

fessional director supplied by John B. Rogers Producing Co. In fact, cv-erything seems to be in readiness and on the surface it looks as though the play could be given tomorrow night if necessary. However, there are many little finishing touches that must be given a big production like this even after players know their parts. All awkward movements must be eliminated, groups must move a-bout quickly and quictly-and deli-cats adjustments of dress count for much. This is all included in what the director calls "professional finish" and is what goes far to distinguish Katcha-Koo from other amateur pro-fessional" ciasa. These set sale opens Saturday and those who have already bought tick-ets from committee or performers aboud these in ind that these should now be exchanged for reserved seat coupons. Those intorested should not fail to wask source of spin-tering the state of spin-ter the sum thread of the should not have been complete without them. The cast: coupons. Those intorested should not fail to wask source and going the complete without them. The cast: coupons. Those intorested should not now be exchanged for reserved seat compone. Those interested should not fail to make reservations early—as capacity houses are assured.

Japanese to 10, cach ship to be re-tained being specifically named. That during the agreement no cap-thal cash be laid down except under a detailed replacement scheme in-

(From the Washington Herald.) And the people honored Woodrow Wilson. Pompously-clad persons and grims <text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

Suries Garage Ready For Business Suries Garage and Filling Station, the automobile service establishment recently purchased by William P. Suries from B. H. Jernigan, is ready for business and is fully manned with competent mechanics, according to an announcement made this weak by Joseph H. Jernigan, manager of the concern.

recently purchased by William P. Surles from B. H. Jernigan, is ready for business and is fully manned with competent mechanics, according to an announcement made this weak by Joseph H. Jernigan, manager of the concern. The garage is situsted in East Broad street, between Magnolia and Elm Avenue and is one of the best equipped in the State. It has an in and out filling station and many oth-er convenient features. Jim Smith will head the mechanical force and For the present the concern will confine its operations to the repair-ing of automobiles and the sale of tires, tabes and other accessories and table to the state of the state of tires, tabes and other accessories and table to the state of the sale of tires, tabes and other accessories and table to the state of the sale of tires, tabes and other accessories and table to the state of the sale of table to the state of the sale of tires, tabes and other accessories and table to the state of table t

Bobby Bashful ____ Earl Westbrook Very Bold _____ Craven Excel Nover Wed _____ Craven Excel Cant Catch _____ Bill Clifton Willie Never _____ Mr. Bullard U. R. Lovely _____ Bob Warren Never Marry _____ Murd Dowd Jeremiah Honpock ____ Dick Taylor Chorns Giels Misses Rava Jernings, Handerson tires, tubes and other accessories and gas and oil. Later, however, it is pro-bable that it will take the agency for a line of dependable cars. for Never

Miss Hangabood Leaves Miss Idala Hangabood, who has been in Dunn for several weaks di-recting rohesrals for "The Microbe of Love" which was presented at the Metropolitan Friday night, left Sat-urday morning for her naxt engage-ment. Miss Hangabook made many friends in Dunn and gave to the town the best local talent production ever staged here. Chorus Girls Misses Rava Jernigan, Handerson, Ella Primrose, Ruby Crockett, Ag-hess Ellis, Florence Cooper, Currin, Helen Vaughn, Mrs. James Parthing, Mrs. Oscar Strickland. Cupida-Louise Fitzgerald, Doris Coltrane, Margaret Townsend.