

LOCAL

R. S. Bond, of Rowland, was a Dana business visitor Friday.

B. F. Parker, who lives on Route 1 from Duke, was a Dunn visitor Saturday afternoon.

Norman Yates and small daughter spent Sunday in Dillon, S. C., visiting relatives and friends.

W. K. and J. L. Sorrell, who live on Route 2 from Duke, were among the visitors in town Saturday.

Mrs. A. R. Wilson, of Selma, spent the week-end here visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Newberry.

Mrs. Chas. Pearl, of Savannah, Ga., is a guest at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Goldstein.

Miss Pearl Jernigan has accepted a position as head trimmer in the millinery department of the Goldstein Company's store.

Miss Jessie Holliday has accepted a position in the office of Dr. W. E. Coltrane, succeeding Miss Cieta Naylor, who resigned.

Mrs. C. T. Gardner left yesterday for her home in Florence, S. C., after spending some time here visiting her mother, Mrs. Mamie F. Pittman.

Miss Elizabeth Bridge, home demonstration agent, and Misses Mamie, Sudic and Stella Sexton all of Lillington, were among the visitors in town Saturday.

Miss Iris Council, of High Point, arrived Saturday night and will spend some time here visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Farthing, North Orange Avenue.

R. G. Taylor returned Saturday from New York and Baltimore, where he spent a week buying fall and winter goods for the R. G. Taylor Company department store.

Ella Goldstein returned Saturday from New York city, where she spent two weeks studying the markets and buying fall and winter goods for the Goldstein Company store.

Little Miss Meredith Johnson, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. E. N. Johnson, has returned home from Riverton, Scotland county, where she spent some time visiting relatives.

Mrs. J. Kronsburg and small daughter, of Fayetteville, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Kronsburg's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Baer, East Cumberland street.

Mrs. J. W. Baucorn, of Roxboro, arrived Saturday and will spend some time here visiting at the home of Mrs. Baucorn's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Draughon.

P. B. Kelly has accepted a position as salesman in T. Hodges' grocery store. Mr. Kelly has sold his interest in the Baggett and Kelly grocery business to Fred Baggett, senior member of the firm.

Rev. E. N. Johnson, pastor of the First Baptist church, is conducting a revival at the Chalybeate Springs Baptist church this week. Services are held twice daily—3 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Miss Lucille Harris, of Richmond, Va., arrived Sunday and will spend some time here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Harris. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Jewel Harris, who spent some time in Richmond.

Mrs. E. M. Johnson and daughter, little Miss Loni Johnson, returned Saturday to their home in Lumberton after spending some time visiting relatives at Con. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Johnson's mother, Mrs. J. E. Lyak.

Jasper Barfoot, Johnston county citizen, was found over to the Federal court Saturday by U. S. Commissioner E. Lee on the charge of having beer and malt in his possession. His bond was fixed at $200, which he furnished.

J. W. Draughon and Mrs. Maggie Butler left Sunday night for the northern markets to purchase fall and winter goods for the Draughon department store. They were accompanied by W. S. Patrick, of Tampa, Fla., who had been a guest at the Draughon home for a week.

Thousands of visitors and shoppers thronged the new store of the Baer's Dry Goods Company, which was formally opened Saturday. Louis Baer, manager of the store, says he was highly pleased with the opening, and that the amount of goods sold on the opening day surpassed his expectations.

J. W. Fryer, who had been in charge of the local Pender's store for the past several months, has been transferred to Wilson. He is succeeded here by W. T. Blackwood, who comes to Dunn from the Pender store in Selma. Mr. and Mrs. Blackwood are living at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Butler, East Cumberland street.

E. H. Evans, a well-known deputy sheriff of Franklin county, spent Friday here visiting S. R. Holmes.

Dr. Livingston Johnson, editor of The Biblical Recorder, Raleigh, will preach at the First Baptist church of Dunn next Sunday morning and evening. He will tell of his recent trip to Europe and the things observed while in that country.

Middling cotton is selling on the local market today for 23 1-2 cents the pound.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Butler and children spent Sunday with relatives in Kinston.

Mrs. Frances Faucett of New York city is the guest this week of Mrs. Mattye Washburn.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jackson and children and Mrs. W. E. Butler spent Sunday in Mount Olive.

Gordon Bell, O. C. and O. L. Duncan, D. Smith and Bernice Cashwell spent Sunday in Lumberton.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Harris of Henderson spent the week end here with Mrs. Harris' father, Mr. Frank Wade.

Miss Helen Parker returned home Sunday from a two-weeks' visit to Chapel Hill, Burlington and Greensboro.

Gibson Jackson, who has been working at Miami, Fla., for the past several weeks, has returned to his home in Dunn.

Walter Massengill of Dillon S. C., is spending the week here with his father, who has been quite ill for the past several days.

Miss Annie Hodges returned home Sunday from Fayetteville, where she spent a month visiting her sister, Mrs. O. Y. Humphrey.

Joseph N. Creel, Jr., left Saturday night for Ocean View, Va., to spend a few days with Mrs. Creel who has been there for some time.

There will be services every night this week at the Gospel Tabernacle, conducted by Rev. Thos. J. O'Neal. Everybody will be welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bell of Charleston, West Virginia, are spending a few days here the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Yates.

Mrs. Dewey Whittenton and son, Charles, left Sunday for Rock Hill, S. C., where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Roger Brooks for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Fitchett and two children and Dr. J. M. Morgan spent the week-end in Greensboro and Winston-Salem visiting relatives and friends.

Malcom Hodges has returned home from the Pittman hospital, Fayetteville, where he underwent an operation. He has practically recovered from the operation.

Eugene Cole returned yesterday to Darlington, S. C., where he holds a position with the Yadkin River Power Co., after spending a few days here visiting relatives.

Rev. James M. Mott, of Darlington, S. C., spent yesterday in Dunn. Mr. Daniel is a former pastor of Divine Street Methodist church, here, and has many friends in Dunn.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Massengill have moved to Dunn from Benson. Mr. Massengill will engage in the insurance business. Mr. Massengill has offices in the First National Bank building.

Miss Sarah Townsend of McDonald spent last night here at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Townsend. She left today for Greensboro, where she will teach in the city schools.

Lieut. and Mrs. William C. Lee, who spent the summer at Camp McClellan, Anniston, Alabama, are spending a few days here with Lieut. Lee's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Lee. They will leave this week for Raleigh, where Mr. Lee will take up his work as a member of the State College faculty.

BACK FROM LAKE VIEW

James Best has returned from Lake View where he spent a week with his Sunday school class. Following are the names of those who enjoyed the delightful outing.

Harry Newberry, Hugh Godwin, Sam Dowd, Rosella Dowd, Floyd Butler, Earl West, Jack Cook and Bernice Carr.

Rev. Thos. J. O'Neal Moves Family Here

Rev. Thos. J. O'Neal and family arrived in Dunn last week from Texas. They made the trip on a Ford car and report a most pleasant journey.

Mr. O'Neal will make his home here. They will occupy Mrs. T. V. Smith's residence on East Edgerton street, where Mr. Cook now lives.

Mr. O'Neal will keep up his evangelistic work and will be quite an addition to Dunn.

Wins University Scholarship

Miss Ruth Henley, of Durham has been awarded the University of North Carolina scholarship offered by the United Daughters of the Confederacy to the high school senior of the State writing the best essay on Robert E. Lee.

Miss Henley is a Harnett county girl, having lived all of her life in Duke until her father and mother moved to Durham in 1920. She is the daughter of Mr. Edward M. Henley who was connected with The Erwin Cotton Mills company in Duke from the time the mill began operation until he moved to Durham to become Superintendent of Pearl Cotton Mills. At the time Mr. Henley left Duke he held the positions of Superintendent and Assistant Manager.

Miss Ruth is a charming young lady and has always taken a high stand at school.

Buie's Creek academy opened today for the fall term. A large number of students passed through Dunn yesterday en route to this well-known Harnett county school.

Harnett county Superior court for the trial of criminal cases convened yesterday at Lillington with Judge Frank A. Daniels, of Goldsboro, presiding. A number of Dunn people spent the day in Lillington.

A Ford coupe driven by Miss Grace Gravelly, of Whitakers, was badly damaged yesterday afternoon when it struck a Durant car driven by Mrs. W. H. Jackson on the Dunn-Duke highway, about one mile from Dunn. Mrs. Jackson was backing her car into the highway from another road when the Ford struck it. This car was only slightly damaged. The occupants of both cars escaped injury.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Jernigan, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Johnson and two children of Wilmington spent the week-end visiting at the home of Mr. Jernigan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Jernigan, near Dunn.

RECORD OF DEATHS

H. A. Hodges, H. A. Hodges, well-known Johnston county citizen, died Friday at the advanced age of 79 years. Deceased is survived by several children, among them being Mrs. Floannie Tart, of Dunn. The funeral was conducted from the home Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock and interment was made in the family cemetery.

Nettie Jane Tyndall, 13-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Tyndall, who live in the northern part of town, died Sunday morning of pneumonia. Interment was made yesterday afternoon in family cemetery in Sampson county.

Ernest Ingram, Ernest David, one-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ingram, who live near Newton Grove, in Sampson county, died last night at the Dunn hospital. Interment will be made this afternoon in the family cemetery, near the Ingram home.

He—"You refuse my proposal. Is this absolutely final?" She—"Yes, indeed. Shall I return your letters?" He—"Please do: there is some very good material in them I can use again."—Yale Record.

666 cures Malaria, Chills and Fever, Dengue or Bilious Fever. It destroys the germs.

WANT ADS

FOR SALE—JERSEY COW FRESH to pair. Four Milons milk per day.

10 to 12 pound butter. Price $100. See M. E. Williams at Dunn Marble Works.

WANTED AN OCEAN-FRONT Class Mechanic who can do all kinds of repair work. Good pay to right man. Smith and Mackay.

FOR SALE—50 BRYMOUTH Rock pullets at $2.00 each. Will begin to lay about November 1st. D. J. McLaughlin, 2415 Gray, N. C.

FOR SALE—6-HORSE POW- or Woodpecker wood saw. Practically new. Al C. Barnes. 4-4c.

UNSURPASSED AND UNMATCH- able for beauty and style will be the faithful variety of all who see our big fall and winter display of Sundry beginning Friday September 7th, 1923, and 7 no means less worthy of consideration is the fact that we sell better goods for less money. In the Yellow Front Store, Dunn, N. C. R. G. Taylor Co. 11.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO SEE FASH- ion's latest efforts in all that's fine to wear and sold for less money. If you do, come read R. G. Taylor Company's ad in this paper and attend their big display beginning Friday September 7th, 1923. 11.

BEGINNING FRIDAY SEPT. 7, THE Yellow Front Store puts your presence at their great display of all kinds of wearing apparel and dry goods for the Fall and Winter of 1923. If you want the best for less money read their ad in this paper and attend R. G. Taylor Co. Friday Sept. 7, 1923. 11.

WANTED.—WANT TO BUY NICE dry, pine wood. Quote lowest price, stating freight to this place. Can sell few lots loads cedar post for fencing. Address F. O. Box 172, Raleigh, N. C.

MONEY TO LOAN—ANY Amount on long time. Interested see us at once. West and West, Attorneys, Dunn, N. C.

FOR SALE—SHEET IRON CAR- age. Easily moved. See Capt. B. E. Shaw for information. 31-4c.

MONEY TO LOAN—4% INTEREST- ed in long-time farm loans see James F. Wilson, over Fishman's store, Dunn, N. C. May 1-4c.

MONEY TO LOAN—FARM LOANS $1,000 to $50,000, 5% year time with privilege to pay women. McLeod and McLeod, Attorneys, Dunn, N. C.

MONEY TO LOAN ON GOOD FARM lands, 5-7.5% and 20 years at five and one-half per cent. Interest. Loans closed within 30 days. J. O. West, Attorney, Dunn, N. C. 3-5c.

COLD! WHEAT! NO WOOD, NO coal and the fire gone out. Insure against this calamity by placing your order now for your winter's supply of wood to be delivered at you need it at the right price. Write or see Daniel H. Lee, Route 1, Dunn, N. C.

Attention Money Savers

Beginning Friday, September 7, 1923, you are invited to attend the greatest showing of all that's newest in style, with perfect workmanship and of best materials that has been our privilege to display in the Yellow Front Store's history. Here you will find, as is always our rule the best for less money, in millinery, ladies' dresses, coat suits, cloaks, slippers, shoes, men and boys clothing, dry goods and thousands of other items carried by us. Our entire showing is the product of Fashion's most bewitching efforts to please the careful buyer, who demands newest style, best workmanship with best material for less money. Do you care for such values? A most cordial invitation is extended to women, men, girls' and boy's and children who do care to visit and see in the Yellow Front store styles latest decrees for less money. Beginning Friday September 7, 1923.

R. G. TAYLOR COMPANY

Friday, Sept. 7.

SPECIAL PRICES

- Vanco Self-Rising Flour, 98-lb. bag... $3.25
- Vanco Self-Rising Flour, 48-lb. bag... $1.65
- Vanco Self-Rising Flour, 24-lb. bag... 85c
- Sugar 100-lb. bags... $9.00
- Rice 100-lb. bags... $6.00
- Pure Lard, 50-lb. stand... $8.00
- Rib side Meat, by the side, per lb... 15c
- Plate or chunk Meat, per lb... 14c
- Salt 100-lb. bags... $1.10
- Salt, 50-lb. bags... 70c
- Salt, 25-lb. bags... 45c
- Molasses, 1-gallon stands, per stand... $3.75
- Stock Molasses, 10-gallon kegs... $3.75
- Golden Crown Syrup, No. 10 can... 60c
- Golden Crown Syrup, No. 5 can... 40c
- Cheese, about 30-lb. per lb... 32c
- Tuxedo Dairy Feed 24 per cent... $2.75
- Tuxedo Scratch Feed, per bag... $2.75
- Tuxedo Hog Ration, per bag... $3.00
- Tuxedo Egg Mash, per bag... $3.25
- Tuxedo Chop Horse Feed, per bag... $2.50
- Cotton Sheets, per sheet... 40c
- Shipstuff, 15 per cent, per bag... $2.10
- Oyster Shell, 100-lb. bag... $1.50

The above prices are good until Saturday, September 8th.

See us before placing your orders.

DUNN PACKAGE HOUSE

H. M. PITMAN, Manager

THANK YOU

—We enjoyed having so many of you come to our opening last Saturday and we are grateful for the large patronage that came to us. We are sure that all who bought of us are convinced that to satisfy the public is our highest aim. It was a very great pleasure to us to be permitted to meet so many of the DUNN DISTRICT PEOPLE

MORE GOODS Much of the goods we intended to display during our formal opening last Saturday was delayed in transit and did not arrive in time. It is coming by every train, however, and is now being placed. You will enjoy seeing These Goods

We Always Will Strive To Please You

NEWEST STYLES —In all apparel for men, women and children.

- MILLINERY
- DRESSES
- CLOAKS
- SUITS
- SHOES
- CLOTHING
- HATS
- NOTIONS

ALL AT BARGAINS

—This week we will receive large quantities of goods for all departments of our store, and will be pleased to have all of you call to see them and become better acquainted with us.

BAER'S DRY GOODS CO.

Next to Butler Bros. EAST BROAD ST., DUNN, N. C.