DUKE NEWS
 Duke, Oct. 9.—The Junior Boys band gave their first concert Sunday afternoon in the Erwin park. In view of the fact that they have been practicing less than two months and also being "under fire" for the first time they rendered a very creditable concert. Perhaps by next summer they will be ready to take their places alongside of the older band.

Arthur Whitley, director of the Erwin Concert band, was called to his home in Weldon last week on account of the illness of his wife.

In honor of the teachers of the Duke graded school, the Methodist and Baptist churches gave two very enjoyable socials last Thursday and Friday nights. Everyone present enjoyed themselves and, especially the different games which were played.

Miss Ruby Hobbs of the graded school faculty, spent the week end with her parents at Benson.

Both fee and care of 1,000,000 hens giving no returns were saved in 1921, reports to the United States Department of Agriculture show, 4,000 women, practicing for the first time the methods of identifying non-layers demonstrated by agricultural extension agents, called these "leaf-cra" from their flocks.

W. A. Erwin, Jr. spent the week end in West Durham.

L. L. Brown of Wilson, spent the week end here with friends.

Misses Flora and Ida Bishop of Durham, spent the week end here with friends.

Lieutenant Augustus Leazer, aviator in the late war, spent several days here last week, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Boor.

Miss Mary Ballard, graduate nurse of the Moore-Herring Hospital, Weldon, has accepted a position here with the Good Hope Hospital. She entered upon her duties Monday.

E. R. Thomas spent the week end in West Durham with his family.

Mrs. J. F. Tillinghast, retiring librarian and head of the Girls' Friendly Club, was agreeably surprised last Tuesday night when the Club presented her with a very pretty silver vase in appreciation of the esteem in which she was held by them. The presentation was made by Mrs. A. T. Daniel, who made a short talk telling how much Mrs. Tillinghast will be missed, but expressing the hope that under Miss Cantwell's direction they will continue to carry on their good work.

Next Sunday will be the day when the annual singing convention will be held here. Joseph McCoy, promoter of the Sing, announces that classes from Benson, Fayetteville, and Sampson county will be present. In all there is expected about twelve to fifteen classes, among whom are some very noted singing leaders and choro-

on. The Duke choir, winners of the silver cup at the last Sing, are again counting upon retaining the cup. To those who avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing the singers will, no doubt, enjoy it.
