

LOCAL

John H. Russell left Tuesday for Richmond, Va.

Mrs. J. P. Pittman spent Saturday and Sunday in Coats.

Lamuel and John Hockaday of Angier, spent Monday in town.

R. Hirschfeld and Benjamin Brewer spent Sunday in Fayetteville.

Mrs. H. C. Butler of Goldsboro, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Butler.

Mrs. G. F. Pope has just returned from visiting relatives in Raleigh.

Miss Gladys Young and Miss Sue Smith were visitors in Raleigh Monday.

Boyce Privette of Robeson County was visiting friends in town last week.

Mrs. F. B. Vasant of Washington is visiting her sister Mrs. M. G. Cooke.

P. A. Gardner of Micro and J. P. Gardner of Angier were in town Monday.

R. M. Warren and son Russell, spent Sunday and Monday at Fort Caswell.

Mrs. Fine and Morris Fleishman returned last Monday from Northern markets.

Miss Mary Yarborough of Wilmington is visiting Mrs. E. W. Smith at Lebanon.

Mrs. Colon Pearson and Miss Virginia Mitchell are in Raleigh visiting friends.

Miss Irene Parker of Clinton is visiting Misses Katie Sanderlin and Ethel Butler.

Miss Eva Strickland visited relatives in Sampson county last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Alex Sykes of Duke, left Dunn the first of the week for Camp at Allentown, Pa.

Mrs. C. L. Casey of Greensboro is visiting her brother N. A. Norris and other relatives.

Miss Iva Pearson who has been visiting for some time among friends in Sanford, has returned.

E. E. Thompson, who is in training at the State College in Raleigh spent Sunday here with friends.

Sanderson Stewart, who has been on a visit to his sister Mrs. Culp, left Monday for Columbia, S. C.

Miss Pearl Strickland who has been visiting Mrs. W. M. King left for her home at Four Oaks Sunday.

Miss Mary Allen Travis of Weldon, who has been visiting Mrs. J. L. Thompson, returned home last Monday.

I. T. Birmingham, of Greensboro, who visited Geo. M. Floyd and other friends last week has returned home.

A letter received from Girard Wilson at Camp at Ft. Barracks N. Y., states that he is getting on nicely.

Mrs. R. B. Wilson of Newton Grove was in town Monday on way to Lucama to visit her son, Dr. T. H. Wilson.

W. Y. Floyd of Camp Gordon, who was here last week visiting Geo. M. Floyd, returned to Camp Sunday evening.

Mrs. J. L. Hatcher, after spending several days visiting relatives and friends in Johnson county, returned Sunday evening.

Mrs. D. H. Smith and daughter, Dora, of Sumter, S. C. have been visiting Mrs. J. E. Dowd left Tuesday for Clio, S. C.

Misses Margaret and Bruce Tucker who, have been visiting Mrs. Ed. Purdie left for their home in Greenville Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Butler, W. E. Godfrey, Mrs. Vera McCorquodale, and L. C. Pullley of Duke, spent last Sunday in Raleigh.

We sympathize with Pink Tart in the loss of his two daughters by typhoid fever. One of them died last Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Darden of Clinton, were in town Sunday and Monday visiting at the homes of J. C. Bell and T. L. Fitzgerald.

Mrs. G. H. Bell and Miss Thelma Hamilton, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Morgan, returned to their respective homes in Dillon, S. C. last Saturday.

Rev. A. E. McQueen is at Wade this week where he is conducting a series of meetings at the old Bluff church. He is being assisted by Rev. D. K. Walthall, of Virginia.

Leon Wade, who has held a position in Norfolk, Va. for the past several months, arrived in Dunn Saturday and will spend some time here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin L. Wade.

L. P. Surles has recently purchased the Cooper property just opposite his store. This property includes the Marble yard store which A. H. Hargrove is now using and also the one used by Bud Williams.

The new Jackson automobile which was driven by Misses Myrtle and Beulah Warren turned over in a ditch last Sunday, but the young ladies were not seriously hurt. Their friends very much sympathize with them in the accident.

On Thursday, August 22nd, the J. A. Culbreth property, known as the Falcon Orphanage, will be sold at public auction. The property will be sold on easy terms. Newbury Realty & Auction Co. are the selling agents which means the sale will be conducted on a high plane. Read announcement found elsewhere in this issue.

Mrs. R. O. Townsend is in Charlotte this week visiting friends.

Will Grantham, of Manchester, was here this week on business.

Mrs. J. S. Page and daughter, Maggie, visited M. D. Page last week.

J. R. Summerlin and family are taking their vacation at Vaison.

J. W. Turnage has just returned from a two days stay at Norfolk, Va.

Miss Iva Johnson, of Benson, spent the week-end with Miss Mamie Johnson.

William Dawson and Thomas Gilbert, of Shady Grove, were in town Monday.

Misses Lennie Gaiency and Janie Jackson were visitors in Raleigh Tuesday.

Mrs. T. J. Lee, of Sampson is visiting her mother Mrs. Sarah E. Thornton.

Mrs. Fred Rargett and children are visiting relatives in Sampson county this week.

Mrs. James Farthing returned Monday from Wrightsville Beach, where she spent last week.

Miss Lucile Bledsoe returned Monday from Raleigh where she visited relatives and friends.

Misses Irene Parker and Reva Jernigan spent Monday afternoon in Fayetteville shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Langley visited Mrs. Langley's father, Ben Allen, of near Four Oaks Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Harper, of Mullins, S. C. are here this week visiting the family of D. C. Fussell.

Charlie Ford, of Kinston, arrived the latter part of the week to visit his sister, Mrs. Mamie J. Pittman.

Mrs. P. H. Westbrook, after spending several days visiting relatives in Wilmington, returned home Monday.

Mrs. Elmer Bullock and mother, Mrs. Weatherford, of Rocky Mount, visited relatives in the city this week.

Miss Minnie Guy took her class on picnic last Thursday at Duke Park. They report a most pleasant time.

Geo. I. Smith, of Coats, was here Monday en route to towns in Johnston county where he will spend the week.

Mrs. W. H. Byrd of Smithfield and Mrs. Frances, of Petersburg, Va. were the guests of Mrs. E. L. Parker last week.

John W. Draughon and Mrs. Maggie Butler are visiting northern markets this week buying goods for the fall and winter trade.

John P. Johnson has returned from Baltimore and New York where he purchased goods for the Johnson Bros. Department store.

Miss Annie Laura Lucas who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lucas, returned to her home at Faison last Monday.

Misses Pearl Jernigan and Mattie Phillips left Tuesday morning for Asheville and Lake Junaluska, where they will spend some time.

James Darden and wife, who spent a few days in town visiting friends and relatives, returned to their home in Clinton last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Thompson returned Tuesday morning from New Jersey, where they spent ten days with Mrs. Thompson's relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Fussell left last week for Hendersonville, where Mrs. Fussell will spend several weeks. Mr. Fussell returned Saturday to Dunn.

D. J. Parker, one of Harnett's popular old men, was in town Tuesday. He is a Confederate soldier and is one of the beloved citizens of the county.

Carr Jones left Monday for Texas, where he will enter the limited service department of the army. Carr enlisted some time ago and was called Monday.

Rev. J. M. Daniel, John Henry Pope and Otis P. Shell have returned from a prospective trip to Georgia. We have been informed that these gentlemen invested heavily in real estate while down there.

Attorney C. L. Guy left this week for Richmond, Va. where he will have his eyes treated. Mrs. Guy and the children will accompany him as far as Rocky Mount, where they will visit relatives for several days.

J. Lloyd Wade, manager of the Dunn Insurance & Realty Company, returned Saturday from Hendersonville, where he went to carry Mrs. Wade and the children, who will spend several weeks there. The trip was made in Mr. Wade's new King touring car.

McD. Holliday has been appointed Chairman of the Jewish War Relief Fund for Dunn and has asked a number of workers to meet with him in the Furniture Department of the Barnes & Holliday Co. next Friday night when plans will be formulated for the drive which will take place Monday, August 19th.

McD. Holliday, Chairman of the Jewish War Relief Fund, has secured Dr. S. Mendlesohn, of Wilmington, to make a talk at the Opera House here next Sunday night, at the union service which will be held there. The various churches of the town will come together on this occasion and a large number of people are expected to attend. A musical program is being arranged by Rev. J. M. Daniel and the evening will be most interesting one. Dr. Mendlesohn, who will make the principal talk, has served Wilmington as Rabbi for more than 25 years and is well known throughout the State. His address will be good and the people of Dunn should hear him.

THE ONLY SURE ROAD TO SUCCESS

MOST successful business men owe their success to the Savings Account Habit.

CULTIVATE IT EARLY IN LIFE

DEPOSIT a dollar or two each week and see how rapidly it mounts up.

WE will open an account with you for as low as $1.00 and pay you _____ per cent interest.

NOW IS THE TIME TO SAVE.

STATE BANK TRUST CO

W. H. GODWIN PRES.
R. L. GODWIN VICE PRES.
DUNN, N. C.

B. Bowden of Wilmington, was in town Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Cox of Clinton spent Wednesday in town.

Frank Wilson from Camp Lee, Va. at home visiting his parents.

Dr. T. F. Sanders and daughter, Martha, of Clinton, spent Wednesday in town.

Hon. J. C. Clifford spoke at Spring Branch Wednesday evening on "Shift Stamps."

Miss Martha Raynor spent the week end in Durham visiting her mother, Mrs. Hill.

Miss Sallie Hamilton of Dillon, S. C. is visiting in Dunn, and is the guest of Mrs. J. L. Houston.

Carl Barefoot passed through Dunn last night en route to Camp Lee, Petersburg, from Camp Jackson.

Miss Mary Warren left Wednesday to spend a few days with her uncle W. M. Warren, at Fayetteville.

Miss Elene Norton who has been visiting Miss Florence Cooper left Wednesday for her home at Mullens, S. C.

Ralph Warren who works for the Dupont Co. of Richmond, Va. is in town visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren.

Rev. R. L. Brown of Redding, Penn. is here and began a series of meetings at Second Baptist church Wednesday evening.

L. P. Surles has opened a blacksmith shop just back of his store and is prepared to do your work. Read its announcement in this issue.

Rev. A. G. Doner of Peterboro, Ontario, is the guest of D. H. Hood. Rev. Mr. Doner is one of the noted men who will preach at the Falcon Camp Meeting.

Harper Holliday, Earl Hinson, Dick Taylor and Paul Jones went to Raleigh Tuesday and enlisted. Harper and Paul enlisted in the quartermaster's corps while Earl and Dick enlisted in the navy. They returned to Dunn in the afternoon and will remain here until they are called for duty.

John Henry Pope and Lemon Leo, of Greenville, left this morning for Georgia, where they will spend a few days. Mr. Pope recently invested about $20,000.00 in a stock farm in Georgia, and is going down to look over his interests. Rev. J. M. Daniel and O. P. Shell also invested some money there recently.

Another registration will take place Saturday, August 24th, when those who have become 21 years of age since the registration in June,

McKay Mfg. Co., Dunn
(Incorporated)
General Foundry, Machine and Metal Works.

We make, deal in, Rebuild and Repair all kinds of machinery. We have one of the best plants of this class in the State. We carry in stock at all times a nice line of Steam Fittings and Mill Supplies Shafting, Boiler, Tubes, Pulleys, Mandrels, Swing Saw Machines, etc. We carry constantly in stock a large stock of the celebrated James Ohlen & Sons Saws. Inserted and solid tooth, both Cut-off and Rip. See us for anything in Machinery or Machine work.

Over Quarter Century of Knowing How

The John A. McKay Mfg. Company, Dunn, N. C.

REAL ESTATE LOANS

We are in position to secure loans for desirable parties for 10 year periods, on improved Farm and Town property.

LARGE AMOUNTS PREFERRED.

Money may be furnished immediately upon satisfactory proof of title and security.

For full information write or see the manager.

Benson Loan & Insurance Co.
Benson, N. C.

Capital $10,000,000

M. T. BRTT, W. H. SLOCUMB, W. H. MASSENGILL
President Vice-President Manager

FRUIT JARS NOW GOING AT REDUCED PRICES

During the month of August I will close out my large stock of Fruit Jars at the following attractive prices:

Pint jars, per dozen,.....	$.80
Quart jars, per dozen,.....	.90
1-2 gallon jars, per dozen,.....	1.10

THESE PRICES ARE FOR CASH ONLY.

I have just received a car load of Peanut Meal. This is fine feed for hogs. My price on this is right.

WALTER JONES, Dunn, N. C.
Phone No. 27.

THE CALL TO ACTION

SHOE POLISHES

LIQUIDS AND PASTES. FOR BLACK, WHITE, TAN, BROWN OR OX-BLOOD SHOES. PRESERVE THE LEATHER.

By F. F. DALLEY CORPORATION, LIMITED, BUFFALO, N. Y.

Mrs. E. L. Cook is visiting her parents at Littleton this week.

Cooper Jackson has accepted a position with the Wilson store.

Mrs. Noel Pridge is visiting her mother who returned home Sunday.

Mrs. L. A. _____ who has been visiting Mrs. M. E. Upchurch, has returned home.

and Clarence McNeill, of Lillington, were visitors in Dunn today.

E. L. Cook, N. A. Townsend, Raymond Cromartie and P. Holliday spent last Sunday in Greenville.

A. C. Barnes, after spending one week each in Atlanta, Ga. and Charleston, S. C., returned home Friday.

Miss Sadie Pittman, after spending several weeks with relatives in Raleigh and Warrenton, returned home last night.

A cablegram from Vernon Massengill to Walter Jones, of M. G. Co. 325 _____, American _____, was received.

O. B. Paton, for 16 years mayor of Hopewell, Va., last week, and his wife, were brought here for interment. He was a man who had caused a great deal of trouble in Harnett county, where he was constantly in the courts on various charges. The Dispatch has been unable to get any particulars of the killing.

McD. Holliday and Malcolm Phillips are in Richmond, Va. this week attending the Retail Merchants association. Mr. Holliday is vice-president of this association and was one of the speakers on the program for this week.

David Marshall Williams and Margaret L. Cook, of Godwin, were married Sunday at the home of the bride, Rev. A. R. McQueen, of Dunn, performing the ceremony. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Williams, while the bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Cook, both prominent families of Cumberland county.

Noah Godwin, formerly of Harnett county, was killed at his home in _____, Va., last week, and his body was brought here for interment. He was a man who had caused a great deal of trouble in Harnett county, where he was constantly in the courts on various charges. The Dispatch has been unable to get any particulars of the killing.

At a soldier's hospital in France one of the wounded Tommies sought permission of the matron to visit the village. The matron did not think it wise to let him go, so asked him what he wanted to do in the village.

"I want to get something from a shop there," he said.

"Very well, ma'am," agreed the matron, "please bring me a haircut and a shave."

Give until it hurts, advises Wilson.