foods will cooperate with the same earnestness and the same spirit. I give you full authority to undertake any steps necessary for the proper organization and stimulation of their efforts."

"I trust, therefore, that the women of the country will not only respond to your appeal and accept the pledge to the food administration which you are proposing, but that all men also who are engaged in the personal distribution of foods will cooperate with the same earnestness and the same spirit. I give you full authority to undertake any steps necessary for the proper organization and stimulation of their efforts."

"I trust, therefore, that the women of the country will not only respond to your appeal and accept the pledge to the food administration which you are proposing, but that all men also who are engaged in the personal distribution of foods will cooperate with the same earnestness and the same spirit. I give you full authority to undertake any steps necessary for the proper organization and stimulation of their efforts."

"I trust, therefore, that the women of the country will not only respond to your appeal and accept the pledge to the food administration which you are proposing, but that all men also who are engaged in the personal distribution of foods will cooperate with the same earnestness and the same spirit. I give you full authority to undertake any steps necessary for the proper organization and stimulation of their efforts."

"I trust, therefore, that the women of the country will not only respond to your appeal and accept the pledge to the food administration which you are proposing, but that all men also who are engaged in the personal distribution of foods will cooperate with the same earnestness and the same spirit. I give you full authority to undertake any steps necessary for the proper organization and stimulation of their efforts."

"I trust, therefore, that the women of the country will not only respond to your appeal and accept the pledge to the food administration which you are proposing, but that all men also who are engaged in the personal distribution of foods will cooperate with the same earnestness and the same spirit. I give you full authority to undertake any steps necessary for the proper organization and stimulation of their efforts."

"I trust, therefore, that the women of the country will not only respond to your appeal and accept the pledge to the food administration which you are proposing, but that all men also who are engaged in the personal distribution of foods will cooperate with the same earnestness and the same spirit. I give you full authority to undertake any steps necessary for the proper organization and stimulation of their efforts."

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

N. W. Gregory to J. W. Purdie, trustee for Hoke county, 15 acres in Black River township, consideration $2,800.

Rebecca M. Swann and others to Lewis H. Skinner 5 10/100 acres in Barbecue township, consideration $10 and other valuable considerations.

J. R. Baggett, commissioner, to J. C. Wilburn 113 acres in Hector's Creek township. Fleggie Matthews land, consideration $1,800.

T. D. Stewart to T. Y. Stewart 10 5/8 acres in Grove township, consideration $1,000.

Fred Jernigan to R. O. Townsend, 44 5/8 acres in Ayavboro township, consideration $1,800 and other valuable considerations.

W. W. Allen to Gathrie McNeill 30 acres in Stewart's Creek township, consideration $400.

John L. Roberts Lumber Co. to J. C. Thompson 2 town lots in Lillington, consideration $15.

Don Brown to J. H. McNeill 4 1/4 acres in Upper Little River township, consideration $400.

James M. Judd to Lohan M. McLean 9 acres in Hector's Creek township, consideration $1,800.

R. L. Godwin to Laura Meta Godwin 7 town lots in Dunn, consideration $1,200.—Harnett Reporter.

FUQUAY SPRINGS SOCIAL NEWS

Fuquay Springs, June 19.—Miss Annie May Aiken has returned from a visit to her aunt, Mrs. E. W. Parrish in Spartanburg, S. C.

Mrs. B. Noce, of Pittboro, is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Aiken and Mr. Allen.

H. L. Betts left yesterday for an extended business trip to Durham county.

Mrs. Leslie Cheek, of Durham, has returned to her home after spending some time here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Thompson.

W. H. Alken, Jr., of Bedin, spent a few days here with his parents last week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Allen and Mrs. B. Noce, Sr., spent Sunday at Noce's Siding with Henry Noce and family.

T. E. Harrison, of South Hill, Va., is spending a few days here with his mother, Mrs. T. A. Harrison.

A. S. Ballentine and J. D. Lee spent yesterday at Raleigh.

Misses Pearl and Annie Bagdale, accompanied by B. Lee Jones and L. E. Stevens, motored to Kinston and spent the week-end with friends.

Mr. J. L. Eiland spent Saturday here on business.

Mrs. J. K. Semmes delightfully entertained the Missionary Society of the M. E. Church at her home last Friday. After business a refreshing ice course was served by the hostess.

Meedames Chappell and Pearce have returned to their home in Creedmore after spending some time here with B. E. Chappell and other relatives.

Mrs. J. D. Ballentine spent several days in Raleigh recently with her niece, Miss Lalla Norris.

Miss Mary Stewart is in Raleigh visiting her sister, Mrs. James Proctor.

Misses Lillian Mangum and Estelle Jones, of Creedmore, have returned to their home after a visit to Mrs. Alvis Rogers and other relatives here.

Next Sunday will be celebrated as Children's Day at the Methodist Church.

Will Laurence, who is in Raleigh at King's Business College, spent Sunday here with his mother, Mrs. T. B. Laurence.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jones, of Willow Springs, spent yesterday in town shopping.

Little Miss Julian Richmond, of Durham, who has been visiting her uncles' family, Mr. J. D. K. Richmond, has returned to her home, accompanied by little Miss Mildred Richmond, who will spend some time with her.

Misses Virginia and Eda Carroll, of Monroe, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. J. E. Howard here.

APPLICANTS RECEIVED FOR THE SECOND CAMP

R. W. Glenn Engaged in Work of Getting 379 Men of 31 Years and Over

The business of getting mature men for the second officers' training camp at Port Oglethorpe is now occupying the time of R. W. Glenn, in Greensboro. Mr. Glenn was in charge of the recruiting for the first camp and succeeded admirably in that endeavor. Upon his shoulders, too, falls the task of getting the second camp allotment of the state. The announcement is made that 379 men will be wanted from North Carolina, and preference will be given to men over 31 years of age, as the government will be looking for officers of higher grade than lieutenant. The applications of men from 20 years and nine months upward to 44 years will be taken, however.

Information about the rules for the new camp quota is given out by Mr. Glenn, as follows: "Second Officers Training Camp, Port Oglethorpe, Ga., August 27 to November 27, 1917—379 men to be taken from North Carolina.—Men paid $100.00 per month during training and uniforms and transportation furnished by the government. Men take oaths of enlistment for three months and obligate themselves to accept whatever commission offered by the secretary of war. Applicants between 20 years and nine months to 44 years may make application but men over 31 years will have preference as it is the desire of the war department to secure from this second camp first lieutenants, captains, majors and a few lieutenant colonels. If there are not enough men over 31 years of age who can qualify, men within the draft age with military experience or who have shown evidences of natural leadership will be accepted."

"Application blanks can be secured from R. W. Glenn, division secretary, Military Training Camps Association, Greensboro, N. C., as soon as issued by the government. Full instructions as to medical examination, mental examination, etc., will be furnished upon request."

"Applicants will have to be made between June 15 and July 15 and it is hoped that the men who are

10 in order to be able to arrange their affairs before leaving the 27th of August."

"Applicants will have to be made between June 15 and July 15 and it is hoped that the men who are

10 in order to be able to arrange their affairs before leaving the 27th of August."

10 in order to be able to arrange their affairs before leaving the 27th of August."

10 in order to be able to arrange their affairs before leaving the 27th of August."

10 in order to be able to arrange their affairs before leaving the 27th of August."

10 in order to be able to arrange their affairs before leaving the 27th of August."

10 in order to be able to arrange their affairs before leaving the 27th of August."

10 in order to be able to arrange their affairs before leaving the 27th of August."

10 in order to be able to arrange their affairs before leaving the 27th of August."

10 in order to be able to arrange their affairs before leaving the 27th of August."

10 in order to be able to arrange their affairs before leaving the 27th of August."

10 in order to be able to arrange their affairs before leaving the 27th of August."

10 in order to be able to arrange their affairs before leaving the 27th of August."

10 in order to be able to arrange their affairs before leaving the 27th of August."

10 in order to be able to arrange their affairs before leaving the 27th of August."

10 in order to be able to arrange their affairs before leaving the 27th of August."

OFFICES IN LILLINGTON.

Three $100,000 Corporations Open Offices Here.

The Central Carolina Land Co., The Carolina Town Site Co. and the Keystone Construction Co., three corporations with capital stock of $100,000 each, have opened offices in Lillington in the McArdan building. These companies will do a timber and real estate business, construct towns and build railroads. The incorporators are E. A. Tennis, of New York, J. R. Baggett, of Lillington; E. H. Rankin, Emerson Shaeffer and C. T. Logan, of Salina, Kansas. Among other things these corporations are planning the extension of the Atlantic and Western Railroad from Lillington to Swannboro. A more detailed statement of their intended operations will be given to the public later.

We are glad to welcome these good people into our midst and feel sure their coming with this large amount of capital will mean much for the material development of this section, and at the same time give them handsome returns on their investments.—Harnett Reporter.

CAMPS WILL NOT BE READY, SEPTEMBER 1.

Probably Will Be Middle of October Before Training Begins

Washington, June 18.—Unless there are unforeseen developments to construction of the sixteen cantonments for training the new national army, the first increment of 650,000 troops will not be in training by September 1st as generally has been supposed, and in fact may not get into training for six weeks thereafter.

The Department officials said today that no specific date ever had been set for the opening of the training camps. Secretary Baker, however, in a letter to Senator Jones, several weeks ago, answering a suggestion that some of the troops be used for harvesting, spoke of September 1st as the probable date of opening the camps, and pointed out that most of the harvesting would be over by that time.

War Department officials, however, had said September 1st in their minds as the time training would begin. The first body of officers for the new army, now being trained in

is to be turned out in August, to make room for the next body. This was arranged on the plan of having the draft complete, exemptions disposed of and troops ordered into training camps by September 1st.

is to be turned out in August, to make room for the next body. This was arranged on the plan of having the draft complete, exemptions disposed of and troops ordered into training camps by September 1st.

CALLS SEPARATE PEACE IN RUSSIA IMPOSSIBLE

At Pan-Russian Congress Minister Urges That War Be Prosecuted Vigorously

Petrograd, June 17, Sunday, via London, June 18.—The desire to align Russia's international program with that of her allies as quickly as possible, was expressed at today's session of the Pan-Russian congress of all councils of workmen's and soldiers' deputies by M. Tseretelli, minister of posts and telegraph, who coupled this expression with sharp repudiation of any idea of a separate peace for Russia.

"We desire to hasten the conclusion of a new treaty in which the principles proclaimed by the Russian democracy will be recognized as the basis of the international policy of the allies," said Mr. Tseretelli. "Let us employ all possible means to the end that our program may agree with that of all the allied governments so as to avoid a rupture with our allies."

"Let us reflect that the worst result of our struggle for universal peace would be a separate peace with Germany, which would destroy the results of the Russian revolution and prove disastrous to the cause of international democracy. A separate peace is, in fact, impossible. Such a peace would bring Russia into a new war on the side of the German coalition and would mean leaving our coalition only to enter into another."

Minister Tseretelli described to the congress the steps taken by the government for the summoning of an international conference for the revision of the various treaties, exclusive of the London agreement engaged the allies not to conclude a separate peace. After speaking in support of the work of Minister of War Kerensky, he urged renewed activity by the army.

"When the country finds itself faced by an attack from without," he declared, "it is the duty of the revolutionary to be ready, on its own accord to advance. The inactivity on our front has not consolidated the revolution, but, on the contrary, has enfeebled it."

Nikolai Lunine, the socialist radical, delivered a long harangue against the cabinet, its act and its attitude, especially regarding the war and against Minister of War Kerensky's appeal for an offensive, which he characterized as treason to the interest of international socialism.

Nikolai Lunine, the socialist radical, delivered a long harangue against the cabinet, its act and its attitude, especially regarding the war and against Minister of War Kerensky's appeal for an offensive, which he characterized as treason to the interest of international socialism.

Nikolai Lunine, the socialist radical, delivered a long harangue against the cabinet, its act and its attitude, especially regarding the war and against Minister of War Kerensky's appeal for an offensive, which he characterized as treason to the interest of international socialism.

Nikolai Lunine, the socialist radical, delivered a long harangue against the cabinet, its act and its attitude, especially regarding the war and against Minister of War Kerensky's appeal for an offensive, which he characterized as treason to the interest of international socialism.

Nikolai Lunine, the socialist radical, delivered a long harangue against the cabinet, its act and its attitude, especially regarding the war and against Minister of War Kerensky's appeal for an offensive, which he characterized as treason to the interest of international socialism.

Nikolai Lunine, the socialist radical, delivered a long harangue against the cabinet, its act and its attitude, especially regarding the war and against Minister of War Kerensky's appeal for an offensive, which he characterized as treason to the interest of international socialism.

REQUIREMENTS FOR SELECTIVE DRAFT

Want Only Finest Physical