

MUCH INTEREST IN REVIVAL MEETING

Large Crowds Assemble at the Methodist Church to Hear Noted Evangelist

Unusual crowds have gathered to hear the excellent singer and dynamic evangelist at each service.

Tuesday night the message emphasized the "Crooked Business Man," the "Gossiping Tongue" and "Folks Who Won't Forgive" as three of the great stumbling blocks in the organized church of today.

Wednesday night the theme again was a subject close to the evils of our day. This subject was "The Man Who Don't Pay His Debts."

Thursday night the preacher spoke on "The Trail of the American Boy." The folks were there; the message was fearless and persuasive.

Friday night the theme will be "Missing Life's Opportunity." Sunday morning the question will be asked, "What's the Matter With the Church?"

The main part of the church will be reserved for men at the Sunday night service.

AMERICAN LEGION WILL DELIVER AN ULTIMATUM

Officials of Soldiers' Organization Will Demand That Congress Do One Thing or the Other

Washington, May 21.—The executive committee of the American legion will deliver a virtual ultimatum tomorrow night to the Republican caucus of the house and will demand that Congress act, one way or another, and without further delay.

After an all-day session here today the executive committee reached the conclusion that the bonus question has hung fire long enough and a final and direct answer will be asked of Congress.

Major H. S. Barrett, of Baltimore, said resolutions protesting against further delay will be dispatched to the Republican caucus tomorrow.

"We intend to ask Congress to act one way or another," said Major Barrett tonight.

"Since our meetings in March we have taken another poll of the membership of the American legion. We find that membership overwhelmingly is in favor of adjusted compensation legislation."

COUNTRY HAS COME TO SENSE AGAIN

Banker Says Banks, Government and Public All Getting Sane Once More

Washington, May 20.—Washington is full of comforting bankers and federal reserve board and treasury officials.

A sharp change in the treasury bulletin indicates that how the country was carried away, into an orgy of buying and speculation after the war.

Then a tremendous expansion of the commercial paper held by banks and other financial institutions had become $14,000,000,000.

Public officials will not admit that the bankers of the country and the government are leading them generally agreed that at last they are bent upon stopping inflation.

Both the treasury and the federal reserve board are using to draw the distinction during the period of reconstruction that is now in progress.

It is not thought that anything has shown great capacity to absorb such bonds, probably have taken $4,000,000,000 which were held by banks outright or for loans in the last year.

The transportation situation in the only serious weakness. The tie-up tends to produce a double inflation, causing the extension of loans on the other.

ROBBERS AT HERTFORD CARRY MAN'S SAFE AWAY

Take it to Woods, Open it and Steal $1,800 in Cash and a Handsome Gold Watch

Hertford, May 19.—News has reached here that a big robbery occurred at Belvidere, a little village in Perquimans county, 10 miles northwest of here, Sunday night.

Four strange men who could have been anything from yeggs to come of Lenin's worst "reds" were seen here Sunday during the day.

They were seen at Belvidere during the early part of the night; therefore it is assumed that they are the ones who committed the robbery.

Mr. Chappell discovered the robbery early Monday morning and at that time he could see plainly the fresh automobile tracks; so he took his own car and began pursuit.

It is not thought that anything has shown great capacity to absorb such bonds, probably have taken $4,000,000,000 which were held by banks outright or for loans in the last year.

MAX GARDNER HAS A STRENUOUS DAY

Dress Over 200 Miles Through Three Counties and Made Three Speeches

Fayetteville, May 19.—Max Gardner, candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial, finished one of the most strenuous days of his whirlwind campaign here tonight.

Mr. Gardner was received by good crowds at all three places.

In his Fayetteville address the Democratic governor stated that the issue in this campaign is not whether or not to have a few self-constituted autocrats, representing a small minority, should dominate and control the policies of the state.

Mr. Gardner reiterated his denial of being an enemy of organized labor, but emphatically asserted that he refused to allow either capital or labor to write his platform.

He said that while these labor leaders were attacking him for opposing the Weaver child labor law he felt they were keeping absolutely silent in criticism of Mr. Page, who, in Congress, voted against the Keating child labor bill, thereby showing their insincerity.

The Shelby candidate declared emphatically that he was stronger today than ever before in his political career and that his faith in the justice and fairness of the laboring people who are resenting the efforts of those who are trying to deliver their votes to him proud of the North Carolina workmen who never want anything but a square deal.

REPORT OF GRAND JURY

To The Honorable W. M. Bond, Judge Presiding:

We, the Grand Jury for the May Term, 1920, of Harnett Superior Court, respectively make the following report:

1. We have inquired diligently into all bills brought to our attention and have made returns accordingly.

2. We have inspected all the offices in the courthouse and find all of them in excellent shape.

3. We have inspected the county home and find it in good condition, except that the porch floor needs a few new boards in it and that new plastering is needed in most of the rooms.

4. We beg to make the following recommendations:

(a) That the vault in the office of the Register of Deeds be enlarged.

(b) That a janitor be employed at a reasonable and living wage for the sole purpose of keeping the offices in the courthouse, the courtroom, and the courthouse grounds in a sanitary neat and clean order.

(c) That the privy belonging to the courthouse be done away with and a new, modern, up-to-date outdoor closet replace it.

(d) That a heating plant be installed to heat the courthouse and jail.

Respectfully submitted, J. E. ELLIOTT, Sr., Foreman. K. P. BUTLER, Clerk.

EAST CAROLINA OFFICIALS RAID MONKEY RUN OUTFITS

Beaufort, May 19.—Revenue Officers Hutchins, Montague, Ramsey and Long, assisted by Sheriff Thomas paid their respects to the moonshiners in this section this week.

They captured a 150-gallon still and about 25 gallons of whiskey in Morris township. They have evidence as to the owner and will make an arrest in a few days.

Tuesday they went over the Craven county line and brought in another 150-gallon still and destroyed three barrels of moonshine. Moonshiners have been active in this county in recent months.

The agricultural population, says Cato, produces the bravest men, valiant soldiers, and a class of citizens the least given of all to evil deeds.

SUDAN TEMPLE HAS A BIG CEREMONIAL

Goldboro Entertains Nobles of Mystic Shrine in Festive Style

Goldboro, May 20.—Bobbing for and spectacular costumes have held full sway in this city last night when the Nobles of Sudan Temple of the Mystic Shrine, who picked their tents here yesterday morning, proceeded to take full possession of the city.

Local seekers after knowledge and their induction into the mysticism of the Ancient Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine furnished much amusement and entertainment last night to those who have never trod the red hot sands. There was just one injunction the Nobles lay down for the observers of those who would be brethren, candidates, of course, receiving a great deal of free advice:

"Face the music like a man who played in Sousa's band—just once. Stand up, bold as a lion, brave as a soldier marrying a red-headed coon. If the camel walks on you, pretend that you expected nothing less and that you like it. When the Recorder takes your cash, just throw him a handful of bank notes. Above and beyond all, don't get fresh!"

Big Parade Feature

This morning ordinary South-day Goldboro was again transformed into a festival of fun, spectacular and colorful, when a long line of Shrines, Arab Patrol, and band, dignitaries and ladies paraded up Main street and thousands of spectators lined the sidewalks.

The parade, which started at a quarter mile, the band, and the Shrines of the Sudan Temple, but to most people a little better, than the parade of the Shrines, which was the main feature of the parade.
