MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR JUSTICE ALLEN

Traditional Honor Will Be Paid In Supreme Court Next Friday

Following a custom that was adopted early in the history of the State, the legal profession of North Carolina will on next Friday morning in the courtroom of the State Supreme Court, meet to pay tribute to the memory of the late Associate Justice, William H. Allen, whose death occurred last Thursday afternoon.

Twenty-nine years have passed since similar exercises were held in tribute to the memory of a deceased member of the court, in 1892 Chief Justice Merriman and Associate Justice J. J. Davis died that year while the court was in session and the memorial service was held.

In keeping with the custom, the memorial resolution is offered by a member of the bar, and upon acceptance in turn presents the memorial to the court, and it is written into the records as a permanent memorial. This custom has been in force since the first death occurred after the formation of the Supreme Court.

Lawyers from every section of the State have already indicated their intention to attend the service, and it is expected that several hundred members of the profession will be here for the occasion.

Clinton, Sept. 11.—One of the largest attended Odd Fellow meetings that has ever been held here was held at a recent meeting of Rev. J. L. Everett, who has been one of the most ardent supporters of Odd Fellowship in this section and is beloved by all, and who has served as a minister in this community for the past ten years and is leaving for service in New York State.

FIRE BURNS SMALL HOUSE NEAR TOWNSEND HEIGHTS

While Occupants Attended Church Service Completely Destroyed

While the occupants were attending a revival meeting, a small house located behind the residence of E. O. Townsend on Townsend Heights, occupied by Walter Jones, colored, caught fire Friday night and was completely destroyed.

It took a little over an hour with the fire company fighting the entire time for the house to burn down, the blaze covering the chimney rapidly.
