Mrs. J. L. Wade and two sons, Morris and Lloyd, left Thursday afternoon for Hendersonville to spend several weeks with Mrs. Wade's mother, Mrs. A. E. Morris.

As a matter of fact both clubs had a right to believe in their ability to grab the contest, for both teams are made up of good, scrapping ball players. Holiday has been scouting around with an eye for another good twirler. Not that he has much kick coming to his present stock called Ballentine, but it's a mighty good idea to have at least two real good slabsmen for ready use any time.

Ballentine was hit timely in the last game, but at that lacked a whole lot from pitching a poor ball game. He is usually good in the pinches, and he possesses good control, a nice head, and a great deal of stuff. Robertson, the big 190, that pitched Dunn to a beautiful victory over Lillington on the Fourth was in town yesterday. Robertson is a traveling man and has little time to put on a uniform and uncork dazzling curves.

Argument between the managers of the ball club and the officers of the fair association with regard to the use of the fairgrounds for a playing park has subsided. It was all a very useless and unneeded formality. Dunn will continue to play ball in the fairgrounds, and the club will pay the fair association ten per cent of the gate receipts for use of the playing field.

Which is a very reasonable and fair proposition for both sides. The fair association reserves the right to stage colored games or any other game in the park when the club has no game scheduled. Dunn still has a chance to cop the rag if the rained out games are played off. But in order to do so we must defeat Four Oaks, and Benson must defeat Selma.

The local aggregation ought to be in good shape for a rush through the second half, barring hard luck and injuries. But if the team does not practice and is shifted in every game little can be expected from it. The team that played Four Oaks last Monday ought to have been a winner but playing together for the first time, no team work was in evidence. Bothene is a valuable asset to the club, but he can be expected to do only his share. And if no more home runs come from Mastick, above all, don't grumble.

Bill Newberry fully redeemed himself last Monday for his errors in the game before. He played a nice holding game and slashed out a double that came near doing damage. His brother, Midget Newberry, who for some time has guarded the key-stone sack wars on the bench, Midget can't hit, which is his biggest drawback. For all that, the midget second sacker may come into his own at any minute. He knows a lot of baseball and has a great deal of form on the diamond.

quality work they have been doing for the past two weeks caused Clinton to be lured into the formation of a league with Faison, Wallace and Wilmington. The season opened today with Clinton at Faison for two games. Each team will play four games per week and the season will run until September.

Clinton is fortunate in the fact that there are quite a number of farmer boys in easy reach who can play good ball, but it seems to be a fact that they can not always attend the games. Their natural love of the game makes them good pleaders with their bosses and so far they have been on hand. But fodder pulling is soon here and four days absence from the job may be too much and the team may have to suffer because of their absence. But Clinton is in and in to stay, and unless something unforeseen like the above should happen she will have the cheapest as well as the best team in the league.

Proposals for School Site Invited The Board of Trustees of the Dunn Graded School invite proposals and suggestions as to the location of the new Grammar School Building to be located at some point East of the Railroad in or near Dunn. It is considered inadvisable to accept less than a full city block as a site for this building.

DISARMAMENT IDEA GETS APPROVAL OF POWERS CONCERNED

Additional Pledges of Co-Operation Received By The Washington Government JAPAN ONLY NATION NOT HEARD FROM ON MATTER Governmental Red Tape Believed To Be Cause Of Delayed Expression From Land Of The Mikado; Favorable Reply Expected From China Soon.

Washington, July 13.—Additional pledges of co-operation reached today in response to President Harding's proposal for an international conference on limitation of armaments and other world problems. Definite acceptance of the President's invitation to participate were received at the State Department during the day from Great Britain and Italy, while informal advices came to official circles here that a favorable reply from China might be expected in the near future.

France having previously expressed her willingness to take part, the only invited power from which no sort of an expression had been received tonight was Japan. Administration officials were confident of an acceptance from the Tokyo government, however, and in Japanese quarters it was indicated that the delay undoubtedly was due to the formalities of consultation among various branches of the Japanese government, which are necessary in the decision of an important public question.

State Department officials would not reveal whether any formal communications on the subject had been received from governments not invited to participate, although it was understood that no advice of an adverse nature, at least, had reached the department from abroad. So far as the reports here indicate, sentiment abroad is content with the President's decision to have the membership of the conference limited to the big five powers and China.

No Meeting in London Press dispatches indicating that some British statesmen desired to have the preliminaries of the conference held in London were not taken seriously either in British quarters here or by officials of the administration. It was pointed out that the British government had accepted definitely the President's proposal for holding the meeting here, and that a later qualification from London was scarcely to be expected after the discussion had reached such a positive stage. Among high American officials there was manifest a strong sentiment that the whole conference should be held here, both on account of the facility of business such a plan would make possible and because of a feeling that America was entitled to be the host, since she had initiated the movement and issued the invitation. It was apparent also that convening of the meeting on American soil, would be reckoned here as giving the administrations an opportunity better to keep in touch with the pulse of American public opinion and more easily to marshal public sympathy and support for the efforts of the negotiators.

Ford THE UNIVERSAL CAR ANNOUNCEMENT Mr. Edsel B. Ford, president of the Ford Motor company, gives out the following statement: "Another reduction has been made in the list price of all types of Ford cars and the Ford truck to take effect immediately. The list prices, f. o. b. Detroit, are now as follows: Touring Car $415.00, Runabout $370.00, Coupe $695.00, Sedan $760.00, Chassis $345.00, Truck-Chassis $495.00, Tractor $625.00. The big reductions last fall were made in anticipation of low material costs which we are now getting the benefit of and this fact together with increased manufacturing efficiency and the unprecedented demand for Ford cars, particularly during the past 3 months permitting maximum production, have made another price reduction possible immediately. Ford business for April and May, 1921, was greater by 56,633 cars and trucks than for the same two months in 1920; in fact, the demand has been even greater than the supply, so that our output has been limited, not by unfilled orders, but by manufacturing facilities. The Fordson tractor is still being sold at less than the cost to produce on account of the recent big price reductions, and it is impossible, therefore, to make any further cut in the price of the tractor. Can you afford to go without a car any longer when Fords are selling at these low prices? There is no reason now why you should delay purchasing a Ford car, Ford truck, or Fordson tractor. We will gladly advise you concerning the delivery of a Fordson tractor or the particular type of car in which you are interested. Just phone us or drop us a card. J. W. THORNTON DUNN. NORTH CAROLINA
