

LOCAL

Rev. C. F. Taylor, of Falcon, was in town Wednesday. Prof. B. P. Gentry, of Lillington, was in town Monday. Elmer Polk, of Fayetteville, spent Sunday here with Mrs. Polk. C. M. Allen, of Bunnlevel, was a business visitor in Dunn yesterday. Adran Jones spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Sanford. Dr. M. L. Barefoot of Sampson county, was in Dunn Wednesday. Willie Jackson, of Cooper, was a business visitor in Dunn Wednesday. Jim Monds, of Norfolk, Va. is spending the week here with relatives. Lemon Lee, of Greenville, arrived Wednesday morning to visit relatives in the city. Mrs. R. L. Warren and children are visiting Mrs. Warren's mother at North Emporia, Va. Prof. J. A. Campbell and daughter, Miss Beale, of Buie's Creek, were visitors in Dunn Tuesday. Private Lovett J. Wood, of near Dunn, was reported among the killed in Saturday's casualty list. Dr. R. L. Warran and J. H. Pope are spending the week in Georgia. They went down on a hunting trip. Miss Lillian Wilkinson, of Kenly, after spending several days with Mrs. J. J. Lane, returned home Wednesday. Eugene T. Lee, Lennie Godwin and Marsh Marrow were visitors in Wilmington and Fort Caswell this week. Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers, of Lillington, were visitors here this week the guests of Mrs. Rogers' sister, Mrs. Florence Jackson. Allen Smith, of Smithfield, was here Wednesday to see his brother, J. R. Smith, who has been seriously ill for several weeks. Clellan N. Pope, of Buie's Creek, was reported in Wednesday's casualty list. The report stated that he was missing in action. Geo. L. Cannady returned Saturday from Robeson county where he was auctioneer at two land sales which took place last week. Miss Pearl Grantham has gone to Angier, where she will teach in the Angier High school this winter. She left Saturday to take up her work. Jas. Pearsall yesterday received a card from his son, Wm. McKay Pearsall, announcing his safe arrival overseas. He arrived at Liverpool Nov. 1st. Dr. Cullem who has charge of the million dollar campaign which is being conducted in the State, was a visitor in Dunn this week. Miss Lucy McKay has returned to Salernburg where she will resume her studies in the Pineland School for Girls. She has been home for several weeks. Miss Myrtle Ferrell and Carl Capps of Lucama, visited relatives here this week. Mr. Capps is in the navy and was on a short furlough to visit friends and relatives in the State. The Goldstein Company sale opened today. You will notice in their ad in this issue they are offering goods at greatly reduced prices for the next few days. The town officials are having some work done on the streets. It is being done by the Dunn Road District force and those streets that are being worked are being put in much better shape. The time for mailing Christmas packages has been extended to November 30. This is the final date and all who want to send packages to the boys over there had better make arrangements at once. Mrs. Pauline Myers returned last week from Raleigh, where she took a stenographic course at King's business College. She was accepted a position with the Durham & Southern and began her work Monday morning. A few new cases of influenza have developed in Dunn during the past two weeks. It does not seem to be spreading a great deal, however, and it is not thought it will be necessary to close places of amusement and suspend school again. The Free Will Baptist Conference will convene with the Shady Grove church Friday before the first Sunday in December. This Conference was to have been held a month ago, but was postponed on account of the epidemic of Spanish influenza which was raging at that time. C. S. Moore is home for a few days from Camp Bragg where he has charge of building the Y. M. C. A. building. He says work has not slackened at the camp since the armistice was signed and train loads of material are arriving there every week. V. B. Morgan returned the later part of the week from Macon where he went to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, who was murdered last Wednesday night. Mr. Drake, the murdered man, was cashier of the Bank of Norfolk, and it was there the crime was committed. The body was taken to Macon, his old home, for burial. Mr. Drake was married about six months ago to Miss Vick Hamilton, sister to Mrs. V. B. Morgan, and she was well known in Dunn, having visited here a number of times.

W. H. Parrish was a business visitor in Raleigh Wednesday. Editor Beasley, of the Raleigh News-Salma, was a business visitor in Dunn today. Several Dunn people were present at the Sampson County Fair at Lenoir this week. Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Pope and children spent several days in Lenoir with relatives near Falcon. Capt. Anson Jackson, of the 10th Central Postal Directory, returned from a morning to visit relatives near Lenoir. He will be here for several days. Your attention is called to a notice published elsewhere in this issue by the Mayor of Dunn. It is a notice assessing for paving a sidewalk on your property will be advertised in this issue. Rev. W. E. Brown, pastor of the Methodist church at Lenoir, was in town yesterday. He is recovering from a severe attack of influenza which kept him in bed for several weeks. His friends are glad to see him out again. The United War Work campaign closed last Wednesday night. We did not raise our quota, more than $1,200 was subscribed in Dunn and vicinity. Mr. James Pearsall, chairman for Averasboro township, and did excellent work along with his assistants. He was not appointed chairman until the campaign was well under way and was late in getting his organization in the field. James Clarence J. Smith was chairman for Harnett county and devoted his spare time to the work while the campaign was on. We hope to publish a list of those who contributed in next issue of The Dispatch. CAPT. HOLLAND SPOKE TUESDAY NIGHT Capt. W. D. Holland, who is just back from France, where he saw a great deal of service at the front, addressed the people of Dunn at the Opera House Tuesday night. The program was opened by the audience singing American songs, was followed by prayer by Rev. J. M. Daniel, of the Methodist church. A vocal quartette, composed of Miss Iva Pearson, Mrs. John Heston, Mrs. A. R. McQueen and C. S. Hicks, then rendered an appropriate selection, which was followed by a solo by Miss Iva Pearson. James Pearsall, chairman for Averasboro township of the United War Work campaign, presided over the meeting and introduced the speaker. Captain Holland's talk lasted for about an hour and he related many interesting experiences that happened while he was in France. He also told about the work being done over here as well as over there by the organizations represented in the United War Work campaign and urged the people to contribute to the fund as generously as possible. After the address of the evening the audience was called upon to contribute to the United War Work campaign and several donations were made. FAUCETTE-GORMAN W. H. Faucette, Register of Deeds of Harnett county, and Mrs. M. Frances Gorman, of Greenville, Conn. were married at Fayetteville Nov. 12th, 1918. The marriage was a quiet affair, only a few intimate friends witnessing the ceremony. THE RED CROSS. In November 18 Jarvis chapter shipped to the Bureau of Supplies, Atlanta, Ga. the following: 180 large cotton pad, 12x24 inches. 2,100 small gauze sponge, 2x2 1/2 inches. 50 gray sweaters, (sleeveless). This chapter and its auxiliaries have accepted the following allotments, which were made to them as their part of the Southern Division work. 100 Italian comfort kits. 33 Property bags. 200 Hospital story books. 50 Boy's shirts. 100 Girl's garments. Don't wait until your cold develops Spanish Influenza or pneumonia. Kill it quick. HALL'S CASCARA QUININE Standard cold remedy for 20 years. It is safe, sure, no opiates. Breaks up a cold in 14 hours—relieves grippe in 12 hours. It is back if it fails. The genuine bottle is marked with Mr. Hall's picture. At all drug stores. IN MEMORY OF MRS. L. M. CORE. On Wednesday night Nov. the 16th at 10:30 P. M. death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Strickland and claimed the wife of Mr. L. M. Core. She was taken sick with influenza at her father's home 12 days before she died and never was able to go home. She was sick only three days before pneumonia developed. She suffered untold pain. All that could be done by a kind physician, relatives and friends was done, but God knew best and called her home. She told her mother the day she died that her life's work was nearly finished. Emma was born May the 2nd, 1853, being 35 years 6 months and 4 days old. The funeral was conducted by her

W. H. Parrish was a business visitor in Raleigh Wednesday. Editor Beasley, of the Raleigh News-Salma, was a business visitor in Dunn today. Several Dunn people were present at the Sampson County Fair at Lenoir this week. Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Pope and children spent several days in Lenoir with relatives near Falcon. Capt. Anson Jackson, of the 10th Central Postal Directory, returned from a morning to visit relatives near Lenoir. He will be here for several days. Your attention is called to a notice published elsewhere in this issue by the Mayor of Dunn. It is a notice assessing for paving a sidewalk on your property will be advertised in this issue. Rev. W. E. Brown, pastor of the Methodist church at Lenoir, was in town yesterday. He is recovering from a severe attack of influenza which kept him in bed for several weeks. His friends are glad to see him out again. The United War Work campaign closed last Wednesday night. We did not raise our quota, more than $1,200 was subscribed in Dunn and vicinity. Mr. James Pearsall, chairman for Averasboro township, and did excellent work along with his assistants. He was not appointed chairman until the campaign was well under way and was late in getting his organization in the field. James Clarence J. Smith was chairman for Harnett county and devoted his spare time to the work while the campaign was on. We hope to publish a list of those who contributed in next issue of The Dispatch. CAPT. HOLLAND SPOKE TUESDAY NIGHT Capt. W. D. Holland, who is just back from France, where he saw a great deal of service at the front, addressed the people of Dunn at the Opera House Tuesday night. The program was opened by the audience singing American songs, was followed by prayer by Rev. J. M. Daniel, of the Methodist church. A vocal quartette, composed of Miss Iva Pearson, Mrs. John Heston, Mrs. A. R. McQueen and C. S. Hicks, then rendered an appropriate selection, which was followed by a solo by Miss Iva Pearson. James Pearsall, chairman for Averasboro township of the United War Work campaign, presided over the meeting and introduced the speaker. Captain Holland's talk lasted for about an hour and he related many interesting experiences that happened while he was in France. He also told about the work being done over here as well as over there by the organizations represented in the United War Work campaign and urged the people to contribute to the fund as generously as possible. After the address of the evening the audience was called upon to contribute to the United War Work campaign and several donations were made. FAUCETTE-GORMAN W. H. Faucette, Register of Deeds of Harnett county, and Mrs. M. Frances Gorman, of Greenville, Conn. were married at Fayetteville Nov. 12th, 1918. The marriage was a quiet affair, only a few intimate friends witnessing the ceremony. THE RED CROSS. In November 18 Jarvis chapter shipped to the Bureau of Supplies, Atlanta, Ga. the following: 180 large cotton pad, 12x24 inches. 2,100 small gauze sponge, 2x2 1/2 inches. 50 gray sweaters, (sleeveless). This chapter and its auxiliaries have accepted the following allotments, which were made to them as their part of the Southern Division work. 100 Italian comfort kits. 33 Property bags. 200 Hospital story books. 50 Boy's shirts. 100 Girl's garments. Don't wait until your cold develops Spanish Influenza or pneumonia. Kill it quick. HALL'S CASCARA QUININE Standard cold remedy for 20 years. It is safe, sure, no opiates. Breaks up a cold in 14 hours—relieves grippe in 12 hours. It is back if it fails. The genuine bottle is marked with Mr. Hall's picture. At all drug stores. IN MEMORY OF MRS. L. M. CORE. On Wednesday night Nov. the 16th at 10:30 P. M. death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Strickland and claimed the wife of Mr. L. M. Core. She was taken sick with influenza at her father's home 12 days before she died and never was able to go home. She was sick only three days before pneumonia developed. She suffered untold pain. All that could be done by a kind physician, relatives and friends was done, but God knew best and called her home. She told her mother the day she died that her life's work was nearly finished. Emma was born May the 2nd, 1853, being 35 years 6 months and 4 days old. The funeral was conducted by her

W. H. Parrish was a business visitor in Raleigh Wednesday. Editor Beasley, of the Raleigh News-Salma, was a business visitor in Dunn today. Several Dunn people were present at the Sampson County Fair at Lenoir this week. Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Pope and children spent several days in Lenoir with relatives near Falcon. Capt. Anson Jackson, of the 10th Central Postal Directory, returned from a morning to visit relatives near Lenoir. He will be here for several days. Your attention is called to a notice published elsewhere in this issue by the Mayor of Dunn. It is a notice assessing for paving a sidewalk on your property will be advertised in this issue. Rev. W. E. Brown, pastor of the Methodist church at Lenoir, was in town yesterday. He is recovering from a severe attack of influenza which kept him in bed for several weeks. His friends are glad to see him out again. The United War Work campaign closed last Wednesday night. We did not raise our quota, more than $1,200 was subscribed in Dunn and vicinity. Mr. James Pearsall, chairman for Averasboro township, and did excellent work along with his assistants. He was not appointed chairman until the campaign was well under way and was late in getting his organization in the field. James Clarence J. Smith was chairman for Harnett county and devoted his spare time to the work while the campaign was on. We hope to publish a list of those who contributed in next issue of The Dispatch. CAPT. HOLLAND SPOKE TUESDAY NIGHT Capt. W. D. Holland, who is just back from France, where he saw a great deal of service at the front, addressed the people of Dunn at the Opera House Tuesday night. The program was opened by the audience singing American songs, was followed by prayer by Rev. J. M. Daniel, of the Methodist church. A vocal quartette, composed of Miss Iva Pearson, Mrs. John Heston, Mrs. A. R. McQueen and C. S. Hicks, then rendered an appropriate selection, which was followed by a solo by Miss Iva Pearson. James Pearsall, chairman for Averasboro township of the United War Work campaign, presided over the meeting and introduced the speaker. Captain Holland's talk lasted for about an hour and he related many interesting experiences that happened while he was in France. He also told about the work being done over here as well as over there by the organizations represented in the United War Work campaign and urged the people to contribute to the fund as generously as possible. After the address of the evening the audience was called upon to contribute to the United War Work campaign and several donations were made. FAUCETTE-GORMAN W. H. Faucette, Register of Deeds of Harnett county, and Mrs. M. Frances Gorman, of Greenville, Conn. were married at Fayetteville Nov. 12th, 1918. The marriage was a quiet affair, only a few intimate friends witnessing the ceremony. THE RED CROSS. In November 18 Jarvis chapter shipped to the Bureau of Supplies, Atlanta, Ga. the following: 180 large cotton pad, 12x24 inches. 2,100 small gauze sponge, 2x2 1/2 inches. 50 gray sweaters, (sleeveless). This chapter and its auxiliaries have accepted the following allotments, which were made to them as their part of the Southern Division work. 100 Italian comfort kits. 33 Property bags. 200 Hospital story books. 50 Boy's shirts. 100 Girl's garments. Don't wait until your cold develops Spanish Influenza or pneumonia. Kill it quick. HALL'S CASCARA QUININE Standard cold remedy for 20 years. It is safe, sure, no opiates. Breaks up a cold in 14 hours—relieves grippe in 12 hours. It is back if it fails. The genuine bottle is marked with Mr. Hall's picture. At all drug stores. IN MEMORY OF MRS. L. M. CORE. On Wednesday night Nov. the 16th at 10:30 P. M. death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Strickland and claimed the wife of Mr. L. M. Core. She was taken sick with influenza at her father's home 12 days before she died and never was able to go home. She was sick only three days before pneumonia developed. She suffered untold pain. All that could be done by a kind physician, relatives and friends was done, but God knew best and called her home. She told her mother the day she died that her life's work was nearly finished. Emma was born May the 2nd, 1853, being 35 years 6 months and 4 days old. The funeral was conducted by her

The John A. McKay Mfg. Co., Dunn
(Incorporated)
General Foundry, Machine and Metal Works.

We make, deal in, Rebuild and Repair all kinds of machinery. We have one of the best plants of this class in the State. We carry in stock at all times a nice line of Steam Fittings and Mill Supplies Shafting, Boiler, Tubes, Pulleys, Mandrels, Swing Saw Machines, etc. We carry constantly in stock a large stock of the celebrated James Ohlen & Sons Saws. Inserted and solid tooth, both Cut-off and Rip. See us for anything in Machinery or Machine work.

Over Quarter Century of Knowing How

The John A. McKay Mfg. Company,
Dunn, N. C.

NOTICE!

First and second installments on side walk and street paving past due and if not paid at once said property adjoining will be advertised and sold according to law without further notice.

J. W. WHITEHEAD,
MAYOR

DOCTORS SAY CALOTABS ARE BEST FOR COLDS.

According to the world's greatest physicians and medical experts, Calotabs is the best and only dependable remedy for breaking up a cold overnight or cutting short an attack of sore throat, deep-seated cough, influenza or grippe. Now that science has purified Calotabs of all its noxious and dangerous qualities, the new kind of Calotabs, called "Calotabs" is even more popular than the old style.

One Calotab on the tongue at bed time with a swallow of water—That's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with your diet, work or pleasures. Next morning your cold has vanished and your whole system is purified and refreshed. Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents. Your druggists recommend and guarantee Calotabs and will refund the price if you are not delighted with them.—Adv.

NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATION.
Having qualified as Administrator of the estate of William El Baggett, deceased, all persons are hereby notified to make payment of accounts due to the estate to the undersigned at once. Persons holding claims against the estate will present them to the undersigned duly verified on or before the 21st day of November, 1918, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of said claim.

This the 21st day of November, 1918.

IDA J. BAGGETT,
Admrx. of William El Baggett, deceased.
Clifford & Townsend,
Attorneys.

TWO STILLS CAPTURED.
Revenue Officers Make a Big haul in Sampson County.

Deputy U. S. Marshal N. A. Watson and John D. Canady went to Autryville, Sampson County, Friday and captured two 50-gallon whisky stills located about one-half mile from the town. The stills were not in operation and no one was found nearby. A well equipped outfit was destroyed and 150 gallons of beer was over-urned. Included in the outfit were: several barrels, a new pump, a shovel, a spade and other things. All were destroyed.—Fayetteville trib.

FERTILIZERS

At this time it is more important than ever to use the very best fertilizers.

Every bag of Armours Fertilizers is the combination of the very best materials and skilled craftsmanship

The result of their use in this section has been bigger and better crops.

Why not buy ARMOURS and have the satisfaction of knowing that you have the best in fertilizers for your spring crops.

I will be pleased to have your inquires.

Geo. M. FLOYD

NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATION.
Having qualified as Administrator of the estate of William El Baggett, deceased, all persons are hereby notified to make payment of accounts due to the estate to the undersigned at once. Persons holding claims against the estate will present them to the undersigned duly verified on or before the 21st day of November, 1918, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of said claim.

This the 21st day of November, 1918.

IDA J. BAGGETT,
Admrx. of William El Baggett, deceased.
Clifford & Townsend,
Attorneys.

TWO STILLS CAPTURED.
Revenue Officers Make a Big haul in Sampson County.

Deputy U. S. Marshal N. A. Watson and John D. Canady went to Autryville, Sampson County, Friday and captured two 50-gallon whisky stills located about one-half mile from the town. The stills were not in operation and no one was found nearby. A well equipped outfit was destroyed and 150 gallons of beer was over-urned. Included in the outfit were: several barrels, a new pump, a shovel, a spade and other things. All were destroyed.—Fayetteville trib.

CALL ON US FOR

INSURANCE

AND

REAL ESTATE LOANS.

Dunn Insurance & Realty Co.