A. Bradley Godwin was a visitor to Raleigh yesterday.

Mrs. J. L. Conrad, of Durham, is here to visit Mrs. James Fearing.

R. C. Godwin, of New Bern, is here to visit his father, Wiley Godwin.

Miss Zilpha Handley, of Goldsboro, is here to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Pope.

H. P. Turnage, of Smithfield, is here to visit his cousin, J. Walter Turnage.

Mrs. Bradley Godwin left yesterday for Wilmington to spend several days with relatives.

Owen Odum and J. L. Levinson, of Coats, were here to attend Recorder's Court Thursday.

Thomas N. Thaxton returned home yesterday after spending several days in South Carolina.

Mrs. U. S. Page returned yesterday from Robeson County, where she had been visiting relatives.

R. O. Primrose returned Tuesday from Morehead City where he had spent several days of his vacation.

Rev. B. F. Parker, pastor of the Methodist church at Duke, has gone to Parkton to spend a short vacation.

Miss Isaac Inock, who has been visiting Mrs. J. Frank Hatts for several days, has returned to her home in Norfolk.

Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Stewart, of Lillington, were here this week to visit Mrs. Stewart's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Crockett.

Mrs. E. M. Hoyle and children who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Smith, have returned to their home at Cornhus.

Mrs. Virgie Warren and Miss Pearl Jennings returned Tuesday night from New York, where they had been visiting friends for several days.

Ben Johnson, Kentucky mule and horse dealer, returned to Dunn last night after spending the summer in Kentucky. He will repeat his barn here in the near future.

Ed B. Warren is quite sick at his home near Dunn. His confinement is delaying work on the racetrack at the Fair Grounds, but it is hoped that he will soon be able to be out and superintend the work.

Old P. Shell, crossing clerk of the North Carolina House of Representatives, arrived home last night from Raleigh. He will resume his duties with the Department of Commerce of the Federal Government at once.

M. M. Driver and S. C. Godwin have formed a partnership to continue the grocery business heretofore conducted by Mr. Driver in Ellis Ave. Mr. Godwin was for sometime connected with the Johnson Brothers sales force.

Captain and Mrs. I. M. Reams and their daughter, Miss Julia Howard Reams, returned Wednesday night from a tour of the mountain country of Western Carolina. They were away for about two weeks and enjoyed the trip immensely.

Mrs. Bettie Vinson, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Pope, has returned to her home in Goldsboro.

Rev. A. G. Donner, who is preaching in the camp meeting at Falcon, will preach at the Free Will Baptist Church next Sunday night.

Bud Hawk Jernigan is preparing to build a large garage and automobile service station on the Williams lot in East Broad Street which he recently purchased. Material is already being placed. J. Walter Turnage has the contract for concrete work.

W. C. Martin, in charge of the new municipal artesian well project, left Tuesday night for his home in Richmond to be treated for an ailment which incapacitated him for work. Lawrence Armistead, who had been assisting Mr. Martin, has assumed charge of the work and will continue the drilling until Mr. Martin returns.

The bridge over the Cape Fear at Lillington collapsed Wednesday when a truck load of brick was crossing it. One side of an entire span gave way, but was arrested by the lower pillars. The truck was jammed by an abutment just as it was about to fall into the river, according to information reaching here. The damage will be repaired immediately.

J. J. Handley, of Charlotte, a member of the Oasis Temple band, was here this morning to visit Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lee. Mr. Handley accompanied the band to Portland and was in the party which attended the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Lee in Los Angeles. This was his first visit to Dunn and he was much impressed by its spirit of enterprise.

Miss Pauline Hassell, of Edenton, arrived this afternoon to visit Mrs. I. M. Reams. She will spend a week here. Miss Hassell was for several terms a teacher in the primary department of the Dunn Graded Schools and was one of the most popular young women with the children over to teach them. Mrs. Reams extends a special invitation to visit Miss Hassell to all of her former pupils.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hood will leave tonight on a tour that will take them to Washington, Niagara Falls, Montreal, Quebec, New York and other points of interest before they return to Dunn several weeks hence. They will visit Lake Champlain and cruise on Lake Ontario and the St. Lawrence while away. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Pope will accompany them as far as Niagara Falls.

The plant of the Dunn Granite Works has resumed operations after having been closed down for repairs made necessary by the depreciation of some machinery who cut most of the pneumatic machinery to pieces last week. One of the first jobs to be undertaken by the plant is a monument for the grave of the late John Henry Pope. This is to be one of the most elaborate in the local cemetery, the stone alone weighing more than 11,000 pounds.

Casper Warren, who has been taking a post graduate course in law under Professor Guiley at Wake Forest College, arrived home this week and has taken a position with Clifford and Townsend. Mr. Warren was licensed to practice law in 1917, but elected to continue his studies until he had mastered the profession. His many friends here will be glad to learn that he has decided to locate in Dunn. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Warren.

E. B. Calbreth has returned from a visit to Sovern Springs. Mrs. Calbreth will remain there for several days.

Mrs. Boss Mangum Brewer, of Thomasville, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Turlington at their home, South Hill, near Duke.

Typhoid fever has made its appearance at Duke, according to statement just issued by J. S. Mitchener, State epidemiologist, in a telegram to the mayor warning him of the danger of the disease's presence. He states further that the typhoid treatment administered free at Duke Friday and here Saturday will prevent spread of the disease.

George K. Grantham, member of the Legislature from Harnett, returned home yesterday. While he was attending the Legislature he enlisted the aid of Tom Warren, secretary of the State Democratic Executive Committee, in the effort to get Governor Cox to address visitors to the Dunn Fair in October. He said that Mr. Warren was really very anxious to have the Democratic nominee visit Dunn and thought he would be successful in his efforts to get him. Mr. Grantham has also written Ed Fox and Secretary Josephus Daniels to get their aid in the undertaking.
