L. J. Best was a business visitor in Greensboro Saturday.

Gordon Bell spent the day in Raleigh Sunday with friends.

Miss Ethel Bell is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. M. Waters at Arapahoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Herring of Roseboro, spent the week-end here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil S. Green and Mrs. Maggie Butler spent the week end at White Lake.

Misses Margaret and Annie Lucas are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Ella Hatcher at Carpenter.

Miss Mac Reel of Arapahoe, who has been visiting Miss Pauline Bell returned home Saturday.

Mrs. Roscoe Fleming and children, of Grimesland, are here as guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. McD. Holiday.

Misses Ethel and Lois Bell and Elizabeth Jernigan have returned home after visiting friends at Four Oaks.

Mrs. J. M. Waters and son, J. M. Jr., left Saturday for their home at Arapahoe after spending several days here with Mr. and Mrs. A. Bell.

C. S. Moore, building contractor, who has been in New Bern for several months, returned to Dunn last week and is considering remaining here.

Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Harrell of Petersburg, Va., arrived Monday afternoon to spend several days with Mrs. Harrell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pope.

Mrs. Earl Barefoot left this week for Clyde, where she will spend several weeks with her parents. Mr. Barefoot will join Mrs. Barefoot there within the next few days and also will spend some time there.

Guy and Parker, lawyers, who have occupied a suit in the State Bank and Trust company building for several years, have just completed a thorough remodeling program in their offices. The offices are among the most attractive in town. It is waiting soon and a connecting room have been added to the suit.

Dr. C. B. Codrington completed 57 colored children against typhoid Monday. Fifty of these completed the treatment that day; 47 were new cases. The treatment is free and administered free. Dr. Codrington is anxious to give the treatment to every colored school child in the district. They can get it by calling at his office.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Dunn spent the week end here with relatives.

O. W. Watson returned last night from Johnston, B. C., where he had been for the past several days. Mr. Watson's family will remain in South Carolina until September. He brought back with him several bell weevils which are being seen with interest by many Dunn people.

Marion C. (Jack) Lee has returned to Washington to resume his duties as a traveling salesman for a roofing concern after spending three weeks here with his parents, Judge and Mrs. Eldredge Lee. The "aquino" has just gotten a letter from the salesman of the company telling him that Jack is considered one of the most valuable men in his organization.

Our good friend Bob Swain, who has suffered much from rheumatism during the last several years, is on the mend, and that constant smile of his is broadening. Bob has been taking some sort of bone cracking treatment at Fayetteville and really is getting good results. All who know Bob will be glad to learn this, because under all of his suffering he has been able to keep cheerful all of the time.

The T. E. L. Class of the First Baptist Sunday School will have its regular business meeting and social with Mrs. E. L. Warren Thursday evening, July 13th at 8 o'clock. Every member is urged to be there. Those of the class who have no way to go will please call Mrs. Geo. F. Pope, Mrs. W. D. Holland, Mrs. J. L. Hatcher or Mrs. M. F. Hodges and some one of these will be glad to call for you at your home.

The D. P. S. Motor Company is Dunn's newest enterprise. It soon is to be incorporated with E. V. Snipes as its president, Robert L. Denning as its vice-president and Hugh M. Prince as its secretary and treasurer. The company will sell Hudson and Essex automobiles and accessories and will have its sales rooms in the Snipes Garage. The first full shipment of cars is expected this week. The first sample car, an Essex, has been bought by E. J. Woblen, manager of the local branch of the Carolina Telephone and Telegraph Company. Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Denning, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert B. Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Durham Taylor spent the week end at Wrightsville Beach.

Because, it is said, the contractor has not been able to get necessary material, work on the new white school building has been held up for several days and probably will be delayed a whole month. Meantime, L. F. Bailey, local contractor who is superintending work on the colored school building, is pushing his work rapidly. It is probable that Mr. Bailey will complete the building under his charge before scheduled time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Swain and family, who have made their home here for the last several months, have moved to Greensboro, where Mr. Swain has his headquarters as a field worker for the Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association. Dunn regrets exceedingly to lose this excellent family whose members have made many friends during their short stay here. Mr. Swain is a cousin of Bob Swain, of the Barnes & Holliday Company.

Have you paid your water rent? If you haven't, you'd better get busy. Friendly Old Biz, superintendent of the water department, has become about the hardest guy around town. The town board has told him to collect—and he will. Every patron who has not settled on or before July 20 will find himself minus service July 21. There is no joke about this. No favorites will be played. Large and small, important, self-important and unimportant will be treated alike. Your bill awaits you in the office of H. A. Parker, city clerk. Better go see Alley now.

"Russell," the diminutive negro who some times shoe shines, delivers or does whatever his hand finds to do, would not be with us had not Willie High and Earl Cameron, two negro young men, come to his rescue last Sunday at Surles Pond. Russell had gotten into deep water, had gone down the proverbial three times and was about to yield up the ghost when his companions reached him. They carried him to land and after he had been rolled over a barrel for some time was just as good as ever. But, he says, he will never get in water over ankle deep again.

Big Bill Dawson, Dunn's good natured chief of police, wandered into our sanctum this morning to ask that we give a friendly tip to those motorists who have overlooked the little matter of procuring State licenses. Col. J. Bryan Grimes, secretary of state, has written Big Bill that he must enforce the law about motor licenses. And, as much as he dislikes to cause inconvenience to Dunn folks and Dunn's friends, he will be obliged to pinch any and all whom he sees violating the law. He suggests that you anchor the old boat in some safe harbor until Colonel Grimes sends you your license. Tags with "license applied for" written upon them are provided to save you from any thing. They are not so good as a last year's license plate. If you have any idea that you can escape the chief's wrath with such a substitute, you'd better think some more about it. Colonel Grimes states that his office can fill orders for licenses as fast as they come now. Send him a certified check or a money order, and your plate will come by return mail.

A mighty good old friend of ours—although he was always inclined to grouch—complained the other day the Dispatch never paid any attention to anything that happened at his house. He said maybe it was because he was not a subscriber. Of course we could have asked him how he knew we did not "pay any attention" to him if he did not buy the paper, but that would have been unkind. Really, there is nobody in town we think more of; nor any whom we would rather "notice." The truth is that this old friend lives a very quiet life, filling up his time with his church, fishing and other things. The only way we have to gather news is to ask folks for it or to have them give it to us voluntarily. We seldom see him, and he never tells us anything. The Dispatch really loves to print personal news. Such items are the life of a paper such as ours. We want all of our readers to tell us about their visitors, their crops, the repairs they are making about the home or the farm—and all that sort of thing. We know it is not just a desire to see one's name in print that prompts folks to tell us news of themselves. Their friends like to know what they are doing. That is why home folks take the home paper.

J. R. STRICKLAND
Funeral services for J. R. Strickland, who died Monday morning following a stroke of paralysis Friday afternoon, were held today at Red Hill church in the presence of a large gathering of friends in Dunn and Harnett and Johnston County.

Mr. Strickland was a rural mail carrier attached to the Dunn postoffice. He had served in that capacity many years and was known to and loved by hundreds of the office's patrons. He was a devout Christian and a citizen of the highest type.

He was born in Johnston County 59 years ago and lived in Dunn many years. He is survived by his wife, two sons and one daughter. The sons are Paul and Dennis Strickland and the daughter Miss Maude.

REVIVAL SERVICES
Revival services will begin at the Free Will Baptist church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The services will be conducted by

Rev. Theo. J. O'Neal of Toocoo, Ga. Bro. O'Neal is an evangelist of large experience and comes to us highly recommended by the brethren of the Christian Alliance of the South. He was formerly known as the "Boy Preacher of Texas." We especially invite all the Christians of the town and community to co-operate and worship with us and everybody will find a welcome to these services. J. L. DAVIS, Pastor.

More Summer Dairy Profits
The dairymen who are making profits are feeding the cows on pasture. When they once see to figure the actual results of grass only they find their cows don't milk so long, and it requires more feed in the winter to bring back milk production.
Dairymen everywhere are getting the most for a gallon of milk production by feeding a little Cow Chow each day.
Cow Chow provides just the right proteins and minerals to balance grass. It wholly puts the profit of your summer profits right in the milk pail. Start today and prove it with your own cows.
