Geo. M. Floyd spent Sunday in Orum with relatives.
 P. K. Honeycutt, real estate dealer of Varina, was here yesterday.

E. M. Willford of Delway, was a business visitor in Dunn Saturday.

Marah Morrow spent Monday with relatives in Gastonia and Charlotte.

Mrs. C. L. Guy was taken to Rex Hospital, Raleigh, this week for an operation.

Mrs. R. E. Gray and son, R. E. Jr., of Raleigh, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Lee.

Mrs. John Monds returned home Saturday after an operation in a Fayetteville hospital. She is getting along nicely.

William Dorman has left a bunch of keys at the Dispatch office which the owner can get by calling for them. They were found last week.

E. T. Draper left Sunday for Montgomery, Ala., where he will visit relatives for several days. He will also visit other Alabama towns while away.

B. O. Townsend has returned from a trip to Charlotte and other North Carolina points. He was away in the interests of the General Utility Company.

Rufus Gashner, of Washington, D. C., is here to visit his father, R. Gardner. He and his brother Claude are in the grocery business in the national capital.

George K. Gratham has returned from Gastonia, where he spent Monday with Harvey E. McKay, with whom he is associated in the drug business there.

Luther Godwin, a young son of Hannibal Godwin who lives seven miles east of town, suffered painful injuries yesterday from the kick of a mule. Dr. H. C. Turlington was called to the farm to treat the boy.

J. W. Jordan, jeweler, has returned from Mullins S. C. where he is associated in the jewelry business with W. Bright Morgan. His visit there was made necessary by the illness of his son-in-law, the entire family has recovered, however.

Perry Jernigan, an automobile dealer of Sanford, Fla., and a native of Dunn, was here this week to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Jernigan. Mr. Jernigan is associated in the automobile business with Baxton Baggett, another Dunn boy. They are doing a fine business in Florida.

J. J. Dickens, of Durham, is here to serve the Jarvis Motor Company as sales manager. The company sells the Durant car, one of the prettiest low-priced vehicles we have seen this year. Mr. Dickens is an experienced automobile salesman. The Dispatch is glad to welcome him to Dunn.

Fire of unknown origin destroyed the residence occupied by Jack Stewart and owned by L. U. Blazell at the western end of Broad Street Saturday morning. The fire department was hampered considerably by the distance of the property from the nearest fire plug. The building was out of the town limits by about 100 yards.

Music by the Dunn Band, barbecue served by the women voters of the county, a speech by Governor Cameron Morrison—all are to be features of the big Democratic Rally planned by Hannibal L. Godwin, chairman of the Democratic County Executive Committee for Thursday, October 5 at Lillington. Mr. Godwin says there will be barbecue enough for all—and there certainly will be enough speaking and music. Republican brothers and sisters are especially invited to attend the meeting.

"My experience with Dr. SETH ARNOLD'S BALSAM for Dysentery is that when the doctor has given up all hope of saving life tell him you have no further need of him, and as soon as possible, take Dr. SETH ARNOLD'S BALSAM." Sold by Hood and Grantham.

LEAGUE ENTERTAINS FACULTY
 One of the most enjoyable affairs of the past week was a garden party given by the Epworth League at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wilson in honor of the Dunn Graded School faculty. The porch and lawn were tastefully decorated in the League colors—gold and white. The guests were welcomed by Mrs. C. L. Wilson and directed by Miss Ava Parker to the punch bowl, which rested in a bower of goldenrod, presided over by Mrs. T. L. Riddle and Mr. Fulton Lee.

Progressive conversation was played. Several readings, which were thoroughly enjoyed, were given by Mrs. Annys Young. The music, which was furnished by the Masonic Orchestra, made the party the most enjoyable of the season. The color scheme was carried out in the refreshments, which consisted of gold and white cream, gold cake, and gold and white mints.

RACING MUSICAL COMEDY AT THE LA FAYETTE 28TH.
 "Mary" is a grand old name; she is quaint and demure, but as will be presented by Geo. M. Cohan's Comedians, at the La Fayette Theatre, Fayetteville, Thursday night, September 28. She is speedy and snappy, and has an abundance of "pep." Mary's a dancing, rollicking, racing musical comedy. It is at top speed all the time, full of life, and motion and color.

"Mary" just teems with excellent comedy, lines that are wonderfully clever, with staging that verges on the poetic, so fresh and fair as its garden scene in June, and above all an through all "Mary" has lifting, haunting music and enough song hits for three musical comedy successes.

"The Love Nest" is the theme which runs through the score, with "Money, Money, Money" and "Waiting" equally popular.

When mother-in-law threatened a visit, the couple in the small flat said they had no room for complaint. The most funny people have no room for complaint when they trade at Drangbon's.

The reason some men keep in good spirits is a secret still. It is not a secret still, why animals thrive. They are fed on Purina Omolene from L. P. Surles.

It looked bad for Jones. He was seen in a secluded spot to pull back her hood and get very close up to her. It did not look right—so Jones brought the auto to The City Garage. We believe honest tea is the best policy. We sell you that kind and all other groceries likewise. Walter Jones.

Before marriage a man will sing "Every morn I'll bring thee violets." Later, he will kick at bringing home a little flour, instead of a good loaf of Mity Nice Bread.

FIRE IN LILLINGTON GIN DOES LITTLE DAMAGE
 Lillington, Sept. 22.—Fire which broke out at 3 o'clock this morning in the plant of the Lillington Gin Company was extinguished before any damage of consequence was done.

The blaze was discovered by a nearby resident who phoned in the alarm and the fire department responded in such quick order that the fire was extinguished before the townspeople could turn out. A farmer who had brought in a load of cotton to be ginned and desiring to be first on deck this morning, slept so soundly in his wagon that he knew nothing of the fire till after it was extinguished.

Three Burned To Death.
 Casper, Wyo., Sept. 25.—Three oil workers were burned to death and two others were injured when an oil rig on a lease of the Midwest Oil Company in the Salt Creek field burst into flames today after a terrific explosion.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT
 Whereas, Casper C. Warren, charter and friend of all B. Y. P. U. members of the Dunn Baptist church, has left our union to enter training for a higher calling, and;
 Whereas, this B. Y. P. U. very keenly feels the loss of one of its most valuable members, not only as a character but as a B. Y. P. U. worker in every phase of the work, and;
 Whereas, each and every member of the Dunn B. Y. P. U. has the highest respect and confidence in Casper and wishes for him the noblest blessings that may come to him in his chosen field of work;
 Therefore, be it resolved, That even though Casper has left us to enter wider fields of Christian endeavor, his life remains with us a picture and inspiration to every one that knew and came in contact with him, and we must accept the challenge it brings to us to put forth the best efforts we have in us for the Master's cause, and;
 Be it resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be printed in the Dunn Dispatch, a copy sent to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Warren, a copy sent to Casper, and a copy spread on the minutes of this B. Y. P. U. as a permanent record.

 This September 21, 1922.

BRITISH EDITOR OUT WITH PLAIN CHARGES CONCERNING AMERICA
 Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 24.—Hon. Earl Spender, editor of the Westminster Gazette, who is a member of the delegation from England and Canada representing the Balfour Institution, took the United States to task last night for demanding from England payment of the war debts.

 In a short speech, at a banquet tendered to the visitors, Mr. Spender declared "the only thing we hear from Washington in this time of stress and danger is that you want us to pay the money we owe."
 He declared that the American people did not realize the tragic nature of the developments in Turkey and pictured England as standing alone in "one of the greatest crises in history."

While deploring the attitude of the United States which they characterized as "aloof," the members of the delegation paid unanimous tribute to General Pershing, referring to him as one of the foremost military authorities of the age.

DEED, NOT CREED

red life-blood into an anemic world. After all, the world is quickest touched not by the great building but by the great heart; not by the cold word on printed page; but by the warm word as it comes from living lips; not so much by the house of money as by the merciful hand laid on the fevered brow; not so much by the house that shelters the wanderer as the beautiful face which soothes motherhood at whose knees lonely children gather."
