NEXT PICKFORD PICTURE TO BE A DIFFERENT TYPE

The next Mary Pickford film to be released by the United Artists will be "Through the Back Door" and arrangements have been made by Manager Lancaster of the Colonial Theatre to have this production as the feature for Monday. This photo-feature, the basic idea for which was supplied by Miss Pickford herself, was prepared for the screen by Marion Fairfax, well-known scenario writer. It is quite different from anything Miss Pickford has yet attempted in that the story touches upon an angle of marital relations new to the screen. A wife brings the spectre of divorce into her home when she became a petulant, dissatisfied sort of person through grief for a child she believes dead.

The problem of restoring happiness to this household falls to the lot of Miss Pickford in one of her inimitable character roles. There are innumerable complications, some of them laughable, others quite tragic—all leading to denouement logical and satisfying. Admirers of Mary Pickford will see her in a little girl part in this picture. Able support for Miss Pickford's work is furnished by Wilfred Lucas, Gertrude Astor, Adolphe Menjou, John Harron, Elinor Fair, Helen Raymond, C. Normand Raymond, Peaches Jackson, Dorcen Turner and George Dromgold.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF THE TOWN OF DUNN Feeling that the business with which I am connected will demand my full time, and that I could not devote proper time and consideration to the affairs of the Town of Dunn, to satisfy my own feelings with respect to the duties of a Commissioner should my friends and fellow citizens see fit to elect me to this office. I have therefore determined that it is my duty, prior to the primary, to withdraw from the race. I beg to express my appreciation to a number of my friends and fellow citizens who have assured me of support.

Respectfully, E. L. COOK.

FOR COMMISSIONER I hereby announce myself a candidate for commissioner from the first ward, town of Dunn, subject to the action of the Democratic primary.

N. B. LEE. April 6, 1923.
