Mrs. J. McK. Harrington.

D. Al. Blue, good man and popular sheriff of Moore county, was in town last week.

Mr. W. R. Doss of Coplin and neices Misses Lillian and Carrie Dobson and Mr. Oliver Dobson of Trinity, returned home last week after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Doss and family at the hotel. Mr. Doss, who is a Surry county farmer, has bought the Britton farm together with the Cameron hotel.

The many friends of Mrs. C. C. Yates of Carthage were glad to greet her, if only for a short while Wednesday morning of last week.

Mr. J. W. Rogers renewed his subscription last week. Being a busy farmer, he came near forgetting the last day of grace at the old rate. Mr. Rogers' mother and sisters have moved to Sanford, but he is still sticking to Moore county farming that can't be beat.

Mr. Donald McDonald, one of our highly esteemed citizens, and merchant of long standing, renews his subscription this week.

Prof. B. O. Dodge, agricultural scientist of Washington, D. C., is in town.

Mr. Archie McDugald of Hamlet was in town Thursday.

With the beginning of the dewberry season, arriveth a multitude of agents. Already two lightning rod agents are canvassing the town and community.

Mrs. J. G. Doss and charming daughters, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stone, Mr. Fitzhugh Marion of Route Two, motored to Jonesboro and Broadway Sunday, returning by White Hill.

Misses Sallie and Bessie Cameron on Route One visited at the home of Mrs. Janie Muse Friday afternoon.

Mrs. M. McL. McKeithen, Miss Mollie McKeithen of Aberdeen, Mr. Leighton McKeithen, motored to Loblelia last week to see Mrs. Mary McLaughlin.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. McNeill returned last week from a visit to Smoaks, South Carolina.

Miss Margaret Gilchrist has accepted a position as book-keeper with the Cameron Lumber Co., at Smoaks, S. C., and boards with Mr. and Mrs. H. J. McNeill.

Miss Carrie Norman returned last week from a visit to Durham.

Misses Bertie Graham and Mina Boyden visited last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bowden of Marners Harnett county, and while there enjoyed a trip to historic Raven Rock.

Mr. D. M. Phillips on Route Two enrolls his name this week as a new subscriber. Mr. Phillips returned last December from Panama, where he had been with the U. S. A. for four years, and was corporal with the regulars in the coast artillery. Asked what business he was now engaged in, he replied he was doing what every one else was doing in this section, or what they ought to be doing—farming—raising eating crops as well as the money crops.

The rain Friday night washed some lumber in front of the residence of Mr. W. G. Parker's, a distance of forty feet down the sidewalk.

Saturday, Mr. A. Z. Eason brought over in town for sale 100 pounds of white head cabbage, and three pecks of beans of a fine variety.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Smith, Miss Mamie Smith, Master Robert of Niagara, Mr. Frank Smith of Norfolk and Mr. Morgan of Chapel Hill called Sunday afternoon at the home of the correspondent.

After teaching her school term at Goldsboro, Miss Mary McNeill, another of Cameron's popular young ladies, is at home for the summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Teague and Master David of Sanford were the guests Sunday of Rev. and Mrs. M. D. McNeill and attended the morning service at the Presbyterian church.

J. C. Muse, accountant, and John McNeill, relief agent for the Seaboard, spent the week-end at their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Alsa Thompson and children on Route One spent Sunday with Mrs. Thompson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gaddy.

Mr. E. M. Borst of Wilmington, has arrived for the berry season.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Borst and H. A. Jr., of Vass, were visitors Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Borst.

Miss Lucile Loving came over Sunday from Sanford to see her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Loving.

Cone McPherson, student at McCallie school, Chattanooga, is at home for the vacation. Besides being the champion base ball pitcher at McCallie Cone won other high honors, having been made a prefect.

Rev. L. H. Joyner left Monday for a ten days' stay at Trinity College.

Mrs. B. J. Smith who has been on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. J. D. McLean, returned last week to her home at Vanceboro. With her sweet motherly ways, charming and cultured Mrs. Smith won the hearts of all who were fortunate enough to make her acquaintance.

Mrs. Cotton Godfrey and children are spending the week with their mother and grand mother, Mrs. L. H. Joyner.

Across the Lee line, between the homes of Messrs. D. J. Pierce and Jimmie Armstrong, Tom Littlejohn (colored) was wending his peaceful way, when he came suddenly upon two men, who drew their guns and told Tom to hand over his money or they would kill him and dig a hole and bury him there. Tom delivered his purse from which they took twenty dollars, handed back the pocket book with the remark they hoped he'd have more the next time. Tom says he does not know what kind of people they were as they were neither white nor colored. (Too late for Redskins.—News.)

Misses Bonnie Muse and Vera Wooten, who were among the graduates at the Eastern Carolina Training School, are happy to be at home again, but happier still over their sheep skins.

First June renewal. S. W. Robards of Cameron. Mr. Robards who is batching and doing his own cooking, is making inquiries about his cat, who like the cat of Tom O'Connor's "fell out with him over his cooking," and left. Mr. Robards thinks if he can locate the cat, he might find a good cook, and prevail on the cat to return and bring along the cook. There are some excellent cooks in this immediate vicinity, young and good looking. Some are graduates in domestic science, and are fond of cats.—Later: Mr. Robards has found the cat, and found him dead. He says a post mortem revealed that the cat died from acute indigestion.

Mr. J. W. Norman, prosperous merchant and popular gentleman of Cameron subscribes for the News this week.

Married Saturday evening at the residence of Rev. M. D. McNeill, the officiating minister, Mr. Robert Blue and Miss Elizabeth Horne, both of Eureka. They were accompanied by Miss Laura Horne, sister of the bride, and Mr. Ernest Blue, brother of the groom. Mrs. Blue was a nurse at the McConnell hospital. Blue seems to be a favorite color with nurses and teachers at the Farm Life School. They are showing good judgment. It's a lasting color.

Mr. Gabe Holmes of Goldsboro was a guest of Miss Mary McNeill over Sunday.

Miss Margaret Wicker of Sanford was the guest Sunday of Misses Willie May and Vera Wooten.

In answer to a letter of inquiry sent by Postmaster Turnley to the patrons of the Cameron Routes, asking the patrons what schedule for delivery of mail on the routes was preferable, 160 patrons (heads of families) favored the present schedule to leave the office at 9 o'clock; 63 favored the 12:30 schedule, and 6 favored the old schedule before the present change was made.

DAVIS TO PREACH TABERNACLE In the absence of Rev. H. E. Lance, who is attending the commencement and also the summer school at Trinity, Rev. Harvey Davis will preach at the Tabernacle church next Sunday at 11 o'clock and at Mt. Carmel at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

"No need to have a cracked, spotted, ugly ceiling!"

said the practical carpenter, "when it is so easy and so economical to UPSONIZE. Your walls and ceilings will be much more artistic and beautiful, and they'll be fixed up for good. You'll have no plaster to crack, chip or fall—no wall paper to fade and tear. I tell you, it pays to use

UPSON-BOARD

(The most dependable board made in America)

He was right! She paid him no more for Upsonizing than repairing the plaster would have cost.

Now her walls always look handsome. They are finished in soft, dainty tints, and deep, rich shades of washable paint that she can keep scrubbed fresh and spotless. Jars and accidental leaks can't hurt them now.

Let us tell you all about this remarkable Upson Board—the one DEPENDABLE wall board that meets all practical tests. It is not like other wall boards—is harder, stiffer and more durable—looks, feels and works like real lumber. Costs $5 to $15 per room less to paint, too! You can use it for any room or every room in the home—or store—or factory. Architects now specify it for the finest walls and ceilings. Come in for an interesting chat.

GET ALL THAT IS COMING TO YOU!

THERE IS NO HARDER WORK THAN FARMING!

You, who till the soil and grow the crops, are entitled to and should reap the harvest.

Too often is the farmer who, after growing good crops and taking pains to see they are graded and packed properly, induced to give them to some Exchange, or sell them to some speculator who flashes the cash and tells you he is paying more money than the goods are bringing on the consuming market, and you not wanting to lose out, dispose of your goods there and then.

You work hard; and when about to reap the reward of your labors, hand it to someone else. You took a chance when you planted the seed, why not take a chance and

SHIP YOUR OWN GOODS?

Prices have been high, but have not compared with what they will bring this season. Everything will be wanted, Potatoes and Cabbage especially.

For eighteen years I have been at the same address handling produce, and have the same shippers today as when I started. Their goods are sold upon arrival, check and account sales going forward the same day.

Your goods will be sold by me the same day as received and your check will go forward the same day. Can I handle your goods THIS SEASON? It makes no difference if you only have a few packages or a carload. One and all are treated alike. Look me up, ask your bank as to my rating, consult any mercantile book, ask any receiver on the Philadelphia market, and you will be convinced that you should and will ship your fresh fruits and vegetables to one who always has and always will make prompt returns, sell for the high dollar, and make good.

Worn Down, Out of Heart

Georgia Lady, Worn-out and Tired, Tells How She Was Helped by Ziron Iron Tonic.

THE personal experience of Mrs. Nannie Phillips, of Powder Springs, Ga., is printed below in her own words:

"I was in a worn-out condition. My stomach was out of order. I didn't sleep well. I was tired all the time. I couldn't half eat, and didn't rest well at night.

"I would get out of heart and blue. I would feel like I was going to be down in bed. Yet I kept dragging around.

"We heard of Ziron, and from what I read, I was sure it wouldn't hurt me, if it didn't help me. But after taking it, I found it really helped me, and I sent back for more. I ate better, felt much stronger. I am sure Ziron is a splendid tonic."

Many people, who are worn down and disheartened, due to stomach disorders and nervous ills, find relief by toning up their blood with Ziron Iron Tonic.

Tell your druggist you want to try Ziron on our money-back guarantee.
