Mrs. J. McK. Harrington.

The old order changeth, oh for the pen of a John Fox or an Ophie Reader!

Rev. and Mrs. M. D. McNeill were guests of Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Hartsell at a dinner on last Thursday, given in honor of Rev. Mr. Hartsell who celebrated his seventieth birthday.

Mrs. D. B. Kelly on Route Two, was in town last week and renewed her subscription to the News. Mr. and Mrs. Kelly held a family reunion of all their children Christmas.

Miss Ethel Oakley of route 1 spent Wednesday afternoon with Miss Sara Yow.

Mr. C. A. Hunter of Huntersville harvested 300 bushels of sweet potatoes of the Porto Rica variety during the past year.

A play entitled "A Family Affair," adopted from the French farce, "Prete moi ta Femme," will be given at the Academy Tuesday evening, January 27, 1920, at 7:45 o'clock. Admittance 25 cents.

Mr. D. W. McNeill returned Friday from a business trip to Smoaks, S. C.

Misses Edith and Bessie Shields, Edith and Della Cameron, Messrs. Alton Yow, Lee Hinsley and Herbert Shields, on Route one, were callers Thursday night at the home of the Misses Oakley.

Mrs. A. D. Hinsley spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Yow on Route 1.

Mrs. Beulah Maples, the thrifty little housewife on Route Two, where grows the trailing arbutus, called last week and left a year's subscription to the News.

Misses Katherine Thomas and Ollie Jackson were visitors Thursday night of the Misses Oakley on Route One.

Prof. Credle of Carthage was a distinguished left-over in our town a day last week, having alighted from a Seaboard train about ten minutes after the jitney for Carthage rolled out.

Mrs. E. A. McFayden and daughter visited at the home of Mrs. Mag Cameron on Route One last week.

After spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. W. M. Wooten, Mrs. Anna Culberson returned Saturday to her home in Sanford.

Miss Katharine Thomas, Ollie Jackson and Cora Oakley, with Messrs. Newton and Lee Hinsley called at the home of the Misses Shields on Route One one evening last week.

We are pleased to send in this week a year's subscription to the News from Mr. D. C. McDonald of Waxhaw. Mr. McDonald left Moore county in 1888, nearly thirty-two years ago. He is in his seventy-ninth year, but says he has not lost interest in Moore county.

Mr. and Mrs. Poindexter of Sanford were the guests of Mrs. E. M. Borst on Friday.

Last Sunday a teacher of the junior class at the Presbyterian Sunday School, having heard the lessons of the little boys, and after asking them questions of notable Bible characters, and receiving correct answers, decided while waiting on the other classes to ask a few secular questions, as follows. What is the capitol of the United States? Washington. What is the capitol of North Carolina? Raleigh. What is the capitol of Moore County? Silence, and a baffled expression. Suddenly one little fellow raised his hand and answered, "Surry!"

Last Sunday at the M. E. Church in Cameron the Sunday School classes, number one and two, joined with the pastor in supporting an orphan named Ethel Lupton.

Dr. Harbour the eye specialist from Surry, who recently invested in real estate near here is boarding at the Cameron hotel.

Mr. John McLaughlin of Carthage Route attended services at the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon.

Change of date. Rev. L. H. Joyner will preach at Vass every third Sunday instead of the fourth; and at Lemon Springs every fourth Sunday, morning and night.

The Misses Oakley are issuing invitations to a sing to be held at their home on Route One, on Friday night, January 23rd, from 6 to 11 o'clock.

Some of our young ladies have abandoned the idea of ever possessing an automobile, or aircraft, and have decided to invest in a Surrey that is manufactured for double harness.

Mr. Ernest Collins of Pilot Mountain visited at the Cameron hotel last week.

Regret to report Mrs. C. V. Boaz quite ill. All hope for her speedy recovery.

Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Monroe and daughter, Miss Katherine of Sanford, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. McPherson Sunday evening. They were accompanied home by Mrs. McPherson, Mrs. W. G. Ferguson and little daughter, Jean, who will be their guests for a few days this week.

Miss Pearl Edwards and Mr. Seth Lassiter of Smithfield were united in marriage on last Wednesday, the 14th, at the home of the bride's father, Mr. G. S. Edwards of Vass. Rev. L. H. Joyner of Cameron officiated.

There will be a congregational meeting at the Presbyterian church on the first Sunday morning in February at 11:00 o'clock.

Train No. 61 Monday morning ran over the mail sack for Carthage and Cameron, tearing the sack to smithereens, and scattering the mail and parcel post packages that were badly torn up.

Mrs. J. A. Mathews of Lee, near the Harnett line, has purchased the C. E. Jones old place and expects to move the first of February. Mrs. Matthews is the sister in law of Mr. H. A. Mathews.

Mr. J. W. Bowden on Route Two is improving, we are pleased to state.

Rev. and Mrs. L. H. Joyner and daughter, Miss Burdette, spent Saturday at Jonesboro with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Godfrey.

The January meeting of the Women's Betterment Association will be held at the graded school building on Friday, Jan. 23d, at 3:00 p. m. All members are urged to be present, and all those who are not members are invited to join and push forward the good work in 1920.

Last week the correspondent paid $1.00 to have some wood sawed that took about fifteen minutes' time in which to saw it. Verily the battle is sho to the strong, and the race to the swift.

Everybody is on the water wagon now.

Mr. John Olive of New Hill is visiting his brother, Mr. W. H. Olive.

Dr. and Mrs. George Fuquay and children motored to Sanford Saturday afternoon.

Takes the guess out of Baking—saves you money

You can't buy baking-powder, soda and salt as economically as when you buy them already mixed in Occo-nee-chee Self-Rising Flour. And the extra ingredients are added in proportions for perfect baking.

Hot-cakes, light, golden biscuits and tempting waffles can be mixed in a few seconds and baked in a few more. Just mix with water or milk and put in the oven.

You'll like Occo-nee-chee because it's a real time- and trouble-saver.

OCCO-NEE-CHEE Self-Rising Flour

Takes the Guess out of Baking and Saves you Money

The Indian Head is on every sack of Occo-nee-chee Self-Rising Flour. Your grocer will sell you a sack later. Ask him.

For a good plain flour, buy Postum.

PREVENT PNEUMONIA

Neglect of a simple cold is often the direct cause of pneumonia. Children do not like to take nauseating medicine but do like the soothing effect of the external remedy.

BRASE'S VAPORANTIA SALVE
WILL NOT STAIN THE CLOTHES

Brase's Vaporantia Salve is applied by rubbing this delightful salve into the chest and under the arms. The steam is drawn toward the chest, causing the cold to melt. It is not removed by washing. — Ladies should be advised for its prompt relief to be used for sore throats.
