RUFE CAGLE SENT PENITENTIARY TOAVERTLYNCHING

Charged With Attempted Criminal Assault on Miss Adelaide Jeffreys

Young Woman Attacked At Home is Uninjured Beyond Nervous Shock.

Charged with attempted criminal assault upon Miss Adelaide Jeffreys Rufe Cagle, negro, 26 years old, was arrested Sat., near Lindon, brought to prison here and hurried to the penitentiary two hours later to avert his being lynched by a mob then forming.

Miss Jeffreys was attacked by an unknown person in the back yard of the Jeffrey's home at the southern edge of town about 10 o'clock Friday night. Her assallant threw acion over her head to stiffe her cries, dragged her to a corn field some distance from the house and left her unconscious. She was found early Saturday morning, lying on her face and in an unconscious condition. She was unable to give any description of her assallant.

Miss Jeffrey's discovery came after an all night search by nearly a hundred men who were summoned by the alarm given immediately after her absence from home was discovered at 10 o'clock. She and her sister had been sitting on the porch. Near 10 o'clock her sister went to forming.

a hundred men who were summoned by the alarm given immediately after her absence from home was discovered at 10 o'clock. She and her sister had been sitting on the porch. Near 10 o'clock her sister went to her room to retire. When Miss Adelaide did not follow within a few minutes her sister called to her but drew no response. The sister then went to look for her. She lighted a lantern and searched through the yards, calling loudly as the scarched, but could find no trace of the girl. Then a general alarm was given and ton decided to zend him to Raleigh for safety.

Mike Rose, with his speedy car, was pressed into service. Mike backed quietly into the little alley in front of the prison. A bevy of officers formed a line from the prison door to the waiting car. They drow their guns and ordered the crowd to stand hack. The negro was hustled to the car and the powerful machine lurched ahead. The angry mob surged forward; some one yelled "shoot him boys," and a fusillade of shots rang out, but the car did not stop. A delegate to the Sunday school convention from Parkton writes of his impressions of Dunn to the Lumberton Robesonian as follows:

"Two days last week was spent in the thriving city of Dunn, in company with our pestor, Rev. H. B. Porter, making the trip through the payeteville district Sunday School to Conference.

"The people of Dunn are as loyal and hospitable as the sun shines on. Our home while there was with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Newberry. Mr. Newberry is a former Payeteville boy, who has spent the last twenty years of his life in Dunn, engaged in the manufacturing of furniture, and he walk and street of the town will be payed. We could say many flattering things in regard to the town not with a walk and street of the town is back." The streets are freshly paved and the work shall close every side, walk and street of the town will be payed. We could say many flattering the work shall close every side, the work shall close every side, the manufacturing town, as there is no cotton mills there, but the town is back.
