DEATH OF MRS. ANNIE FRY

Mrs. Annie Fry died at the Carolina Hospital in Sanford Friday afternoon at 5:15. Mrs. Fry suffered a stroke of paralysis last March while in Florida. She was brought home and later sent to the Carolina Hospital for treatment, but failed to recover.

Mrs. Fry was Miss Annie Shields before her marriage, and was born and raised in Moore county. She married Mr. Jim Fry, of Carthage, who died several years ago. She was a devoted member of the Carthage Methodist church and was one of the well-known characters of the community in which she lived.

The funeral services were held on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Methodist Church by Rev. G. W.
Perry. The interment took place in Cross Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Fry leaves one daughter, Mrs.
A. D. Way, of Carthage, and a brother, Mr. Tom Shields. She was the mother of two sons, Braxton and Wade Fry, whose deaths preceded her's.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our sincere appreciation for the many kindnesses shown during the illness and at the death of our mother.
Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Way.
