Mrs. J. L. Thompson was in Fayetteville Wednesday shopping. You should read R. G. Taylor Co's notice in this issue if you want styles' best.

Sam Thomas wants to see you at U. S. 5 and 10 Cent Store, which will be open tomorrow.

Byron Butler and L. R. Godwin and Mrs. Maggie Butler and Mamie Stephens were visitors in Roseboro Sunday.

Mrs. J. C. Hodges returned last night from Burlington where she spent several days with Mr. Hodges who holds a position there.

The opening of the sale will be tomorrow at the U. S. 5 and 10 Cent Store. They are advertising many bargains for their customers during this sale.

C. A. Baker, proprietor of Young's Hotel, will leave tomorrow to attend a meeting of the hotel men which is to be held with the Food Administration in Washington this week.

Mrs. J. W. Langley and Mrs. Rufus Costa went to Richmond Saturday where Mrs. Costa entered a hospital for an operation. She was operated on Monday and is doing well.

A. L. Newberry was elected Sunday by the Wesley Bible Class of the Methodist Sunday school as a delegate to the Bible Federation class which meets in Wilson April 9th to 11th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bannerman, who have been living at the Tilghman Lumber Co. mill, just north of Dunn, have moved to town and occupy a residence on East Edgerton street, next to T. V. Smith.

Sheriff Tarlington has an important notice in this issue of the Dispatch. If you have not paid your taxes read it. The law requires him to advertise all lands upon which taxes have not been paid the first week in April and he gives you his last notice this week.

H. A. Parker, town clerk, states in an announcement in this issue that all street and side walk assessments are due and must be paid before May 1st or property will be advertised and sold. Read it if you are in the paved district and have not paid your assessment.

Pope and Tart, lumber dealers, closed a deal this week for the McNair-Jones-McLaurin tract of land on the Cape Fear river near Wade. The consideration was about $40,000.00. This puts them in possession of several million feet of timber which they will place on the market as quickly as it can be manufactured.

Miss Annie Cherry has been appointed County Chairman of the Woman's Working Committee of the Third Liberty Loan. 'Tis true Miss Cherry is busy with the educational work of the county, but we believe the appointment to be a wise one, and that Miss Cherry will do her duty toward organizing the women of the county for this big task.

Joe Creel and Guy Hooks returned Monday night from a visit to Camp Meade, Md., where they were the guests of the Dunn boys who enlisted in the signal corps several weeks ago and are stationed there. They also made brief stops at Washington and Richmond. Their trip was a pleasant one and they left all the boys in fine spirits and enjoying good health.

The Dispatch is requested to announce that the Christian church invites the other churches of the city and people generally to meet with them the first Sunday night in April in a union patriotic service. The object of the meeting is to make an appeal to the people to invest in War Savings Stamps which will be placed to the credit of a church building fund being raised. This is a unique plan and a large crowd will, no doubt, be present at the meeting.

Chief N. B. Bass is able to be on the job again after being confined to his room for several weeks. While sick he was relieved by R. F. Jernigan whose services were entirely satisfactory and commendable. Mr. Jernigan did a great deal toward enforcing the traffic laws during the short time he served and it is hoped that Chief Bass will continue this work now that he is back on the job. This law has been much abused in Dunn and now that it has been demonstrated that it can be enforced the people expect and will demand it of the town officials no matter who they may be.

J. W. Thornton was in Wilson Monday on business. J. W. Langley was a business visitor in Raleigh Monday.

John C. Clifford was a business visitor in Raleigh Saturday.

Chris Jacobs, of Fayetteville was a visitor in the city Monday.

Emmett Thompson, of Durham, visited friends here this week.

Dr. John A. Jernigan was a business visitor in Fayetteville Monday.

Miss Pearl-Jernigan spent a few days last week with relatives in Luccama.

Mrs. A. C. Barnes and Mrs. E. L. Parker spent Tuesday in Fayetteville shopping.

Mrs. John W. Fitzgerald returned Sunday from a visit to New York and Philadelphia.

Robert Jordan, of Raleigh, is spending the week-end with his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jordan.

Mrs. C. L. Guy has returned from a hospital in Raleigh where she was operated on for appendicitis.

Miss Lola Strickland, who is teaching school near Salemburg, spent the week-end here with her parents.

J. R. Cannady, whose home is in South Dunn, was taken to a hospital in Raleigh last week for treatment.

William E. Johnson, of Kealy, is here to spend a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Johnson.

Byrd P. Gentry, of Lillington, county superintendent of public schools, was here Tuesday on business.

Thaddeus Jernigan, of Camp Jackson, spent a few days here this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Jernigan.

N. A. Bell and G. M. Floyd and Mrs. J. R. Cannady were in Raleigh Sunday visiting J. R. Cannady, who is in a hospital there.

Mrs. Jas. Jarthing and Miss Ruby Godwin are spending the week in Washington City the guests of Congressman H. L. Godwin.

Lewis Strickland, a member of the "Hogan Gang" at Fort Caswell, is spending a furlough here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Strickland.

Your attention is called to the statement of the Bank of Harnett published in this issue. This bank has nearly half million dollars on deposit.

A. A. Jones was called to Rocky Mount Saturday on account of the serious illness of his daughter, Mrs. R. A. Weeks. Immediately after his arrival the little one-day-old infant died and was carried to Mount Olive for burial.

Howard Wilkins, colored, a son of Herbert and Sarah Wilkins, of Dunn, who is a student at Shaw University, Raleigh, was a member of the glee club from that institution which gave an entertainment in the Opera House here Friday night. Howard is well known in Dunn and his friends here are glad to know that he is making good as a student at Shaw University. The concert was unusually good and thoroughly enjoyed by those who attended.

Miss Gladys Young has returned from a several weeks visit to relatives in Philadelphia.

Miss Lucy McKay, of Salemburg, is here this week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. A. McKay.

Miss Eva McCallum, principal of the Jonesboro school, spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Parker.

Miss Helen Hood is home from Greensboro College for Women to spend Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hood.

J. C. Barrington, of near Raleigh, representing the Bragaw Fertilizer Co., was a business visitor in Dunn the latter part of the week.

J. J. Thomas has opened a dry goods store in the building next to the J. L. Thompson Co., formerly occupied by A. E. Norris. Read his announcement in this issue.

The concert given by the singing class of the Oxford Orphanage in the Opera House here Monday night was unusually good and attracted a large crowd. The concert was given under the auspices of the local Masonic Lodge.

The "Tacky Party" given by the Philathea class of the First Baptist church over Snipes' Garage Friday night was a success and was well attended. The varied styles from "Tackville" which were much in evidence, were appropriate for the occasion and furnished much amusement for the spectators.

According to a report by Sam L. Rogers, of the Bureau of the Census, Department of Agriculture, made public at 10:00 a. m. March 20, 1918, 441 bales of the 1917 crop of cotton had been ginned in Harnett county prior to that date. On the corresponding date in 1916 18,297 bales had been ginned. This is a difference of 1,144 bales in favor of the 1917 crop.

Miss Totten, representing the Community Chautauques, which is scheduled to appear in Dunn the early part of the summer, will be in Dunn Tuesday, April 2nd, to meet with the guarantors. The meeting, probably, will be held Tuesday evening in the Barnes & Holliday Co., furniture store when the local organization will be completed. A full attendance is necessary.

RED CROSS NOTES

Thanks to the following for donations: Ladies Aid Society of Christian Church check $5.00, Mrs. Narcissa Barnes check for $5.00, Mr. W. W. West, cash $1.50.

Our Penny a week plan could have been made a grand success on its small scale, if those in charge would only push, the two young ladies who did make their calls regularly have recently turned in $14.85 secured this way.

We regret that the Junior Red Cross has been handicapped because of what is termed "red tape". However, we trust this will soon have been passed on by all necessary officials and let those interested get to work on the supplies already ordered.

The colored people of the community seem anxious to have an auxiliary. Already sixteen memberships have been turned into our chapter secretary and their officers temporarily elected, awaiting the approval of chapter officers.

We know how Spring sewing, house work and our gardens must have attention, but let's not forget the work rooms on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons. We have an ample supply of material but need more workers.

Just at the time when our surgical dressing class was becoming discouraged for want of space in which to carry on its work properly, Mr. P. S. Cooper again comes to our aid by allowing these workers the use of another room in the Bank building. This means much to the Red Cross here and we very much appreciate it. This gives us four light, airy rooms.

Those in charge are making an effort to ship another box this week. Come lend a hand and help us keep up our plans of making a shipment each month.

Several Red Cross workers from Duke paid us a call in our work rooms Tuesday afternoon. Come again ladies.

NOTICE

My son, Vinson Bledsoe left my home near Duke Tuesday, March 26th, without leave, and this is to notify the public that I will not be responsible for any indebtedness made by him. E. V. BLEDSOE, March 26, 1918 Duke, N. C.
