

FORMER SYLVA GIRL AND HUSBAND COMPLIMENTED.

Boone, October 28.—Mr. and Mrs. James Council, of Waynesville, who were recently married and who are visiting here, were honor guests at a buffet supper party given by Mrs. Tracy Council and Mrs. J.F. Hardin at the home of Mrs. Council.

The Council bungalow was attractively decorated with potted plants and candles. The hostesses were assisted in entertaining their guests by Miss Louise Critcher and Miss Alice Council.

Following the serving of the supper, music was enjoyed.

Mrs. James Council was before her marriage Miss Margaret Moore, of Sylva.

Mr. Council is an engineer of the State Highway forces, stationed near Waynesville, where the couple will reside.

MR. AND MRS. COUNCIL GIVEN PRETTY RECEPTION.

Boone, October 28.—Honoring Mr. and Mrs. James H. Council, of Waynesville, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Council gave a pretty reception at Boone, on the Boone Trail, on Tuesday evening.

The receiving line, passed by more than a hundred guests in the course of the evening, was composed of the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Council, Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Council and Mr. and Mrs. John F. Hardin.

Punch was served by Miss Virginia Council from an attractively decorated punch table. Mrs. C. D. Coffee, of North Wilkesboro, invited the guests into the dining room which was lovely in its decorations of pink roses and ferns. Mrs. Murray Critcher presided. Pouring tea and coffee at the table were Mrs. Emma Council and Miss Lily Dale.

DAUGHTER BORN.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Davis, Thursday, November 5, a daughter, Julia Adelaide.

MISS SECREST, OF CANTON, TO WED MR. W. R. PALMER.

Asheville Citizen.

Many friends in Asheville as well as in Canton and throughout this section of the State will be interested in the announcement made on Wednesday of the engagement of Miss Alice Secrest and Mr. W. R. Palmer, both of Canton.

Miss Secrest is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Secrest, prominent citizens of Canton. She was graduated from Miami University at Oxford, Ohio, in 1920, and has been teaching in various high schools of the State since. The Secrest family came from Cincinnati to Canton several years ago and have been identified with religious, civic and social life in this section, being leaders in all good works. Miss Secrest is a charming girl, being characterized with amiability and many attractive qualities. Mr. Palmer, who is a native Western North Carolinian, has been residing at Canton for the past few years and in every way of fine qualities and in every way worthy of the young lady who has chosen him for her life companion.

The announcement was made by the bride elect's mother at a tea given at the Secrest home in Canton on Wednesday which was attended by about 100 friends among the number being several from Asheville.

The guests were met at the door by Mrs. F. R. Mease and Mrs. G. M. Trostel. They were then introduced to the receiving line in the living room by Mrs. C. V. Hampton, and Mrs. W. S. Martin, who led them to the dining room where Mrs. P. D. Coleman, Mrs. O. M. Hampton and Mrs. F. W. Votow, assisted by Mrs. H. G. Starkey, Mrs. C. A. Pless and Mrs. H. S. Bell and Misses Lucile Hips and Victoria Bell, served a delicious ice course followed by coffee and mints.

The spacious living room was beautiful in a profusion of yellow chrysanthemums, and the dining room was lovely in pink and lavender, the color scheme being tastefully carried out in every detail. The table was most attractive in a cover of cluny lace with a large basket of pink roses and maiden hair fern with touches of lavender and the pink candles in the cut glass candlesticks cast a soft glow over the room. At each plate was found a scroll tied with lavender tulle, bearing the following announcement: Miss Alice Secrest—Mr. W. R. Palmer, January, 1926.

Mr. Palmer will be remembered in Waynesville as the son of Mr. Wm. A. Palmer, former sheriff of Haywood county. Mr. Palmer received his education in the city schools of Waynesville.

THE MOUNTAINEER STAFF.

Mr. Charles B. Gore has accepted a position with The Waynesville Mountaineer in the advertising department. With the addition of Mr. Gore The Waynesville Mountaineer now has connected with it: Mr. Tom Bridges, Mr. Homer Davis, Mr. Robert McLean, and Mr. MacNelly.

In the editorial department we have made arrangements to have a weekly contribution from the pen of "Arthur Brisbane," one of America's best known editorial writers. We now have a condensed State news article appearing every week by Hon. M. L. Shipman of Raleigh.

In addition to the above we are making arrangements to publish some other noted writer's articles and hope to establish a woman's department and increase the regular size of our paper.

The local news and editorials are handled by Miss Wilda Crawford and the editor.

Some of our contributing editors of Waynesville will continue to entertain our readers from time to time. Our best known contributing editor is Prof. W. C. Allen.

U. D. C. MEET.

The Daughters of the Haywood Chapter of U. D. C. were delightfully entertained Nov. 6 at the home of Mrs. E. J. Hyatt in Hazelwood.

After the usual opening exercises the business of the chapter was taken up in order.

The Daughters heartily welcomed two new members, Mrs. Lillian Williams Kirkpatrick, by demit from the John Davis Jeerles Chapter, Pacolet, S. C. and Mrs. Florence Turbyfill Martin by certificate.

The delegates elected to the National Convention of the U. D. C. which convenes at Hot Springs, Ark. Nov. 15-16, were Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick, delegate, Mrs. M. Theo. McCracken alternate and Mrs. R. N. Barber delegate, and Mrs. W. L. McCracken alternate.

The following committees were appointed to collect Christmas packages for the annual box that the Daughters send to the inmates of the Old Ladies Home at Fayetteville: Mrs. W. L. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Leon M. Killian, Mrs. F. D. Ferguson. A list of the names of the inmates will be secured enabling each daughter to make a personal gift. Make your package "Christmasy" by using seals and lots of red ribbon. Mrs. R. N. Barber very generously offered a box of apples to be sent by the chapter to the veterans in Raleigh for Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Leon M. Killian read (prepared by Mrs. C. W. Miller, Jr.) The Alabama Claims.

Miss Ida Jean Brown sang "Be Believe Me, If all Those Endearing Young Charms." We always enjoy Miss Brown's singing.

Mrs. L. E. Fisher, leader of district No. 1 of Asheville, N. C., gave a very instructive and interesting discussion on the plans of the work for the Daughters as worked out by the Executive Board of the North Carolina Division of the U. D. C. Mrs. Fisher is bubbling over with enthusiasm and every one that heard her went home with a desire to do greater things this year. Her chief work this year is to raise funds for the Gettysburg Monument.

The chapter voted to call the meeting at 3:00 P. M. during the winter months.

Mrs. J. Harden Howell was appointed Recorder of World War crosses.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned to meet Dec. 4 with Mrs. Leon M. Killian.

Mrs. Neal, Mrs. R. H. Blackwell, Mrs. Prevost and Mrs. Fisher were guests for the afternoon.

Mrs. Hyatt, assisted by Mrs. Prevost and Miss Margaret Hyatt, served a delicious salad course.

MR. J. P. HERREN PASSES AWAY

Mr. J. P. Herren passed away at his home on East street early Sunday morning. Although Mr. Herren had been in failing health for several months his death came as a shock to his family and community. Mr. Herren had suffered from heart trouble for several months, it being the cause of his sudden death.

In the passing away of Mr. Herren Waynesville loses one of her oldest and most respected citizens. He was born July 25, 1848 in Waynesville and died November 8, 1925, at the age of 77. He had been a member of the Baptist church of Waynesville since early childhood.

The funeral was conducted from the Baptist church Monday afternoon at three o'clock by Rev. C. T. Tew, pastor of the First Baptist church, and Rev. A. V. Joyner of Canton, a former pastor of the deceased, in the presence of his many friends who had gathered to pay their last respects to him.

Mr. Herren is survived by his wife and three children, Mrs. H. B. Foy, Jr. of Wilmington, Miss Jessie Herren of Waynesville and Mr. A. D. Herren of Washington, L. C.

Interment was made at Green Hill cemetery.

HOLLAND-FRANCIS.

Miss Margaret Francis was married to Mr. D. M. Holland of West Palm Beach, October 21, in Cant. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. V. Joyner, a former pastor of the bride, in the presence of the most intimate friends of both bride and groom, and was kept a secret until she was ready to join her husband in Florida.

Mrs. Holland is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Francis and is one of Waynesville's most popular and attractive young ladies. She received her education in the city schools and further pursued her studies by taking art in New York of which talent she is very gifted in.

The bride was beautiful in a black velvet costume with harmonizing accessories.

Mr. Holland is prominent in real estate circles in West Palm Beach, at which point the couple will reside. After the ceremony the bride and groom and several additional guests enjoyed a dinner party at Martin's Tea Room in Canton.

Mrs. Holland left Friday morning for West Palm Beach where she will make her new home.

Let every church in this group send representatives and let's have a real spiritual feast. We invite singers and singing classes from all the churches of our group.

PROGRAM COMMITTEE.

MISS QUINLAN HOSTESS.

Miss Mary Quinlan was the charming hostess to a number of her friends Friday night at her home on South Main. The Halloween decorations of autumn leaves, pumpkins and witches were very effectively used.

Numerous games were played during the evening, after which Miss Helen Ray assisted the hostess in serving delicious refreshments.

Those fortunate enough to accept Miss Quinlan's hospitality were: Misses Helen Ray, Eleanor Garrison, Tibbie Hardin, Virginia Garrison, Dorothy Lane, Mary Stringfield, Mary Ashworth Barber, Elizabeth Reynolds, of Asheville, Margaret Joyner, of Canton, Isabel Davis, Grace Hipp, Margaret Ashton, Caroline Ashton, Nancy Crockett, Ruth Tew, Anna Jordan McDowell, Elizabeth Smathers and Messrs. Joe Welch, T. N. Massie, Jr., Jimmy Reed, James Osborne, Edwin Haynes, Douglas Badgett, Hugh Noland, David Felmet, Whitner Prevost, Aaron Prevost, Henry Cox, J. P. Francis, Jr., Harry Rotha, Lee Davis, Lee Matney, Ralston Campbell, Roland Stall, Bill Garrison, Donald Hyatt, Joe Howell, Mark Davis, Walter Maloney and Richard Barber.

MRS. REED ENTERTAINS.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Reed delightfully entertained with nine tables of bridge Thursday night, honoring their twenty-second anniversary.

The Halloween motif predominated throughout the whole lower floor, which was thrown ensuite for the occasion.

Mrs. Reed served her guests with a delicious salad course at the conclusion of the games.

Friday night Mrs. Reed was again hostess to her friends with a dinner party. The same decorations were effectively used. Covers were laid for ten.

HALLOWEEN PARTY.

The G. A.'s of the Baptist church entertained with a Halloween party at the home of Mrs. Joe Tate on Walnut street, Saturday night.

The invited guests enjoyed numerous games around the large bonfire in the yard.

Punch, sandwiches and candy were served during the evening.

Those present were: Misses Lola Davis, Josephine Cabe, Elizabeth Henry, Gladys Justice, Muriel Howell, Louie Medford, Frances Moody, Fannie Pearl Felmet, Margaret Burgin, Opal Ferguson, Maude Kinsland, Louise Francis, Mary Pauline and Anna Jean Plott, Louise Moody, Margaret Hyatt, Helen Martin, Mary Duckett, Walsie Prady, Mabel Underwood, Minnie Calhoun, and T. MR. WILLIAM KIMBERLY TO WED WAYNESVILLE GIRL.

Sunday Citizen.

Cordial interest will be attracted by the announcement made at a bridge party in Waynesville on Friday afternoon of the engagement of Miss Virginia Rotha, of that city, and Mr. William Maney Kimberly, of Asheville.

Miss Rotha's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Graves, was hostess for the event entertaining eight tables of players at her country home just out of Waynesville.

The young ladies who were fortunate enough to be included in the significant function were apprised of the news shortly after arriving when they took their places at the card tables and found the tables to be pretty little handpainted pads bearing miniature brides in full bridal array, under which were written the names of the future bride and groom and the appointed date for the wedding, December 19.

After the flurry of excitement over the announcement was over games progressed for some little time and Mrs. M. Woolsey made the top score and received two lovely candle sticks as her reward. Mrs. Graves presented her niece, the bride-to-be, with a handsome handmade piece of lingerie.

Miss Rotha is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rotha, prominent citizens of Waynesville, and is one of the prettiest and most popular members of young society of the city, being a striking blonde. She has frequently visited her future husband's sister, Mrs. D'Arcy Williams, of this city, and is well known here, having a large circle of friends to welcome her here as a new member of the social set.

Mr. Kimberly is the only son of Mrs. James Kimberly, of Woolsey, belonging to one of the oldest families of Asheville. He graduated at Bingham School and further pursued his studies at the University of North Carolina. Mr. Kimberly is owner of the William Kimberly Building Supplies and is also interested in the Edgewood Development and Construction Company, of this city.

The marriage will be a quiet event and will probably take place in the First Presbyterian church of Waynesville. Mr. Kimberly's sister, Mrs. D'Arcy Williams, went over to Waynesville for the announcement party and is remaining until Wednesday as the guest of Miss Rotha. Miss Rotha wore for her announcement party a stunning gown of black satin with picture hat in black.

CLYDE CULLINGS.

Rev. W. G. Warren is the new preacher for the M. E. Church here. He is an evangelist of some note and comes well recommended and will doubtless give general satisfaction.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Medford have returned from a three week's visit to Pittsburg, Pa., where they visited the former's sister, Mrs. T. C. Hull.

Richard W. West, one of Clyde's best and most respected citizens, received a letter a few days ago by airplane. It was carried by airplane from a western state to New York City and from there to Clyde by train.

We predict now that the time will soon come when J. P. Hawkins, W. A. Grahl, W. T. Smathers and all other R. F. D. men will have to pursue some other vocation because the mail in all parts of the country will be carried by airplane.

The basketball game here Monday afternoon between Rock Hill High School and Clyde High School resulted in a score of 21 to 14 in favor of the Clyde boys. The local team is composed of Jerry Rogers, Hubert Robinson, Tom Chambers, Zeb Rogers and D. B. Vance.

W. J. Jenkins, age 75 years, has "cut" a new jaw tooth and is wondering whether the "adage," "once a man and twice a child" is true or not.

Our prominent Bishop has been suffering intensely for several days from a splinter puncture in his left hand. This gentleman is no less a personage than our distinguished police Judge M. O. Bishop, who has faithfully served the town in this capacity during the last several years.

Dr. H. N. Wells of Whittier has just spent several days with his daughter, Mrs. F. E. Haynes. It is believed by some that the doctor and one of Clyde's fairest and most winsome female teachers have commenced a courtship that will culminate in blissful matrimony.

Last Saturday morning Mr. Pinkney Payne left home with his gun to seek game on a mountain a mile away and not returning home by bedtime Saturday night his family thought that he was spending the night with a neighbor and would return home early next morning. And not having returned by Sunday morning a company of men, headed by M. B. Smith, was organized to make diligent search for him until found: Mr. Smith first discovered the prostrate body on the side of the mountain where he had been digging for a ground hog about an hour. He was speechless, very wet and cold and almost dead. He was placed on the back of Mr. Smith who carried him to the foot of the mountain and was then taken home to his sorrowing wife and children. Dr. W. L. Kirkpatrick of Waynesville was sent for who diagnosed his case as apoplexy precipitated by high blood pressure. Prognosis grave.

Dr. Walking Bear, an Indian of 75 years, formerly of Canton, is now located at Clyde for the practice of medicine. He gathers roots, herbs and barks from which he manufactures several specifics and non-specifics. He dances rapidly, jumps and kicks high to demonstrate the effect his medicines have on himself. Dr. Charles Gentry, colored, age 65 years, has resided here since his infancy and is the only colored person here. He treats warts, goitre and other cutaneous and glandular troubles very successfully according to the opinion of Rufe Penland, Zach Brown and John Smathers. It is believed that Dr. Walking Bear and Dr. Gentry will soon office together and do a very lucrative practice.

CHILDREN'S BOOK WEEK.

Let us all remember that the week from November 8th to November 14th is Children's Book Week.

The Waynesville Library is observing it as usual, by asking the school children to write papers on "My Favorite Book."

The prizes will be awarded next week, and the names of the winner will be announced in a later edition of the paper.

It is to be hoped that the various organizations of the town will feel like contributing something to the Library for the Children's book fund, as this is the time of the year when we like especially to be able to put something new on the children's book shelves, in order to assure interest in reading as a worth-while occupation.

HELP THE ORPHANS.

As we approach the Thanksgiving season and plan for the celebration of that event let us remember the unfortunate orphans who do not know the joy of a real home and who so long for the little extras that we take as a matter of course daily. Each person is asked to contribute the amount of one day's labor for the maintenance of orphans and taking due consideration of the happy faces that will be made by such a meager contribution to a small offering to make. Heed the call of distress and make these orphans happy at Thanksgiving.

ENGRAVING.

The proper place to get your engraved calling cards, business cards, greeting cards, wedding invitations, announcements, etc., is at a printing office.

We handle printing, engraving, embossing, lithographing, copperplate work, rubber stamps, stencils and seals, metal badges, ribbons, stickers, blotters and commercial job printing a specialty.

WAYNESVILLE MOUNTAINEER.MISS ROTHA HONORED.

Mrs. Joe Graves entertained with eight tables of bridge Friday, announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Virginia Rotha to Mr. William Kimberly of Asheville, which will be an event of December 19.

The score cards were very attractive with handpainted brides and bearing the initials V. R.—W. M. K., December 19. For her party Miss Rotha wore a lovely black crepe back satin with harmonizing accessories.

Mrs. M. Woolsey held top score of the afternoon and received a pair of mahogany candlesticks. The honoree was presented with a dainty piece of lingerie. Mrs. Graves served a delightful salad course.

Those enjoying the affair were: Misses Virginia Rotha, Sarah Hill, Dorothy Thomas, Braxton Kirk, Jante

MISSES GARRETT ENTERTAIN.

Misses Edna and Elizabeth Garrett entertained a few of their young friends Saturday night at their home on Pigeon street.

Numerous games were played during the evening, after which punch and wafers were served.

Those present were Misses Mary Nell Miller, Martha Neil, Mary E. Mock, Tillie Rotha and Louisa Thackston. Coming in later were, Mrs. C. W. Miller, Jr. and Mrs. Ira Thackston.

HUNTING PARTY.

The members of the Rod and Gun Club with their guests are enjoying a several days hunting party this week. Those composing the party are Dr. J. F. Abel, Hugh Abel, F. G. Rippetoe, Clarence Phillips, Jack Phillips, G. C. Platt, M. Woolsey, L. M. Killian, Hub Jones, of Charlotte, Lowry Hardin, Clayton Walker, W. L. Lampkin, Albert Abel, Dr. N. M. Medford, Dr. Hargrove, of Canton, John Tate, of Canton, Roy Martin, Sam Felmet, of Canton, E. J. Hyatt, Dr. Reynolds, of Canton, W. E. Roberts, of Canton.

Little Miss Hester Anne Withers was the charming hostess to a Halloween party Saturday night at her home on Church street. The home was lovely decorated with Halloween cats and witches. The young guests came in costume and prizes were awarded for the most unique. Little Miss O'Neil Kirk and Master Ben Atkins were the winners of the prizes which further carried out the Halloween motif.

About forty-five young guests enjoyed Miss Withers' party.

LITTLE MISS WITHERS HOSTESS.

The young guests came in costume and prizes were awarded for the most unique. Little Miss O'Neil Kirk and Master Ben Atkins were the winners of the prizes which further carried out the Halloween motif.

About forty-five young guests enjoyed Miss Withers' party.

FRANCIS-NICHOLS.

Miss Mayme Nichols and Mr. David Francis were quietly married at the First Baptist church Wednesday afternoon by Rev. C. T. Tew, pastor of the First Baptist church. Only the intimate friends of the young couple witnessed the ceremony.

The bride wore a becoming afternoon frock of brown crepe satin with harmonizing accessories.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Francis left for an extended honeymoon, after which they will be at home to their friends in Waynesville.

Mrs. Francis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Nichols and has many friends here.

Mr. Francis is the son of Mrs. Annie Francis and holds a position with the City Barber Shop.
