

DRAUGHON'S ANNUAL SUMMER SALE

J. W. DRAUGHON

Announces the most remarkable and astounding reductions yet made to close out the large stock of summer goods still remaining in his big store.

BEGINNING SATURDAY, JULY 8, 1922

I will offer at hitherto unheard of prices the entire stock of Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Furnishings, etc., bought right and originally priced to suit conditions. The reductions in this sale are surprising. Goods have not been marked so low since cotton climbed above 7c a pound. If you have any money at all, you will profit by investing it in the goods we offer during this sale.

You know that we are not accustomed to conducting sales out of season. We never have more than two each year. These always come at a time when they are most valuable to you. This sale is in keeping with our usual custom. Every article we place on sale at reduced prices is something that you need now. Look over the prices listed below. You will find much that should interest you.
