National Unrest Due to Superficial Causes, He Says in Annual Message

HIGH COST OF LIVING IS TROUBLING FACTOR

Failure to Arrive at a Just and Perma. nent Settlement of War Problems Underlies Whole Trouble, President Tells Congress-Special Message Coming Later

Washington, Dec. 2 .- Diversified legislative program to restore a peacetime business status, revise the tax system, curb unrest, reduce the cost of living and rectify labor and farm-President Wilson today in his message to the new session of Congress.

The President asked for new tariff laws based on the nation's changed relation to the rest of the world, augrested that the income and excess profits tax schedules be simplified, advocated steps to improve rural conditions and promote production, and declared for a "genuine democratization of industry" to protect both labor and capital. and capital.

The railroad problem he reserved for a future message, and he made no statement of his intentions regarding the peace treaty or Mexico. Many of his recommendations were the same as those submitted to the special session last spring and several of them are embraced in legislation already being formulated in the two houses.

To meet the cost of living the President asked extension of the war-time food control bill, federal regulation of cold storage, readjustment of food fransportation, and establishment of a system of federal licensing for all corporations engaged in interstate commerce.

Causes of unrest Temporary.

He declared the causes of unrest to be superficial and temporary, and made his only reference to the senate's failure to ratify the peace treaty in saying that restlessness was due largely to the nation's hesitation in demanding its peace policy. The federal government, he declared, should be aread with full authority The Things of the instructive and entertaining matters dealing with every human interest, have brought about an auction market for newsprint paper which has carried its price above the level of samity, do therefore:

Resolve that the Southern Newspaper Publishers association in special convention assembled, urges its membership to make an carnest effort to reduce newsprint consumption, beginning at once and continuing through 1920, at a rate of at least 10 per cent, as compared with the consumption for July, August, September and October of this year. The association recommends that all the publishers of the south in each competitive area cooperate to the fullest possible extent to the end that every practical method of conservation of newsprint and all other papers made from wood pulp may be employed.

The association recognizes the fact that the necessary conservation cannot be accomplished except by the reduction of the size of newspapers or a reduction recommende that conservation be accomplished except by the recomplished except by the reduction. The association recommends that conservation be accomplished chiefly by a reduction in the number of pages printed, the number of editions issued, the size of newspapers or a reduction, space for seading matter and illustrations, space for advertising and increase in subscription rates with a view to covering the cest of white paper and the expense of delivery to the subscriber.
