LETTER TO SCHOOL TRUSTEES OF COUNTY

The letter printed below has been mailed from the office of the County Superintendent to the school trustees of the county. We are printing it to help give publicity to these meetings and we are asked to urge any citizen in the county to attend any meeting if they desire to do so. These meetings are for the public as well as the trustees.

Dear Sir: It appears that there should be a definite understanding of the new school legislation as possible before the people let their property for taxation this spring. This is especially important to the districts having a local tax. We wish to meet all the school trustees and any others who wish to attend and discuss these matters and give an opinion on the same as possible as to the amount of money that will be available next term for each school in the county. The local trustees with their people in each district can then decide as to their additional needs and methods for supplying them. We know this is a heavy season but we see no other way to adjust these important matters before the property must be listed for taxation. For the convenience of the people I will be at the places as indicated below and the trustees should attend at the places they wish. It will be much better for the trustees of any given school to attend at the same place. I shall be at these places on new time and the work will begin at the time indicated.
Tuesday, April 22, at 9:30 o'clock, at Dunn in Wilson's building.
Tuesday, April 22, at 1:30 o'clock, at Coats in school building.
Tuesday, April 22, at 4:30 o'clock, at Angler in school building.
Wednesday, April 23, at 9:30 o'clock at Chatsworth in school building.
Wednesday, April 23, at 1:30 o'clock at Colchester in school building.
Thursday, April 24, at 9:30 o'clock at Manners in school building.
Thursday, April 24, at 1:30 o'clock at Olivian in school building.
Thursday, April 24, at 4:30 o'clock at Coats in school building.
Friday, April 25, at 10 o'clock at office in Lillington.
We want to urge that every trustee in the county and any others who wish to attend one of these matters. School finances will be on a very different basis next year and the matters to be discussed at these meetings are exceedingly important. We shall be prompt at these places so the farmers will lose as little time from their farms as possible and do not forget that the time of the meetings will be new time.

ENTERPRISE FOR DUNN

The plant of the Dunn Hardware Manufacturing Co. was sold yesterday and was purchased by the Seminoles. The purchasers propose to put in an up-to-date mixing plant, for the mixing of fertilizers, and will establish an office in Dunn for the purpose of handling their popular phosphates which have been used for several years by some of the leading farmers of this section. The new company propose to give to our farmers and business men an opportunity to join with them in an effort to make this plant mutually beneficial and a credit and great convenience to the people of Dunn and vicinity. If you are interested in the success of the plant and want to get in closer touch with its promoters, Mr. J. E. York, will be glad to talk the matter over with you.

HOLD SERVICE FOR MIDDLE CREEK'S DEAD

Fayette Springs, April 16.—The citizens of the community have reached the 25th anniversary of the death of a memorial service for the boys who went over from Middle Creek township and who did not return, on Easter Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, in the school auditorium. The list of Middle Creek's heroes will number four or five, one of whom was awarded, posthumously, the distinguished service cross for bravery in action. Grants of honor will be to the relatives of the deceased soldiers, and the boys who left the township to enter the service. The letter will read in uniform and march to the schoolhouse in a body.
Rev. B. R. Lacy, loved for his services in peace as well as in war, has accepted the invitation to conduct the service, and the meeting will also be a welcome home to Chaplain Lacy, the fighting parson of the 115th. In accordance with the invitation, Chaplain Lacy writes: "I have the greatest honor in offering you people, only a heart full of love for all who died on the fields of France and for all who cherish their memory."

DEATH OF MRS. BESSIE LEE

Mrs. Bessie Lee, widow of Mr. Gaston Lee, died in Wilson Sunday evening, April 13, at 8 o'clock. She went from her home in Benson on Wednesday and was taken to the hospital. The operation well and seemed to be progressing well until Saturday night when a change came for the worse. Sunday her case was very serious and she finally was pronounced to have died. She died rapidly until the end came. Monday morning the corpse was carried to the mortuary where she was buried in the afternoon. An immense crowd of relatives and friends attended the burial. Before her services she was Miss Bessie Lee, a daughter of John Wood. She was a very young woman, a member of the Baptist church and one of the best women of her community. There were also children born in the home, seven of whom are living. Her husband died several years ago and she had one—a true mother's part by her children—a daughter named.

THE GREAT JEWISH FEAST

"The Feast of the Passover begins Monday evening," said a Jewish citizen yesterday. "Passover (Pesach) is the seven-day festival observed by the Jew in the early spring in commemoration of the exodus from Egypt. In ancient Jewish life, it was the first of the three Pilgrim festivals, upon which every male Jew was required to present himself in Jerusalem. Although the Passover has certain features in common with the universal spring festival it is its historical significance which gives it lasting vitality. It is the independence day of the Jew, an event which became fundamental in all his thinking, too, as evidenced by the frequent reference to the great deliverance. The festival is ushered in by a family service, called the Seder, at which certain symbolic ceremonies are observed. Each participant—and the invited is privileged to sit at the table that night—is required to drink four cups of wine, in memory of the four promises made by the Eternal to redeem Israel from bondage. On the table are the unleavened cakes (matzo) the skin-bone of a lamb (roasted on the coal), commemorating the Paschal sacrifice, a roasted leg of lamb, symbolizing the Paschal sacrifice, and a bitter herb, symbolizing the bitter with which the Egyptian made the lives of the fathers, and bitter herbs (Maror) reminiscent of the unhappy days in Egypt. "In song and story, the tale of the oppression and the deliverance is rehearsed. Psalms of thanksgiving (Hallel), strike the key-note of the happy occasion. The services, interrupted for the family dinner, close with a number of merry folk-songs, expressive of the character of the festival, unleavened bread is eaten instead of the usual leaven. In orthodox homes, great care is taken that all traces of leaven be removed before the beginning of the festival, and Sets of dishes, otherwise unused, are provided. "Services are held in the synagogues and sermons preached in keeping with the thoughts of the festival. Excerpts from, or, in some cases, the whole of the book of The Song of Songs are read."—Charlotte Observer, 12th.

A MOTHER'S GRATITUDE Many a Mother in Dunn Appreciates the Following. Invited to the City of Durham on Friday, April 25th.

MAJ. PARKER VISITS PARENTS Harnett Officer Has Made Command.

Many a strong man and many a healthy woman has much for which to thank mother. The care taken during the danger point and the nursing of children are honored with inconspicuous of urine, and inability to retain it is oftentimes called a habit. It is not always the children's fault; in many cases the difficulty lies with the kidneys, and can be readily righted. A Dunn mother tells how she nursed her child. Mrs. L. P. Surles, 510 E. Broad St., says: "About two years ago my little daughter was suffering with her kidneys. The child had no control over the action of the kidneys and caused me a lot of trouble. I gave her different kidney remedies, but nothing seemed to help her. Finally I started giving her Doan's Kidney Pills and they improved her condition in a short time. After she had used a few boxes, she was completely relieved of the trouble." Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Surles had.
