KAISER HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR WAR PLANS LAID TO BRING HIM TO TRIAL DEFINITE DECISION ON REPARATION

ENEMY MUST PAY ALL WAR LOSSES COUNCIL DECIDES

Germany's Initial Payment Will Be Five Billion Dollars Due May 1, 1921

ANNUAL ASSESSMENTS 30 YEARS THEREAFTER

Paris April 9.—The responsibility of the German Emperor for the war and the means for bringing him to trial by one of the allied governments, probably Belgium, have been definitely determined upon by the Council of Four. This follows the definite decision on the terms of reparation for war damages, whereby $5,000,000,000 must be paid within the next two years and an inter-allied commission assess the remaining damage for a period of 30 years, beginning May 1, 1921.

Thus, two of the great obstacles which stood in the path of the rapid attainment of peace have been removed within the last twenty-four hours, and the period of extreme tension over the imminence and failure to secure tangible results is succeeded by revived confidence over the great advance made towards a permanent settlement.

How far these results are due to the intimations conveyed by the summoning to France of the United States transport George Washington by President Wilson is only conjectural. But it is at least a coincidence that the main difficulties began to disappear from the time that this decision became known.

Nature of Difficulties Not Disclosed

The exact nature of these difficulties are not disclosed. Friends of the President maintain they were largely of a minor character, not involving large principles, though the President's adherence to his "fourteen points" as the rigid limitation of the scope of action appears to have run all through the deliberations during the tense period of the last few days.

As much depends on the continuation of progress with respect to the remaining obstacles, notably the Saar Valley, the Rhine frontier, the Adriatic issue and a number of lesser issues which are still short of final agreement.

Agreement Result of Compromise

The agreement on responsibilities for the war is understood to have been a compromise between divided reports presented by the commission of which Secretary Lansing is chairman. There was a practical agreement on the general responsibility of the German Emperor for bringing on the war, but division occurred on whether it was feasible to bring him to justice before an international tribunal.

The French and British view favored a tribunal, but the American view, it is understood, favored moral indictment without recourse to prosecution, owing to the lack of an international law as a basis for trial before an international court.

Belgium on which the war fell first and heaviest, is reported to have taken a view much similar to that of the United States, while Japan and Italy were partially in accord with the American view.

Differences Bring New Plan

It was owing to these divergent viewpoints that the council devised a new plan, whereby one of the allied nations, probably Belgium, would institute prosecution against the former Emperor and others responsible for the breach of treaties, the invasion of territory and the destruction directed against this country and leading to a more general spread of the war. The exact nature of the agreement is not disclosed, but the prevailing view is that the main lines of the text as finally approved on reparations specifies that the enemy countries must admit responsibility for all loss and damage to allied and associated nations and their citizens caused by the unjustifiable aggression.

In view of the inability of the enemy countries fully to reimburse these losses, the clause states, an inter-allied commission will assess the losses on a just basis for thirty years, beginning May 1, 1921, with an initial payment of $5,000,000,000.

Germany is to pay the entire cost of the commission and staff during the thirty years of operations. The first payment is to be credited against Germany's obligation to pay for the maintenance of the allied troops in the occupation regions, and the second priority is for the payment of food relief furnished to Germany.

ALL AMERICANS MAY BE HOME BY LATE SUMMER

Washington, April 7.—Approximately 200 ships are engaged in returning American troops from overseas and additional vessels are being fitted out for this service with a view to increasing the homeward movement to 800,000 or more men a month. It was said today that at this rate the last of the expeditionary forces might be out of Europe by late summer, but that this would depend largely upon developments at the peace conference.

SLEEPING SICKNESS HERE UNLIKE THAT FOUND IN AFRICA

Dr. D. L. Mumpower, Methodist Missionary, Says African Disease Caused by Bite of Poisonous Fly and Nearly Always Fatal

With the encroachment of what is, through error, called "sleeping sickness" in the South, many people are becoming alarmed, connecting the American disease with the fatal malady in Africa. Dr. D. L. Mumpower, a medical missionary of the M. E. Church in South Africa, now in an American on furlough, stated to a newspaper representative recently that there was no connection whatever between the two forms of sleeping sickness.

In Africa sleeping sickness is caused by the bite of a fly, and the results are often fatal. At first the victim appears to have malaria, and within four or five months they are unable to shake off an intense drowsiness which gradually settles upon them for longer and longer periods of time. If the disease can be broken up before this period, there is little hope, though often the victim lingers for three or four years. It comes on slowly and lasts a long time. The medical missionary is doing a great deal of good preaching the gospel of hygiene, which will go a great way towards stopping the spread of that dread disease in Africa.

"The disease called sleeping sickness in America is not alarming, except that it is new and somewhat strange. But it only lasts a few weeks, and the patient nearly always recovers and, often, is stronger and better for the experience. It appears to be rather a form of nervous prostration caused by great physical exhaustion or overstrained nerves. But the two sleeping sicknesses are not in the least alike in any of their symptoms; and if American had seen as many cases of the real thing as I have in Africa, they would not worry at all over the disease in their own country."

Remember that the highest type of man fears nothing, is deterred by nothing, asks for nothing, but demands what he needs as his right; in short, he dominates both things and things.

CLINTON PROPOSES COTTON WAREHOUSE

Thousand Farmers Met Yesterday To Hear Prominent Speakers

Clinton, April 5.—Over a thousand cotton farmers met in the court house here today to consider the cotton situation. Addresses were made by C. D. Orrell, chairman of the North Carolina Cotton Association; S. H. Hobbs, of the State Cotton Committee; L. A. Bethune, president of the Bank of Clinton; and Hon. Marion Butler.

The meeting was enthusiastic for holding and resolved to build a cotton warehouse. Over three thousand dollars were subscribed and committees were appointed to solicit stock for a $25,000 warehouse and to report on April 20th when the warehouse corporation is to be organized.

CHINESE USE CUP OF TEA AS A PACIFIER INSTEAD OF FISTS

Professor in Oriental University Says Talk of "Yellow Peril" is Creature of Yellow Journalism

"All of this talk about the 'yellow peril' is a creature of yellow journalism. There is absolutely nothing to it," declared Prof. R. D. Smart, who for fifteen years has been a professor in Soochow University, China. Dr. Smart is now in America on furlough, and while here is assisting in the Centenary Campaign of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

The University at Soochow is one of the many educational institutions of that church in foreign countries.

"The Chinese are the most peace-loving people in the world. When the rest of us get angry, we challenge our enemy to a duel with properly loaded guns. When a Chinaman has cause for anger, he challenges his enemy to drink tea with him; and there, over the quaint, handleless cups, the two arbitrate and thrash the contention out in words. The idea of a 'yellow peril' is absurd. The Chinese will keep the peace with us as long as we will with them, and longer."

When Dr. Smart was asked if he accounted for this peaceful attitude of China because of their religion, he shook his head.

"No, I think their religion has had nothing to do with it. It is just that the Chinese, as a people, have lived so close together for so long a time since they have come to understand each other rather thoroughly. And since they expect to continue their existence together for ages and ages, they have decided to spend that existence in peace—that's all. And this desire for peace has grown with them through generations until today the Chinese are the most peace-loving nation on earth."

If you want to spend an hour of real pleasure, and at the same time help a most worthy cause, do not fail to attend the concert to be given by the Oxford Singing Class.
