Dr. I. F. Hicks is in Raleigh today. "Chicken" Ezell was a visitor to Selma last Saturday night. Mrs. B. Q. Townsend is visiting relatives in Robeson county. Mrs. Mary Mitchell, of Raleigh, is here as a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nell S. Green. Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Hood of Selma, spent the week end here with their daughter, Mrs. Geo. T. Noel. Miss Olga Pope, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Worth M. Pope, returned today from a visit to relatives in Fayetteville. Robert L. Denning has purchased the A. Bradley Godwin home at the corner of Layton Avenue and Pope street and will move into it within the week. Miss Hannah David has returned to her home at Norfolk after having spent several days here as a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rob Swain. L. P. Surles will leave Wednesday night for Baltimore, where he will enter Johns Hopkins hospital for an operation. Mr. Surles will probably be away for several weeks. The little son of H. G. Horn, of Duke, was struck and painfully hurt last Saturday afternoon by an automobile driven by Joel G. Layton. His injuries are not considered real serious. Will Butler and his associated fiddlers and banjoints will stage a "to do" down at Shady Grove Academy next Saturday night. In addition to good music they will furnish an oyster supper. They invite everybody to attend, promising all an enjoyable time. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Smith, who live six miles south of Dunn, took their daughter to a Richmond, Va., hospital Monday for an acute attack of appendicitis. They were accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. I. F. Hicks, who will remain in Richmond until after the operation. Ellis Goldstein, president and general manager of the Goldstein Company here and president of the Wilson Company of Angier, has returned from a two-week's visit to northern markets where he purchased a large stock of spring and summer goods for the two stores. Sam Fleishman, Jr., returned last Friday from Baltimore where he had spent several days with relatives. While in Baltimore Mr. Fleishman selected a large and beautiful stock of spring and summer goods for the woman's wear department of the Fleishman Brothers store here. Warm Agreements are expected to assume his duties here tomorrow. Mr. Nathan will serve in Averadboro, Duke and Grove townships. He was employed for this service by the Chamber of Commerce after the board of county commissioners refused to appropriate the funds necessary for his employment by the county. Spring vegetable shipments from Georgia and Florida are heavy. The first "double-header" pulling this season's products to the north passed through Dunn yesterday. Prices for early vegetables are good and, it is said, truck farmers in the South are reaping a rich harvest. Within a few weeks those of Dunn's farmers who planted vegetables for market will be getting their share of this harvest. Because so much other important business engaged the attention of the Woman's Club at its regular weekly meeting last Friday only a short time could be given by Miss Bridge to the class in dressmaking. For this reason there will be another meeting of the class Thursday. This meeting will be divided into two sessions—morning and afternoon. All who are interested in learning the art of form-making and pattern draughting are invited to attend. The meetings will be held at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. The Fifth Avenue Shop, Inc. will open for business this week in the old Highsmith building on South Railroad avenue. The store will be under the management of Sam Thomas, who is well known to Dunn people, having been engaged in business here before. In an announcement in this issue, Mr. Thomas gives a summary of the various lines he will carry. Friday will be the opening day. next few weeks. Mr. Godwin will build a new home in the Parkway section in which the Dunn Development Company built ten nice dwellings in 1920. Those automobilists who had gotten the idea that parking regulations instituted under the regime of Chief of Police Page had been abandoned with that young gentleman's resignation from office were given another thought last week when Chief Dawson pinched twenty-one of them for fracturing of the ordinances governing such things. Chief Dawson is not so quick to carry folk to court as the former chief was, but he is just as sure if violators of the law persist in their disregard of his warnings. He will strictly enforce all traffic and speed laws and will not always let violators off with warnings. Rev. T. Sloss Guy has accepted a call to the Baptist church of Lawrenceville, Va., and has moved there from Zebulon, where he was pastor for some time. Lawrenceville is one of the most important of Virginia's smaller towns and the Baptist church

there is an important change. This call represents a step upward for former Dunn boy who has done fruitful work for the church in North Carolina. Mr. Guy has had six churches since he was ordained. In five of these he has built new churches, three of which were handsome brick structures which cost much money. He is a brother to Buck, Charles Lee and June Guy, of Dunn. Baseball is on its way. Today several youngsters were seen on their way home from school a-toting of bats. Before long we expect to see Herbert Taylor and the rest of the baseball nuts out at Fairground Field rooting for the home team—although there doesn't seem to be any such thing at present. We sure would like to see a real, honest-to-goodness amateur league formed this year. Dunn Lillington, Duke, Bunnsville, Godwin and Benson could put up a pretty fair class of ball—and there is no reason why they should not form a league. Dunn visitors to Raleigh last night report that J. Philip Sousa was not successful in his endeavor to impersonate Albrecht J. Schmidt, former leader of the Dunn Band, editor of the Benson Review, impresario of Hanner Township, private in the Canadian overseas army, private, sergeant and lieutenant in Uncle Sam's overseas forces, devourer of Teddy Vlahos lunches, entertainer of all who will listen and enemy to all Republican postoffice appointees. However, Mr. Sousa gave a very creditable performance. After he has spent a summer or so at Pinehurst—close to the "imitable Professor Schmidt"—his friends expect him to do a li' better. W. H. Faucette, Register of Deeds of Harnett County, was a visitor in Dunn today. Mr. Faucette has made no formal announcement of his candidacy for re-election, but is willing to serve the people again if they want his services. He has made himself an efficient officer and has many friends in the county who will support him again if he enters the race to succeed himself. He has the matter under consideration and will decide within the next few weeks as to whether he will make an active campaign for the nomination in the primary. Perhaps the man caught stealing movie seats wanted them to keep chewing gum at home. New Yorker who ran away after having monkey glands grafted may be out of at the zoo eating peanuts. Movie hint: A shooting star falls. A Billion Dollar War There is a war on which does not deserve the attention of the Hague Tribunal, the League of Nations or any other body which concerns itself with producing peace. It is the Billion Dollar War, the war between the princes of the tractor industry, Mr. Ford and Mr. McCormick. We call it the Billion Dollar War because the combined resources of the International Harvester Company and the Ford interests may easily reach that large round figure. General Ford was the aggressor. He crossed the frontier two weeks ago, cutting the price of his tractors from $625 to $3.95. Last week the Harvester Company reduced the price of its tractors $230 and offered to throw in, free a three furrow plow or a tractor disk harrow with each purchase. Mr. Ford says his aim is to sell a million tractors a year. Harold McCormick, who has put grand opera aside for the time being and is singing the song of business, tells his staff that the Harvester Company must outsell Ford. Consider the dazzled farmer. He stops sorting seed corn and watches the battle of the giants. Every gun fired shoots money into his pocket. He will not attempt to arbitrate. He will pick the tractor which suits his needs and his purse. A war like this may be hard on the treasury of a Ford or a McCormick, but it is a good thing for the country. Reduced prices mean bigger sales. Bigger sales mean busy factories and fewer unemployed. The money comes from the farmer, and, after passing through two or three hands, goes back to him. Tractors solve the farmhand problem. Tractors result in diversified crops. Tractors mean a bigger production of food and more to eat for everybody at lower prices. The increased use of tractors stimulates the iron and oil business. If Mr. Ford and Mr. McCormick can stand the war, who shall deprive them of their pleasure?—New York Herald. Godwin News Mr. J. H. Jones spent the week end in Micro with relatives. Mrs. D. L. Pridden, Jr., of Fayetteville, spent several days recently with her mother, Mrs. Mary Vick. Mrs. W. M. Pope was called to Atkinson, N. C., last week on account of the death of her aunt, Mrs. Woodcock. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Spell and son, Chas. Connolly spent Friday in Fayetteville, shopping. Miss Lucile McIntyre of Dunn spent the week end in Godwin with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. McIntyre. Misses Ocasque, Sammons, Butler, Godwin and Prof. Moore of the Godwin faculty spent Saturday in Fayetteville.

Mr. H. McIntyre was a business visitor in Dunn Saturday. Mrs. J. H. Jones and Misses Ruby Turner and Virginia Rhodes were shoppers in Fayetteville this week. South River challenged Godwin in a game of basketball Saturday afternoon. Godwin was defeated by a score of 47 to 2. After this game, the Smithfield team pushing on their way to play Camp Bragg dropped and played South River, the score this time being 8 to 2 in favor of the Smithfield team. Ye old Fiddlers Convention will be held at the Godwin school building Friday night, March 3rd at 7:30 o'clock conducted by W. F. Blount, of Fayetteville. Prizes will be offered for the best fiddlers. Oysters and sandwiches will be served during the evening. Proceeds to go to the benefit of the school. Admission 15 and 25 cents. Everyone come and have a good time. DUKES NEWS Duke, Feb. 23.—One of the most enjoyable events ever held in Duke was the one on Wednesday night February 22nd, when Mr. W. A. Erwin, Jr., was the guest of honor at a banquet given by the "Official Family" of No. 2 Mills, as an appreciation of the esteem they have for him as manager. Covers for twenty-seven had been laid in the recreation room of the library, the table being arranged in the shape of a large cross. The spirit of the day, Washington's Anniversary, was in evidence on every side, flags being used for decorations but one of the most attractive decorations was a miniature cherry tree at the center of the table, with the tables set down, with the hatchet beside it, just as it was when Washington made himself famous. This was the unique idea of Mrs. W. H. Coffey. When supper was announced, Misses Louise and Canolla Geddie, Gertrude Morgan, and Myrtle Woodworth, with relatives, where the guests to their seats where they found besides the place cards, copies of old favorite songs. With Miss Mabel Woodworth, accompanying on the piano, all sang "America," followed by a short prayer by Rev. N. M. McDonald. A three-course dinner was served and as the young ladies cleared the tables between the courses the guests made the welkin ring with "My Bonnie," Aunt Dinah's Quilting Party," etc. As the last course was finished, Mr. E. H. Best, superintendent, of No. 2 Mills, made the announcement that in behalf of those present, he wished to present to Mr. Erwin a token of appreciation of the good feeling that existed, in the person of Duke, who was lead in by Mrs. Tillinghast, the librarian. "Duke" proved to be a handsome English setter. Mr. Erwin responded in a few words of grateful appreciation. Mr. W. A. Erwin, of West Durham, was an invited guest, and his personality and story telling added much to the pleasure of the evening.

Duke, Feb. 20.—The plans for the rebuilding of the Episcopal church were virtually been decided upon. The new building will be either brick or brick-veneer, and will be located on the site of the old building, which was destroyed by fire January 1, 1922. Although nothing definite in regards to work has been decided upon, it is expected that work will begin at an early date. Rev. Mr. Lloyd, Episcopal clergyman of Pinehurst, conducted services at the Methodist church Sunday morning. He will hold services every first and third Sunday until further notice. W. P. Holt, Jr., student of the University, spent the week end here with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Holt. Mrs. R. M. Buis and son Roderick, Jr., spent several days last week visiting relatives near Wilson. Miss Dorothy Pfuhl, of Winston-Salem, is spending several days with Miss Ruth Greider. H. A. Pfuhl, of Winston-Salem, stopped over here Thursday with friends. Miss Thelma Parker spent the week end in Dunn, the guest of Miss Ruth Taylor. Mrs. A. C. McDonald is improving after being operated on at the Goodhope Hospital. Mrs. A. H. Harper is getting along nicely at the hospital. There have been several operations during the past week at the Goodhope Hospital. All of the patients are reported to be getting along nicely. Revival services which were to begin at the Presbyterian church Sunday have been postponed until further notice. The Rev. A. E. McQueen, of Dunn, who was to conduct them, was called to Davidson College to attend a meeting of the board of trustees. The "Go To Sunday School" epidemic has struck Duke. All of the Sunday schools in town reported a large increase in attendance from last Sunday. The Erwin Park is a mecca for visitors from surrounding towns and vicinity, several hundred of them taking advantage of the prevailing balmy spring weather, spent Sunday here. ANNOUNCEMENT —The Fifth Avenue Shop Will Open For Business— Friday, March 3, 1922 at 9 o'clock. Come and see our beautiful display. We will have special prices for the opening. This is the first store in Dunn of this kind—something Dunn has been needing for many years. We are going to do our very best to carry a fine stock for ladies and children if you give us your patronage and help us to do so. We all know Dunn is the best town in the State and are going to give the people of this town the best of its kind. Remember, we will not carry a big stock at the beginning. We have decided the best thing to do is to mix it and have an assortment of mixed stock. It is not wise to carry a big stock at the opening. After we open this store you will see something new every day. Soon as we know what our customers want, we will buy a big stock. All we ask is for you to come and see our opening. You will find our stock is new and our prices low. The time has been so short with us, we have not finished all inside work. We are expecting to make a great improvement yet. We are not going to have the name only, we are going to have the stock, too, if you will help us to do so. We are expecting to carry a full line as follows: Evening Gowns, Wedding Dresses, Silk Underwear House and Gingham Dresses, Hand-Made Waists, Kimonos and Negligees, Madeiras, Philippine Work Millinery, Coat Suits and Dresses, Corsets, Toilet Articles. Watch our ad for next week as we have some stock late in coming. Make our store headquarters for your buying. YOURS FOR BUSINESS The FIFTH AVENUE SHOP, Inc. 119 S. Railroad Ave. Dunn, N. C.
