MEETING CALLED TO ORGANIZE NEW COMMERCIAL CLUB

Civic and Industrial Association To Be Created to Care For Dunn's Interests

Promoters Point Out What Can Be Accomplished Through Co-operative Effort

With a view to creating an organization to care for the various civic and industrial problems concerning the community a number of Dunn's leading business and professional men are considering plans for launching a movement that will bring representatives of all lines of business into such an organization. Friday night, September 7, has been designated for the first meeting, which is to be held in the show rooms of Barnes and Holliday Company.

The slogan of the organizers is: "DO IT FOR DUNN."

The object is to give to the new organization a strong membership and adequate working capital. With it working as the promoters hope to make it work the new organization, it is pointed out by the promoters, can:

1. Bring our people together. Show the folly of fighting; that energies wasted in useless opposition can be converted to dynamic forces in a common cause—the advancement of Dunn along all lines of endeavor. Make every people personal or business jealousies, if any exist, and co-operate in community development.

2. Advertise Dunn's many attractions and advantages; its strategic location and splendid transportation facilities.
3. Secure such industries as can succeed in Dunn by reason of its transportation facilities, its available raw materials, its agricultural products and its proximity to the larger markets.

4. Develop a greater rural trade, through its trade extension bureau.
5. Make Dunn a sales center for live-stock of all kinds—a sale to be conducted periodically under the auspices of the Civic and Industrial Association, such sales as will make Dunn a center for such interests over a very wide territory.

6. Aid in reducing the cost of living.
7. Secure an agricultural experiment station for Jarvis county, and conduct a farmers' information bureau.

8. Organize a more efficient and worthy soliciting schemes.
9. Be sure the chief advocate of home patronage.

10. Be a veritable information bureau on anything and everything pertaining to Dunn and Jarvis county.

11. Be managed by secretary-manager, a man who will devote all his time to the work—who will be on the job 365 days in the year, and whose welfare will depend on the success of the work he is to do.

12. Hold frequent public meetings for the discussion of local subjects and bring here nationally known men to speak on important public questions.

13. Work in harmony with the mayor and city commissioners for every needed civic improvement for Dunn.

14. Be absolutely devoid of anything savoring of politics or sectarianism and will work for the welfare of the community as a whole, regardless of class or distinction.

15. Be free from old time methods of management and will be organized to accomplish things with the least delay.

16. Be managed by men of mature business experience, successful in their own business, and whose time and services could not be hired if that were necessary.

17. Keep in close touch with the different branches of the State and Federal governments, to learn without delay of anything beneficial or detrimental to Dunn and its people.

Examinations for Clerk-Carrier.

Civil service examinations to fill a vacancy in the Dunn postoffice for clerk-carrier will be held Saturday, September 15. All male citizens of the United States residing in the territory served by the postoffice are eligible for participation in these examinations.

Information can be had by application to Bright V. Morgan, secretary of the local examining board.

George P. McKay Enlists.

George P. McKay, secretary of the John A. McKay Manufacturing company, is now a member of the aviation section of the army signal corps. He successfully passed the rigid physical and mental examination at Fort Thomas, Kentucky, last week, and will be stationed at Fort Sam Houston, Tex., for several weeks for training.

Mr. McKay is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. McKay, of Dunn. He is one of the town's most popular young men and carries the best wishes of all Dunn's people in the hazardous work he has undertaken for his country. He was chief of the Dunn fire department at the time of his enlistment.

RED CROSS WORK ROOM

Red Cross work rooms have been fitted up in the First National Bank Building and Mrs. E. F. Young has been appointed to superintend the work of knitting garments, making bandages, etc., allotted to the Dunn auxiliary.

Tuesday and Thursday are work days for the Red Cross. The rooms are from 9:30 to 12:30, and the hours will be open rain or shine on those days and during those hours.

Every girl and woman of Dunn who can find time to give to this work is asked to report to Mrs. E. F. Young. The need for help is urgent.

GERMAN WEPT ON BEING CONVINCED OF AMERICA'S AID

Skeptical Officer Escorted Before Pershing When Captured At Verdun

Believed America Would Never Send Force to Front. Says "All Is Lost."

French officers vainly informed the prisoner that thousands of American soldiers have landed in France and England and had marched through the streets of Paris and London; that a division of American troops was preparing for service at the front; that other contingents, more important, would arrive before the end of the year and that the United States was arming millions of men.

"Those are only adroit maneuvers designed to keep up the spirits of the combatants," replied the prisoner. "I will convince you; I shall be convinced."

The French officer then said: "We ducted before General Pershing, the commander-in-chief of the American expeditionary forces in France, now here on the Verdun front. You can question him yourself and you will learn whether it is the German people or us who are being deceived by those who govern."

When the escort came to conduct the prisoner before General Pershing big tears rolled down his cheeks and he remarked sadly: "Since that is the case, it is all over. We are lost. It is a pity that so much blood has been shed in vain."

A German officer, taken prisoner in the recent French advance north of Verdun, is thus quoted by the Echo de la Rochelle and a staff officer who interviewed the German. The German paid homage to the heroic courage of the French soldiers, but tried to discourage the idea that help would be forthcoming from the United States.

"Why delude yourselves with chimeric hopes and thus prolong the murders struggle? It is all over. You expect irretrievable aid from the United States. They promise it, but they will never give it. We know perfectly in Germany what to expect as to the intentions of President Wilson. He is playing with you; he will surrender without ever going, shamelessly into the hands of the victors."

"When you are hopelessly beaten, he will be the arbiter of the situation and will impose a peace that the United States of America. He will never compromise the stars and stripes—in aid and adventure on your front."

FOUR TO GO FROM DUKE

Duke Pastor Preaches in Metropolitan Church—Other News

Duke, N. C., Sept. 5.—Harnett County has been called on for nine men to go to camp Jackson, Columbia, S. C., as part of the first call for soldiers. Of these nine men Duke will have the honor of furnishing four: J. E. Anderson, E. C. Stewart, J. W. Stephenson and H. G. Avery. They will report to the local board at Lillington Saturday.

The Reverend Lewis Chester Morrison, rector of St. Stephens Episcopal church at Duke, N. C., has been spending his vacation with friends and relatives in and around New York City. While away he officiated and preached in St. Clement's Church also in the church of the Atonement, supplying for the rector, Dr. Handfield who was in Canada. Dr. Morrison met with enthusiastic reception in both places and feels that his vacation was not spent idly. He has returned to his parish and conducted regular services Sunday as usual.

The Erwin Park has made another purchase in the way of animals. This time it is a bear and comes from Ruskin, N. C. Shipment is to be made the 10th inst. The bear will be placed along with the other animals in a double enclosure all to himself. The two foxes must have heard that the bear was coming, for they escaped a few nights ago and so far nothing has been heard from them.

A NEW PRINCIPAL AT SHADY GROVE HIGH SCHOOL

I wish to state to the public that my resignation of the principalship of Shady Grove High School was not brought about by any trouble between either the teachers or trustees and myself. But owing to circumstances, and also having a new field awaiting me, I deemed it best for all concerned that I should give up the place and get another man to fill it.

Prof. D. B. Blalock of Durham is slated to the principalship. Prof. Blalock is a graduate of the University of North Carolina and has had five years of experience in teaching. He comes to Shady Grove highly recommended and I am sure that he will make good here. Prof. Blalock is an able man, and he has those qualities that are necessary to make a good teacher. I feel sure that he will make the school a success and will be a great factor in the upbuilding of the community.

It is with regret that I leave the Shady Grove community, for it has been with pleasure that I served the people. I go away wishing for them the greatest of success in the school of which I have been principal. My school, continue to grow and become a shining light that will brighten not only to Sampson County but to the whole state of North Carolina. With Prof. D. B. Blalock and his able assistance as a faculty, we feel that this day is not far distant.

R. K. HANGCOCK.

Work on Church Progressing

It is probable that the Methodist church, under construction for more than three years, will be completed before Christmas. Workmen have been employed for several weeks in the main auditorium and expect soon to complete it.

DRAFTED MEN ARE WELCOMED INTO NATION'S SERVICE

President's Message One of Affectionate Confidence and a Prayer for Men's Safety.

"You are in Some Special Sense Soldiers of Freedom," He Tells Men Called Today.

Soldiers of the National Army were welcomed into the nation's service Monday by President Wilson with a message of affectionate confidence and a prayer to God to keep and guide them. Everything these young men do, the President told them, will be watched with the deepest solicitude by the whole country, and the eyes of the world will be upon them because they are "in some special sense the soldiers of freedom."

The first soldiers for the army raised under the draft law start from their homes for the training cantonments today. The President asks them, as brothers and comrades in the great war to keep straight and fit by a standard so high that living up to it will add a new laurel to the crown of America.

The message follows: "The White House, Washington, 'To the Soldiers of the National Army:

"You are undertaking a great duty. The heart of the whole country is with you. Everything that you do will be watched with the deepest interest and with the deepest solicitude not only by the whole nation but by the eyes of the world. You are not only our national pride, you are our national hope. You are our national future. You are our national glory. You are our national honor. You are our national life.
