 Miss Ruth Seabock arrived this afternoon from New York City to resume her work as head milliner for The Goldstein Company. Miss Seabock was here last year and made many friends who are glad to have her here again. Miss Seabock says the styles this season are beautiful and that their showing, date of which will be announced later, will be the most elaborate in the history of the store.
 Henry C. Lee, of Fort Caswell, spent a few days here this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Lee. Henry was on his way back from Asheville, where he attended the Shriners convention held in that city last week. Mr. Lee was recently made drum major of the band at Fort Caswell, which he was instrumental in organizing immediately upon his arrival there more than a year ago. It is a large organization and the position he holds is one of importance. He returned to the fort Tuesday afternoon.
 Wesley B. Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Thompson, has just completed his course in military aeronautics at the University of New Jersey, and is now on the aviation field flying from 4 to 6 hours per day. He writes that he is enthusiastic over his work and expects to be able soon to fly over Berlin. Wesley has been a patient hardworking student since entering the service about a year ago and has made good in everything he has attempted. He will soon be ready to go across where he will join the brave boys who are already flying over Germany. The people back home are watching his career with much interest. His address is: Replacement Battalion, Warhouse No. 9, Aviation Field No. 2, Garden City, N. J.
CARD OF THANKS
 To the people of the Town of Dunn: As we can't see you all personally, we take this method of expressing to you our appreciation for what has been done for us in our recent troubles. We thank you all, those who have contributed to our comfort personally, and the Sunday School classes which have contributed so Christianlike. We also thank our Pastor for placing us in such a community. We want to say further, that if at any time there is one to whom we may render service we will be more than glad to do it. Thanking you again and always,
 Very Respectfully,
 J. E. HARRELSON AND WIFE.

"I have doctored nine years for stomach and liver trouble and spent thousands of dollars, but instead of becoming cured of these ailments, my bloating and pains and attacks became worse. I was persuaded a year ago to take Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and have never suffered since taking the first dose. I wish I had the money back I spent for other medicine." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, and liver intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—Rood & Grantham and druggists everywhere.
