Herace S. Freeman is spending today in Clinton.

Capt. E. S. Shaw was a business visitor in Durham today.

Mrs. Horace Freeman was a visitor in Fayetteville Monday.

W. H. Stallings, of Fayetteville, was a visitor in Dunn Sunday.

W. G. Hollingsworth of Fayetteville, is a business visitor in Dunn today.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Pope of Clayton, spent the week end here with relatives.

Dr. J. W. McLean and C. W. Spell of Godwin, were business visitors in Dunn Monday.

Kenneth F. Howard left Monday for Richmond, Va., where he will spend the week.

Joseph Parrish of Coats, one of Harnett's best farmers, was a business visitor in Dunn Monday.

A. R. Wilson, prominent druggist and insurance man of Selma, was a business visitor in Dunn Monday.

W. P. Dickey returned Monday from a trip to various cities in South Carolina and Georgia, in the interest of the Brotherhood Railway Signalmen of America, of which he is general chairman.

Mrs. J. Lloyd Wade returned the latter part of the week from Washington, D. C., where she attended the D. A. R. convention She went as Regent from the Cornelius Harnett Chapter.

Mrs. Durham Taylor returned to her home in Dunn last Friday. For the past several weeks she has been a patient in the Pittman hospital in Fayetteville. Her condition is much improved.

The Mingo school will close Thursday May 4th. Appropriate exercises are being arranged by Miss Verdie Hudson, a member of the faculty, and an interesting program will be rendered. The exercises will take place at 8:15 o'clock in the evening and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Dr. W. E. Oeltrane is in Winston-Salem this week attending the annual meeting of the North Carolina Medical Society. He went as a delegate from the Harnett County Medical Society. Dr. Halford of Lillington, is attending as alternate. Dr. W. F. Holt of Duke, is also among the medical men of Harnett who are at the meeting.

The Wesley Bible class of the Methodist Sunday school will enjoy a get-together meeting in the basement of the church Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. All members of the class are invited.

Refreshments will be served and short talks made by members of the class.

Plans for the Harnett County Training school building have been received and work will begin at once. The building will be erected under the supervision of L. F. Bailey, local contractor. The shop has been completed already and will be used as an office and storage room until the main building is ready for occupancy.

The Johnson-Taylor-Johnson Concert Trio will be the attraction at the opera house tonight. The concert is being given under the auspices of the colored graded school and the proceeds will go to the musical department. Special seats have been reserved for the white people and all are cordially invited to attend. The admission is 25 and 50 cents. This trio comes to Dunn highly recommended and has received the endorsement of the press in various cities in the country.

According to a statement made this morning by Chief Dawson, who is also tax collector for the town of Dunn, all taxes must be paid by May 1st, or they will be advertised. The town authorities have been rather lenient on the tax payers this year, but the time has come when some money must be raised and they cannot wait any longer. Those who have not paid should do so at once, and avoid embarrassment and additional expense. The limit has been reached. There is nothing left to do but pay.

D. A. R. To Meet

The Cornelius Harnett Chapter of the D. A. R. will meet with Miss Rachel Clifford, Thursday April 27th at 4 p. m. o'clock. The subject for the program will be "Women of the American Revolution," and the program committee request all members to memorize the Americans Creed printed elsewhere in this issue.

Farm Loans Coming

Secretary A. A. McDonald of the Lillington Farm Loan Association is in receipt of the following letter from Treasurer Poor of the Federal Land Bank, Columbia, S. C.:

"We take pleasure in advising that the bank as to closing loans through your association has been lifted and loans which have been withheld from closing are now being closed."

Politics

The following local political dope has been subscribed by a friend who is endowed with a trifle more nerve than the editor is boasting. He may hit the nail on the head, or he may have hit his head on a nail—no telling which. Anywhich, just so its politics, it'll be devoured by the few people hereabouts who are not candidates, and perhaps by even those who are making the "sacrifice."

Ready? Here goes:

The political pot is boiling and its steam is reaching every section, nook and corner of the old county. The flock of candidates are burning the roads and shaking the bushes and whooping them up as if each one were possessed with the presidential bee. The ring has become so full of hats that the circle must be made larger or hats made smaller. As each candidate comes in from his "swing around the circle" he brings glad news for himself, and bad, very bad news for his opponents. Each is claiming the entire vote, and very graciously permits each of his opponents to claim one vote—his own.

For the Senate, the race remains between Ross and Baggett, with neither conceding defeat. For the House, Nat Townsend and Bob Young are having a merry set-to, with the odds favoring both. For the Clerk's job, Chaffin and Taylor are fighting it out and a merry little race they are having. Sheriff Bill McArtan is without an opponent, but does not feel lonesome at all, this being by himself. For the Register's shoes, Faucette, Hockaday, Shaw and Mitchell have toed the mark (with nary a "dark horse" in sight yet) and are in full swing, with each sprinting his jet. For the Recorder's robe, Levinson, Shell, Brown and Partin have started at the double crossroads and are up and stirring with a full head of steam. The Old Reliable D. P. McDonald, chancellor of the exchequer, has encountered so far no opposition for the Auditorship. Those who would be the next County Commissioner are keeping silent in seven languages, and it looks as if the old Party will have to go into the drafting business if this important part of our county government is filled. No willing ones have as yet announced their readiness or eagerness to make the races for Surveyor or Coroner.

At this writing the fights, scraps and scabbles have been good natured, and everything aboveboard—due, perhaps, to the entry of the ladies into the electorate. The various candidates have been rubbing elbows with each other and professing all kinds of love one for the other, and saying how badly it hurts to be compelled to beat his opponent. Oh, politics, where is your sting! Oh, primary, show us thy victory!

Etc.!! — Harnett County News.

WAKE FOREST SCRUBS BEAT THE DUKE BOYS, SCORE 3 TO 2

Duke, April 24.

Most interesting games of the season were Friday afternoon, the Wake Forest scrubs defeated Duke by the score of 3 and 2. The game developed into a pretty pitcher's battle between the opposing leavers. Probably the game would have gone into extra innings had it not been for Castello's steal of home in the eighth inning. This proved to be the winning run for the visitors. There was a large crowd out to see the game and it seems as if they enjoyed it by "rooting" for the home team.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
Wake Forest 001 010 010—3 7 3
Duke ———000 101 000—2 4 4

DUNN BAND MINSTREL IS A GREAT SUCCESS

Dunn Band Minstrels Plays Return Engagement To Capacity Audience

The Dunn Band Minstrels played a return engagement in Fuquay Springs Monday night before a capacity audience. This is the second time these clever comedians have played in Fuquay Springs during the past few weeks and the return engagement was greeted by a much larger crowd than was the first. This is without question the best home talent minstrel that has ever been in these parts. It would do credit to any town who is fortunate enough to have it. Not even Neil O'Brien nor Al G. Fields could put on a more pleasing or entertaining minstrel than the one offered by these clever fellows from our neighboring town of Dunn. And the audience that packed the high school auditorium to its limit Monday evening was not made up entirely of Fuquay folks. They were here from Lillington, Holly Springs, Angier, and a big crowd from Dunn accompanied the minstrel to Fuquay Springs.

This show was brought here under the auspices of the American Legion, Fuquay Springs Post, the officers of this organization should be commended for being instrumental in getting into Fuquay Springs a show that is conspicuous for its cleanliness and clever acting on the part of those who were its very life. It is really not of the homestead calibre, but more or less of the professional kind. The actors in the various scenes acquainted themselves in professional style and if an outsider who knew nothing of the history of the show and its various actors seen it they would have no doubt thought they were in some big academy listening to the best of the present day minstrels.—Fuquay-Varins Herald.
