How they do disappear

Almost before you know it—only one left. Because Occo-nee-chee Self-Rising Flour is great for biscuits, waffles and hot-cakes.

This flour contains baking-powder, soda and salt in proportions to insure perfect results, and is economical, for the ingredients cost less when bought already mixed. Just mix Occo-nee-chee with water or milk and bake—it takes only a few minutes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McDonald and little sons of Duke, visited last week at the home of Mr. John McDonald and daughters, over in East Cameron.

To the friends and neighbors who were so kind and attentive during the recent illness of my daughter, Kate, she and I gratefully acknowledge our appreciation.

Mr. M. L. Bolton, better known as Mallie Bolton on Route Three, was fatally injured in an automobile wreck on the Capitol Highway near the home of Mr. Neill A. McNeill. He was found by some men who were passing. He was badly injured and unconscious. They carried him to the C. G. Hospital but he died before medical aid could be given. He was buried Sunday at Cameron Hill in Harnett county by the side of his mother, who passed away about two months ago.

The following items have been given to the correspondent for publication from two prominent church members of different churches:

From the Baptist follows: At one of the services held during the recent protracted meeting at the Baptist church, a special appeal was made to young people to dedicate themselves to some special work of the church, as missionaries, teachers in Christian schools, preachers, or nurses in our denominational hospitals. Six young people responded and promised to try to prepare themselves for any work they might be later called to do, and were willing to "follow where He leads." This was a most interesting and helpful service. Plans are being put on foot for Christmas trees at the Baptist Sunday School some time during Christmas week. An interesting

Pay Your TAXES NOW

AND SAVE THE DISCOUNT. I will be at the following places at the time specified below for the purpose of collecting the taxes for the year 1920.

Your taxes are due after October 1st each year; the law contemplates that all taxes must be settled not later than the following January. The new tax law gives a discount of one per cent on all taxes paid during the months of October and November; during the month of December, the net amount; after January 1st, one per cent will be added each month until paid.

NOW is the time to pay your taxes, before the rush, and save the discount. If you are not able to meet me on this round, settle at the office.

Don't delay this important matter.
